The Victor Record Catalogue

Our customers and dealers continue to be enthusiastic over the Victor's radical departure—the first real alphabetical record catalogue ever issued, and which is not only a catalogue, but something of a musical encyclopædia as well. It is everywhere pronounced a very great improvement over the old form, many declaring it to be the most valuable and unique catalogue ever issued by any corporation.

How to use

It will be observed that this catalogue has no index—or rather, it is all index,—every title, subject, singer, organization and composer being in its proper place, with all the records in each class set underneath the subject heading; and each with its number, size and price printed plainly after the title. In every case where a double-faced record is listed both titles are given. For example, take double-faced record No. 17578. This appears first under the A's, as follows:

America (Dr. S. F. Smith-Henry Carey) Victor Mixed Chorus Red, White and Blue (Dwight-Shaw) Victor Mixed Chorus	17578	10	.75

And this record will also be found under the R's, with titles reversed, thus:

Red, White and Blue (Dwight-Shaw) Victor Mixed Chorus America (Smith-Carey) Victor Mixed Chorus	17578	10	.75

Each title appears in its proper alphabetical order, with the title of the selection on the other side of the record indented and printed in italic type in order that it may keep the alphabetical column perfectly clear.

Subject Headings

In so complete a catalogue some records are listed several times under various headings, and under these subject headings it has been found necessary to list double-faced records in a different way, as follows:

SCOTCH SONGS AND INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC

Flow Gently, Sweet Afton (Afton Water) (Burns) Herbert Witherspoon	64108	10	1.00
Flow Gently, Sweet Afton—Miller and Ould Plaid Shawl—Henry Burr	17386	10	.75
Highland Laddie (2) My Love She's But a Lassie and 79th Highlanders' Farewell—Sutcliffe Troupe	17408	10	.75
Hills o' Skye (McLennan-Harris) Janet Spencer	74291	12	1.50
I'm Wearing Awa'—Wells and Daddy (Behrend) Elizabeth Wheeler	17203	10	.75

The two selections in this case being set on the same line (the second title in italic type) and divided by the symbol "and."

Alphabetical plan To show how this plan preserves the alphabetical arrangement take this example:

OPERA AIRS IN ENGLISH

African—Oh, Paradise (L'Africana—O Paradiso) (Meyerbeer) Williams	74148	12	1.50
Atalanta—Come Beloved (Care Selve) (Handel) Alma Gluck	74504	12	1.50
Bohême–Rudolph's Narrative, "Thy Hands are Frozen" (Puccini) Williams	74129	12	1.50
Bohemian Girl—For twelve records see "Bohemian Girl"
Carmen—Flower Song (Bizet) Evan Williams	74122	12	1.50
Carmen—Toreador Song and Trovatore—Tempest of the Heart—Alan Turner	16521	10	.75
* * * * * * * * * *
Trovatore–Tempest of the Heart and Carmen–Toreador Song (Bizet) Turner	16521	10	.75

It will be noticed that the operatic titles are all in the left column in alphabetical order. If the opposite side is also an opera air in English, then the selections are reversed and repeated further down the column (see Carmen and Trovatore airs), to give the second title its own proper position.

Suggestions invited Because of the great labor involved in compiling so comprehensive a catalogue, some mistakes occasionally occur. The editor wishes to thank those who have called attention to errors and suggested various changes. Corrections or suggestions for further improvement of the next edition, or communications on any subject pertaining to records, will be gladly received. Just address Victor Catalogue Editor, Camden, N. J.

Red Seal Section The Red Seal Records have been printed in a special Pink Section for the convenience of customers who are specially interested in Red Seal records.

Features Thumb guides in conspicuous type, both right and left hand, to facilitate turning to any desired page; every record in alphabetical order under title of selection; every double-faced record in alphabetical order under title of each selection in its turn. Language—All records are sung in English unless otherwise indicated; the operatic records are sung as noted under each opera. Records of standard compositions under name of composer; many records under one or more subject headings for ready reference; every opera with place and date of first performance; sketches of the operas; scenes from the operas; every operatic record under title of the opera; all selections from opera in exact order they are sung or played in the opera, with acts and scenes indicated; list of selected records for new Victor customers; special Red Seal section on pink paper; sketches of prominent composers; sketches of the careers of the various artists; reference list of Victor singers and players; list of subject headings; pronouncing table of composers and artists; pronouncing table of opera titles; blank pages for memoranda. The last five features will be found at the end of the catalogue.

Accompaniments

The great majority of Victor Records (vocal solos, duets, quartets and instrumental solos, etc.) are made with orchestral accompaniments. The few exceptions are many of the violin solos, certain songs which especially call for pianoforte accompaniments and a list of male quartets unaccompanied.

How to get best results

It seems almost unnecessary to say to Victor customers "Use only good needles" and "don't play records at various speeds." Victor records are made with the greatest care and if properly played will last indefinitely, and so to aid new customers in keeping records in good condition we offer the following suggestions.

78 Revolutions per minute

Set the regulator so that the turntable of your Victrola revolves seventy-eight times per minute, and never change it unless for some special purpose. When using Victrola and piano together, it is occasionally necessary to change the speed slightly to get the two instruments exactly in tune; and sometimes the dancers wish a little variation to suit the steps. Test the speed occasionally by placing a slip of paper under the edge of the record, and while it is revolving, see that the paper revolves 78 times in one minute.

You will, of course, meet the man who insists on turning the regulator of his Victrola up and down, thus changing the speed with each record he plays. Don't imitate him—he is wrong. Only at a speed of seventy-eight can you hear the actual tones of the singer or player just as they were recorded.

Starting the record

Don't try to drop the needle or Tungs-tone Stylus exactly into the first record groove. If you do, it is likely to make a hole, and you will hear a little "tick" when the needle passes over the spot. The proper way is to start the instrument and then wait two or three seconds, until it is running at full speed (you can give the turntable a little "push" to facilitate this), carefully lower the sound box so that the needle or stylus rests on the smooth outside rim of the disc; then push it gently towards the center and it will glide into the first groove of the record.

Important Warning

Victor records can be safely and satisfactorily played only with Victor Needles or Tungs-tone Stylus on Victors or Victrolas. Victor records cannot be safely played on machines with jeweled or other reproducing points.

A Selected List From Which to Choose Your First Records

Realizing how difficult it is for a recent customer to make a selection from the thousands of records listed in this catalogue, we give below a carefully selected list of records, and you may choose your first records from this list with some assurance that you are placing yourself in a position to derive immediate enjoyment and pleasure from your Victor, adding further to your collection at leisure.

AFRICANA (Af-ree-kah'-nah)—French title, L'Africaine (Laf-ree-kane')

Opera in five acts; text by Scribe; music by Meyerbeer. Produced Paris, 1865; London, 1865; first N. Y., 1865. Revived in 1906 at the Metropolitan, with Caruso.

L'Africaine tells of the adventures of Vasco di Gama, the explorer, who is betrothed to Inez, daughter of the King of Portugal. The King tries to marry his daughter to Don Pedro, telling her that the explorer has been shipwrecked, but Vasco suddenly appears with two slaves, Selika and Nelusko, whom he found off the coast of a strange land. Vasco, when the Council refuses to furnish him with a ship to explore the unknown country, denounces their parsimony and is ordered to prison. To save him, Inez consents to wed Don Pedro, who takes his wife and the slaves and sails away to find the land sought by the explorer. Don Pedro's ship is wrecked on the coast of India through the treachery of Nelusko, and most of the crew massacred. Vasco, who has followed them, becomes fascinated with Selika, who proves to be a Queen of India, but just as he is about to wed her he hears the voice of Inez and deserts the Queen. Selika, concealing her feelings, generously sends the lovers back to Spain, then kills herself with the blossoms of the poisonous mancanilla tree while Nelusko, finding her body, himself inhales the deadly perfume.

NOTE.—The selections in Africana and other operas in this catalogue are printed in the order of their occurrence in the opera. Africana records are sung in Italian except as noted.

AÏDA (Ah-ee'-dah) (All records are in Italian unless otherwise noted)

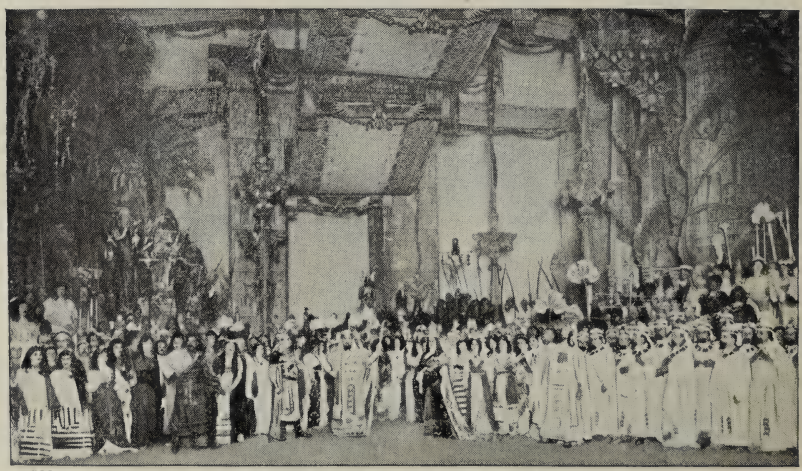
Opera in four acts. Text translated from Locle by Ghislanzoni; music by Verdi. First produced in Cairo, 1871; Milan, 1872; Paris, 1876; London, 1876; N. Y., 1873.



LANDE

THE RETURN OF RHADAMES—ACT II

AÏDA—Continued

Aïda, daughter of Amonasro, King of Ethiopia, has been captured by the Egyptians and is a slave at Memphis, where she and the young soldier, Rhadames, have fallen in love with each other. Rhadames goes to the Egyptian war, and during his absence the King's daughter, Amneris, discovers the attachment and is furious, as she herself loves Rhadames.

Rhadames returns, covered with glory and bringing many prisoners, among them Amonasro, Aïda's father. The King releases all the prisoners except Amonasro, and bestows his daughter on the unwilling Rhadames.

In the next scene Amonasro forces his daughter to persuade Rhadames to become a traitor. The latter's love for Aïda and his distaste for the approaching union with Amneris lead him to consent. Amneris, however, has overheard the plot, and after vainly trying to induce Rhadames to abandon Aïda, in a jealous rage she denounces him as a traitor, and he is condemned to be buried alive. When the vault is sealed he discovers Aïda, who has concealed herself there that she might die with him, and the lovers slowly suffocate.

ALTHOUSE, PAUL, Tenor

ALTHOUSE

This young tenor, whose success in Boris at the Metropolitan was well deserved, decided, following the lead of all the greatest singers in the world, to entrust the recording of his voice to the Victor.

Paul Althouse came to New York, at the age of twenty, after having had some little instruction in his native town, determined to embrace a musical career. He was advised to see Mr. Oscar Saenger, and this famous teacher realized at once the great possibilities in such a voice, and agreed to take him as a pupil.

The result of Mr. Saenger's training was a four years' contract with the Metropolitan, and before this contract had been in existence a year the young artist had made his sensational success in Boris Godounow.

Mr. Althouse's successes have not been confined to his performance of Dimitri in Boris, by any means, and he has appeared with some of the largest oratorio societies and festivals, besides many song recitals.

It will not be necessary to inform those who have heard Mr. Althouse sing that he has a beautiful voice, as that is evident before a dozen tones are heard. We will merely say here for the guidance of customers in general that the records which he has made are excellent reproductions of a fine tenor voice.

AMERICAN QUARTET

This popular organization is composed of four singers well known to Victor audiences (John Bieling, Billy Murray, Steve Porter, Wm. F. Hooley), who have had a long and successful experience in the making of talking machine records. In their renditions of popular songs of the day and humorous specialties they are unequaled.

AVON COMEDY FOUR, Male Quartet

This famous organization of vaudeville players, made up of Irving Kaufman, Harry Goodwin, Charles Dale and Joe Smith, has had a very successful career, which has extended over a period of several years. It is well known in every city where there is a Keith's Theatre, and it is known to every village—indeed in every cottage—where people have learned that the Victrola is not only the exponent of musical art, but a companionable, entertaining home comedian.

The comedy sketches in various dialects and song specialties for which the Avon Comedy Four have made themselves famous are listed below.

BACH, JOHANN SEBASTIAN (Bahkh)

BACH

Born Eisenach, Prussia, 1681. Family very musical and was taught violin by father. Afterward studied clavichord. Chorister at Luneberg, 1700. Organist, Armstadt, 1704; appointed court organist at Weimar, 1707; then Concertmeister. Kapellmeister at Coethen 1717 to 1723, then director of several Leipsic churches. Married twice; 20 children. Was greatest master of fugue and counterpoint, and first to introduce present method of fingering for pianoforte. Works numerous, including 300 church cantatas, many organ works, suites, concertos, etc. Larger works include Mass in B minor, Christmas Oratorio, Passion of St. John and St. Matthew. Bach died in 1750, after having become almost blind.

BAKER, ELSIE, Contralto (For other duets see "Duets, Vocal")

This young contralto is one of the most valued members of the Victor vocal staff, her fine voice and excellent diction having been greatly admired by Victor owners.

Miss Baker is gifted with one of those rarities of the musical world—a genuine contralto voice of great richness and resonance. She was a pupil of Dr. W. W. Gilchrist and Henry Gordon Thunder, of Philadelphia, and Oscar Saenger, of New York, and has been secured by the fashionable Church of the Pilgrims in Brooklyn. Her concert and oratorio work in the various cities has stamped her as an artist of the highest rank.

BALALAIKA ORCHESTRA, Russian Imperial Court (Bal-lah-layee'-kah)

The balalaika is a primitive folk instrument with a tone similar to that of a mandolin, and is at present the most famous instrument in Russia. Every regiment has its balalaika orchestra, and the music on the Czar's yacht at Cowes was a balalaika band. This instrument is a kind of guitar, with only three strings, being made in several sizes, from that of a mandolin to something near a double bass.

These records, which were made under the personal direction of the conductor, Mr. Andreeff, exhibit well the striking effects produced by these gifted players.

BALFE, MICHAEL WILLIAM

BALFE

Born Dublin, 1808. Violinist at Drury Lane, London, 1824. Went Paris, became first baritone at Opéra, 1828. Resigned for ill-health; went Italy, where his first opera, Rivali di se stessi, was produced. Married Lina Rosa, Hungarian singer. Returned London 1833; appeared in concert and produced first English opera, Siege of Rochelle—successful. Others followed, including Bohemian Girl, 1843, popular the world over, and sung in German, Italian, French and Spanish.

Balfe went to Berlin, 1849, to produce his works and became famous there. Wrote altogether 31 operas, many songs. Died October 20, 1870, at Rowney Abbey, England.

BAND RECORDS (For School Marches see "Educational Records")

NOTE.—Complete information about any band record in this list—such as the full title, composer, contents of medleys, etc.—if not given here, can always be found under the title of the selection in its alphabetical place. For example, look for the selection "Adagio Lamentoso," and you will see that it is the composer's Sixth Symphony, Opus 74, and that it is part of the fourth and last movement that Mr. Pryor has played. Like many other records, this selection is listed in several different places—under "Tschaikowsky," under "Pathetique," and under "Symphonies," and it is obviously impossible to print complete information in all of these places. For contents of Medleys see "Medleys."

Band records for dancing the new dances—Bostons, Hesitations, Tangos, One-Steps, Maxixes, Trots, Waltzes, etc., will be found under "Dance Records."

BARBIERE DI SIVIGLIA

Barber of Seville, comic opera in two acts; text by Sterbini, a Roman poet; music by Rossini. Produced Rome, 1816; London, 1818; New York, 1825. First called "Almaviva" to distinguish it from Paisiello's "Barber."

The plot of Barber is very simple. Count Almaviva loves Rosina, the ward of Dr. Bartolo, a crusty old bachelor, who secretly wishes to marry her himself. Almaviva persuades the village barber, Figaro, to arrange a meeting for him, and gains entrance to the house disguised as a dragoon, but is arrested by the guardian. Not discouraged, he returns, pretending to be a substitute for Rosina's music teacher, who, he says, is ill. The appearance of the real music master, Don Basilio, spoils this plan, and the Count retreats for the second time, having, however, arranged a plan for elopement. Bartolo finally arouses Rosina's jealousy by pretending that the Count loves another, and she promises to forget him and marry her guardian. When the time for the elopement arrives she meets the Count, intending to reproach him, but he convinces her of the base plot of Bartolo, and the lovers are wedded by a notary, just as Bartolo arrives with officers to arrest the Count. BATTIS, WM. STERLING—Dramatic Reader and Character Impersonator

William Sterling Battis is justly considered the greatest American interpreter of the writings of Charles Dickens. For the past ten years he has been the star attraction in Lyceum and Chautauqua work, his special feature being the presentation of "Life Portrayals" of Dickens' characters in complete costume, with appropriate monologues arranged from the novel in which each character appears. These impersonations are given with great faithfulness as to voice, dialect and mannerisms, exactly as the great novelist describes them. Mr. Battis possesses a voice of phenomenal range and tone coloring, of great flexibility and power.

In addition to a wide experience on the professional stage, he has had exceptional advantages as a student and teacher of rhetoric in some of the best-known schools of expression.

BAYES, NORA

One of the Victor's most important engagements is that of Nora Bayes, who with her inimitable foolery and clean fun, her admirable imitations and clever and witty songs, has become in a very short time one of the greatest favorites on the American stage.

Miss Bayes is the life of every production with which she is connected, and gives a zest to every moment she is on the stage. This talented artist has sung for the Victor some of her greatest successes and the records are among the most entertaining in the catalogue. Miss Bayes also made several duets with her late vaudeville partner, Jack Norworth, an unusually clever comedian.

BEETHOVEN, LUDWIG VON (Bay'-toh-ven) (1770-1827)

Born Bonn, Germany, 1770. Began study of music at age 4. Played at concert at 8. Began composition at 10, writing a cantata and "nine variations." Assistant to concert organist at 11, at 12 conductor of Court Opera Orchestra (without pay!). When 14 was granted a salary of 150 florins (about $80). In 1787 made first visit to Vienna, a great event for the boy. Compositions not important until 1795, but from then to his death wrote 260 works. Only opera, Fidelio, produced Vienna, 1805.

Beethoven's influence on art of music very great and can hardly be estimated. He died March 26, 1827; buried in Vienna.

BERNARD, BARNEY—Hebrew Dialect Comedian

The Victor has engaged a well-known dialect comedian, Mr. Barney Bernard, who played Potash in Montague Glass' "Abe and Mawruss," to make a series of Hebrew dialect records.

Mr. Bernard has given us a very old, but very good story of an attempt of Mr. Cohen to use the telephone for the first time, and two funny episodes in the life of his friend, Goldstein.

BINGHAM, RALPH—Entertainer

BINGHAM

The Victor announces with pleasure the exclusive engagement of this famous humorist and raconteur for a series of records.

This popular entertainer was born in Richmond, Va., in 1870, and made his first appearance in public in 1876. He has now been thirty-eight consecutive years before the public, and has made ten thousand appearances on the American Continent. Says his silver-tongued publicity agent: "Six hundred towns in Uncle Sam's domain have given him, each, five to eight audiences, in repeated recognition of his unequaled artistic and natural accomplishments, skillful platform methods and his inimitable public demonstrations of wit, wisdom, humor, poetry, sentiment, tragedy, music, melody, drollery and mirth." Certainly we can't add anything to that!

BIRD SONG RECORDS—Actual Songs of Birds in the Aviary of Karl Reich of Bremen

Nature-lovers throughout the world rejoiced in the Victor announcement of reproductions of the actual notes of the loveliest of bird singers—the thrush, nightingale and sprosser or "field nightingale."

The Victor's first nightingale record created a sensation, and had a tremendous vogue. Encouraged by the success of this record, further experiments were made, resulting in greatly improved methods of recording bird voices. Not only were new nightingale records made, but the song of the thrush, sprosser and canary recorded. The thrush has a lovely song, and will rival the nightingale in popularity. The sprosser's song is more rhythmic than the nightingale proper, and of greater volume.

BOHÊME, LA (Boh-ehm') (The Bohemians) (In Italian unless noted)

Text by Giacosa and Illica; music by Puccini. First produced at Turin, 1896. In English, as "The Bohemians," in London, 1897. In Italian at Covent Garden, 1899. First American production, November 28, 1899.

Puccini's Bohême is an adaptation of part of Mürger's La Vie Bohême, which depicts life in the Quartier Latin, or the Students' Quarter, in 1830. The principal characters in Puccini's opera are the inseparable quartet described by Mürger, who with equal cheerfulness defy the pangs of hunger and the landlord of their little garret. Rudolph, a poet; Marcel, a painter; Colline, a philosopher; and Schaunard, a musician, are our friends who occupy an attic in the Quartier Latin, where they live and work together. Improvident, reckless and careless, these happy-go-lucky Bohemians find a joy in merely living, being full of faith in themselves.

Rudolph makes the acquaintance of Mimi, a little flower-maker; Marcel meets the gay Musetta, who plays fast and loose with him. Alternate quarrels and reconciliations fill the lives of these lovers, but the final separation ends with the sad death of Mimi, at the close of the opera. In the scenes of careless gaiety is interwoven a touch of pathos; and the music is in turn lively and tender, with a haunting sweetness that is most fascinating.

The principal parts of the opera have been recorded by the Victor, and the series is a splendid one, the singers including Caruso, Melba, Farrar, Gluck, McCormack, etc.

SCENE FROM LEONCAVALLO'S BOHÊME (THÉÂTRE LYRIQUE, 1899)

BOHÊME, LA (Venice, 1897) (Leoncavallo)

Leoncavallo's setting of Murger's story was written several years after the production of Puccini's opera, and differs slightly from the latter version. The first act occurs in the Café Momus, the second in Musetta's house, the third in Marcel's garret, and the fourth in the studio of Rudolph. Unlike the Puccini work, the tenor part is given to Marcel.

The premiere took place at Venice in the Teatro Le Fenice, and it was performed in that city no less than fifty-eight times. In Rome the opera had thirty-two and in Genoa twenty-two performances. In Paris it was presented fifty-eight times, while at The Hague it was put on the boards one hundred times. The highest popularity obtained by the work, however, was won in Mexico. This is the opera in which Caruso scored his sensational success at its performance in Milan in 1898—the turning point in his career.

The opera has never been heard here, a fact to be regretted by all who hear these specimens of the music.

BOHEMIAN GIRL (The records are sung in English)

This popular ballad opera was one of fifteen similar works by Michael Wm. Balfe (1808) and was produced at Drury Lane, London, in 1813.

The story tells of the kidnapping of Arline, daughter of the Count Arnheim, by Devilshoof, a gypsy chief. Thaddeus, a young noble banished from his country, joins the gypsy band and falls in love with Arline. While the gypsies are attending a fair at Presburg, Arline, now a beautiful maiden of 17, incurring the displeasure of the Gypsy Queen, is accused of stealing and is taken before Count Arnheim, who recognizes his daughter by a scar on her arm. She is restored to her rank, but continues to meet Thaddeus secretly, until the lovers are denounced to the Count by the jealous Queen. The Count is at first indignant, but the pleading of his daughter, and the knowledge that Thaddeus is of noble birth, reconciles him to the union of the lovers.

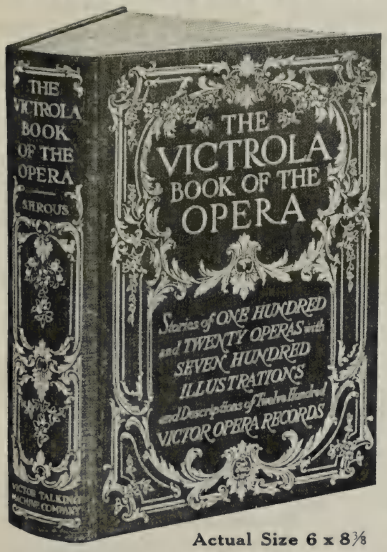
BOOK OF THE OPERA—The fourth revised and enlarged edition



Actual Size 6 x 8⅜

Lovers of operatic records and those interested in stories of the opera should possess a copy of the new and revised edition of the "Victrola Book of the Opera," a handsome volume of 553 pages, which contains stories of one hundred and twenty operas and descriptions of more than 1,200 Victor Opera Records. This remarkably interesting book can be obtained from any Victor dealer for $1.00, or will be sent by the Victor Talking Machine Company, Camden, N. J., for $1.15 (the 15c. additional being for carriage).

The illustration on this page shows the cover design and general style of the book. It is attractively bound in red cloth, with lettering in pure leaf gold and gilt edge, 6 x 8⅜. It is the most completely illustrated book on opera ever published, containing more than 700 scenes from opera, portraits of famous singers in costume, and reproductions of celebrated paintings.

The "Book of the Opera" is distributed at a merely nominal price, which represents less than the actual cost of production. Every opera lover will certainly want this attractive work, of which more than 100,000 copies have already been distributed.

A copy of this volume should be in every school, musical or literary society, conservatory of music, and library in the country, and should be possessed by every music teacher.

BOSHKO SISTERS

These two young Russian artists, who have already given a good account of themselves in concerts in Petrograd, where they have played before the Czar, have been in much demand for public and private recitals since their first American appearances. The Misses Boshko have played for the Victor two decidedly interesting compositions—a Tyrolean Dance from Dvořák's "Sonatine" (this is the one from which Mr. Kreisler took his popular "Indian Lament"), and the charming "Menuett in G" of Beethoven, which has been made so popular by Mischa Elman.

BRAHMS, JOHANNES (Brahmz) (1833–1897)

BRAHMS

Born Hamburg, 1833. Father played orchestra in theatre and taught boy. At 14 made first appearance as pianist. At 20 made concert tour, was heard by Joachim, who pronounced him a genius. Some compositions of this period not successful, and Brahms spent some years in further study. In 1862 went Vienna as conductor, bringing out choral works by Bach and Handel with great success. His first symphony, upon which he had worked for ten years, off and on, presented 1876, with great success. Greatest work, his Requiem, a sacred cantata, performed Bremen, 1868; London, 1873; United States, 1884. Wrote several symphonies, much exquisite chamber music. Songs very beautiful, ranking with those of Schubert, Schumann and Franz, and he was one of the foremost composers of the world. Brahms died Vienna, 1897.

BROWN BROS. SAXOPHONE SEXTETTE

A complete novelty is here offered in the shape of records by the famous Brown Brothers' Saxophone Sextette. It will be remembered that the Brown Brothers were one of the features of that successful production, "Chin-Chin," and they are now creating something of a sensation in Stone's new production, "Jack O' Lantern." These accomplished players have chosen lively numbers which show the skill of the organization and exhibit the noble tone quality of the instruments. Like most players who are worth while, the Brown Brothers make records exclusively for the Victor.

BURBECK, FRANK, American Actor

A sterling actor quite well known to theatre-goers, both in America and England. For nearly a quarter of a century his name has been prominent in the leading dramatic productions—Robson and Crane, Dion Boucicault, Maude Adams' productions of Twelfth Night and Joan of Arc, etc.; and he has for many years been a valued member of the Frohman staff. The Victor offers a series of orations and recitations by this popular actor.

BURNLEY, MRS. HARDIN, Humorous Recitation

This gifted Southern lady (she was born in South Carolina) won her first New York success some years ago at the Plaza Hotel, and she has since become justly famous for her clever impersonations. Her fame is not confined to the United States, for London critics a few years ago pronounced her to be the most original entertainer that had come from the United States. Mrs. Burnley is also known as a composer of songs.

BURR, HENRY, Tenor

Mr. Burr is one of the most valued members of the Victor staff of singers, his mellow tenor voice and distinct enunciation making his records most pleasing ones. This singer has contributed to the Victor list a fine collection of popular ballads and old Scotch songs, besides appearing in several duet combinations and with the Peerless Quartet. Mr. Burr's likeness may be found under the Peerless Quartet heading.

CAHILL, MARIE

© STRAUSS-PEYTON
CAHILL

Marie Cahill is by no means an idle woman, and has nothing in common with that kind, but she knows the breed, and her clever monologue is a satiric little character sketch of one of those busy days when milady gets up early in the morning—as early as ten-thirty, you know—attends the musicale to hear Gorgonzola, the great "sanitary bass," goes skating, talks scandal and finishes up with—but that's too shocking; it sounds better on the record than it looks in print. She is equally happy in "Dallas Blues," in which Mose, a colored poker player, gets baptized under peculiar conditions. The baptism, described in another monologue, is followed by a song describing a fit of "Dallas Blues," because Mose is "a traveling man but ain't got no railroad fare." Enough to give any one the blues! but as Mose remarks, "the blues ain't nuthin' but a good man feelin' bad."

CARMEN (Sung in French unless otherwise noted)

Text by Meilhac and Halévy, founded on Mérimée's novel. Music by Bizet. First production, Paris, 1875; London, 1878; New York, 1879, with Minnie Hauk. Some notable revivals, 1893, Calvé's first appearance; 1905, with Caruso; and Hammerstein's revival, 1906, with Bressler-Gianoli and Dalmores.

Don Jose, a young brigadier, betrothed to Micaela, a peasant girl in his native village, is quartered at Seville near a factory where Carmen, a reckless and beautiful cigarette girl, stabs a fellow-employee, and is arrested by Jose. She manages to fascinate him, and makes her escape. Jose is imprisoned for neglect of duty, but when released follows the gypsy to Pastia's Inn, where he finds Escamillo, a Toreador, and Zuniga, his captain, both paying court to Carmen. Stung with jealousy he deserts, and follows the band of smugglers Carmen has joined.

The next act shows the smugglers' camp, and Carmen, already tired of her soldier, welcomes the Toreador, who has followed her. Jose is about to kill her when Micaela arrives with a summons from his dying mother. He goes, but threatens vengeance. In the last act the tragedy occurs, when Jose, half crazed with jealousy, kills Carmen outside the bull ring, where she is awaiting the triumphant Escamillo. (See "Book of the Opera.")

CARTWRIGHT, EARL, Baritone

CARTWRIGHT

Earl Cartwright is one of Boston's most popular baritone soloists, and has won a high reputation in musical circles. He has sung with the Cecilia Society, the Apollo Club, the Handel and Haydn Society and the St. Louis Orchestra, besides numerous concert engagements throughout the East. The baritone's annual recitals are features of the concert season in many New England cities.

Mr. Cartwright has a musical, flexible voice of unusually beautiful quality, and sings in a most artistic manner.

CAVALLERIA RUSTICANA (Kah-vahl-lay-ree'-ah Roos-tih-kah'-nah)
(Rustic Chivalry) Sung in Italian unless otherwise noted

Opera in one act; libretto adapted from "Verga" by Menasci; music by Mascagni. First production, Rome, 1890; London, 1891; first U. S. production at Phila., 1891.

The story of "Rustic Chivalry" is one of Sicilian love and hate, passion and revenge. Turiddu, a young peasant, son of old Lucia, goes to war, and during his absence from the village his sweetheart, Lola, forgets him and weds the young carter, Alfio. Turiddu returns and consoles himself with the love of Santuzza, the village beauty, but soon tiring of her, his old passion for Lola revives. Santuzza, scorned by Turiddu, reveals the affair to the wronged husband. On Easter morning, as the villagers are leaving church, Alfio challenges the destroyer of his domestic happiness. Repenting his misdeeds, Turiddu, takes an affectionate leave of his mother, and goes forth to the duel. Justice is accomplished in his death at the hands of Alfio, and the betrayed Santuzza is left disconsolate.

CAWTHORN, JOSEPH

Mr. Cawthorn, who needs no introduction to Victor audiences, as he is one of the best known and liked comedians on the American stage, has made a number of records for the Victor. His interpolated song, "You Can't Play Every Instrument in the Band," in "The Sunshine Girl," when sung by Cawthorn, was one of the greatest features in that charming musical comedy.

"Audiences roar over Joseph Cawthorn's participation in Sybil," said a New York paper, and it is not alone New York audiences that "roar." Through the Victor, Mr. Cawthorn's humor may be enjoyed by all the world.

CELESTA SOLOS—By Felix Arndt—The Celesta is also used in "Dawn of Love," No. 18296, "Fedora Gavotte," No. 17681, "Gavotte," No. 18243, "If You Had All the World and Its Gold," No. 18281, "In the Gloaming," No. 18063, "Just Dreaming of You," No. 18289, "Massa's in de Cold, Cold Ground," No. 64638, "Miracle of Love," No. 18243, "Mother," No. 45111, "Picture of Dear Old Ireland," No. 18234, "Sing Me Love's Lullaby, No. 18315, "Wonderful Thing," 18301 and "Would You Take Back the Love You Gave Me?" No. 18281.

The celesta consists of a series of small steel bars or plates, set in vibration by hammers, which, in turn, are set in motion by a simplified pianoforte-action controlled from an ordinary piano keyboard. The peculiar beauty of the tone is partly due to the fact that under each vibrating steel bar is an accurately tuned resonator of wood. Attached to the instrument is a pedal which materially enhances its sustaining power.

This instrument was invented in 1886 by M. Auguste Mustel, of Paris, and has been largely used by modern French composers in works where a special quality of tone is required.

Ce

(Hungarian, Cembalom; French, Tympanon; Italian, Cembalo; German, Hackbrett; English, Dulcimer—probably derived from dulce melos.)

Here is the rather curious instrument which gives such a fascinating quality to Hungarian Orchestras. It has a trapezodial sounding board with metal strings (each note having three or five) and is played with two leather-faced hammers. The complete range is usually four octaves.

The Cembalom is of very ancient, probably Oriental, origin and is closely related to the clavi-cembalo (clavecin or harpsichord), from which the modern pianoforte is derived.

The instrument has been known for ages in Persia and Arabia as Santir and the compilers of the English Bible have translated it as "dulcimer."

There are very few players on this instrument in America, by far the most expert being Mr. Moskowitz. No one who hears these brilliantly played and beautifully toned records will need to be told what a skillful performer he is.

Mr. Moskowitz will make records exclusively for the Victor.

CHEATHAM, KITTY

COPY'T IRA L. HILL'S STUDIO, N. Y.
CHEATHAM

Miss Cheatham has chosen to introduce herself to the great Victor audience by means of her quite unique presentation of the Nursery Rhymes and her renditions of the negro folk songs, in which she is unsurpassed. She is probably the greatest authority in the world on the literature of childhood in song and story, and, though "Mother Goose" has lived with us for over two centuries, we feel that we have only just made her acquaintance when she is introduced to us by this artist, who has sung these delightful rhymes to children, irrespective of age, in almost every country of the world.

Miss Cheatham is also well equipped, by birth and personal observation, to sing with authority the genuine old negro songs; her work along these lines is of rare ethnological and cultural value. She was sung to sleep by these songs, and gives them exactly as she has heard and sung them always—in their primitive and undeveloped state. The demand for the preservation of her interpretation of them has been very great, and we feel that the public will appreciate the privilege of hearing an exact reproduction of these beautiful old songs, just as they were sung by the faithful old negroes—those "children of a larger growth." With the exception of a few Indian songs and the songs of Stephen Foster these are the only American folk songs we have.

This accomplished and universally admired artist will, of course, make records exclusively for the Victor.

CHILDREN'S RECORDS—See also "Educational Records"

Although children of all ages are enthusiastic supporters of the Victor and enjoy a very large proportion of our records, we think they should have a few which have been made especially for their benefit. We have therefore issued a series of well-known songs and recitations written especially for the little ones by several well-known authors. These are delightfully rendered by Henry Allan Price, Elizabeth Wheeler and other singers, in the plainest of English, and are sure to please every normal child. Don't fail to take some of these records home to the tots, who will be delighted with them.

CHOPIN, FRÉDÉRIC (Show-pahn)

CHOPIN

Born near Warsaw, Poland, 1809. Studied under Zywny and Elsner, and pronounced a genius at 8. Entered Warsaw Conservatory at 12. Published first composition at 14, the Rondo in C Minor. Other celebrated works written before 19. At 20, concert tour of German cities with success. Too frail physically for army, became an exile, and lived Paris as teacher and pianist. Associated with Bellini, Cherubini, Meyerbeer. Visited England in 1837 and began acquaintance with George Sand (Mme. Dudevant). They returned to France 1839, separated 1847. Alternate happiness and misery of this association aggravated his tubercular condition, and he died 1849. Buried Père-la-Chaise, Paris, after impressive funeral attended by entire musical colony.

Works consist mainly of smaller pieces for piano, and his nocturnes, mazurkas, etudes, have never been equaled in their particular class. His personality remarkable—cared nothing for applause, and fascinated all who met him. Life-long illness and sympathy for trials of his native Poland found expression in music of exquisite beauty.

The Victor takes pride in giving to the world many beautiful and perfect reproductions of the playing of the greatest interpreters of Chopin, including de Pachmann, whose renditions of the master's works are unsurpassable.

CLARKE, HERBERT L., Cornetist

Herbert L. Clarke, who is one of the greatest cornet soloists in the world, has been the leading player with many famous bands and orchestras including Gilmore's Band, Innes' Band, Seventh Regiment Band of New York, etc., besides conductor of the famous Providence Band which succeeded Reeves' American Band. Mr. Clarke is the assistant conductor and soloist of Sousa's Band, and during the around-the-world tour of the band, his playing was one of the great features of the concerts.

A fine list of solos by Mr. Clarke and duets with other instruments, is offered by the Victor.

COGHLAN, ROSE, American Actress

MARCEAU COGHLAN

"Tell you something of my life on the stage! Why, that would take volumes," said Miss Coghlan, as though exhausted at the idea. Certainly few actresses have had so comprehensive and successful a career. At the age of nineteen she was playing Lady Macbeth in an English provincial town. She has played with many famous actors, and has been around the world at the head of her own company. The Victor has induced Miss Coghlan to recite Tennyson's famous poem, and the result is one of the most dramatic and thrilling records imaginable.

COHAN, GEORGE M., Comedian

COHAN

This versatile gentleman, sometimes known as "The Yankee Doodle Boy," is a real nephew of Uncle Sam, as he was born on July 4, 1878, in Providence. At the age of 10 he began his theatrical career in a play written by his father, and a few years later entered the vaudeville field with the Cohan family, the company being known as The Four Cohans.

Young George's first sketch was The Governor's Son, which brought the family into added prominence. It was Little Johnny Jones, however, that made him widely known as a native American author. This highly original musical comedy was produced October 10, 1904. Other pieces by him were 45 Minutes from Broadway, Geo. Washington, Jr., Popularity, Little Millionaire, American Idea, Yankee Doodle Boy, Yankee Prince, Talk of New York, etc.

COLLINS, ARTHUR, Comedian

COPY'T CHANNELL

Mr. Collins is one of the most successful singers of "coon songs" now before the public. It has been freely predicted that this type of song would cease to be the fashion, but we can see few signs of any decrease in popularity. Victor audiences, however, are becoming more particular, and insist that the numbers must be well sung and the words extremely plain. Mr. Collins is quite able to please his hearers in this respect, and his work is always good, both in solos and in the clever duets made with Mr. Harlan. These unique songs and specialties have amused countless record customers during the past seventeen years.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle

The greatest exponents of Modern Dancing, who have supervised the making of many Victor Dance Records

Dancing the One Step

Dancing the Hesitation

CASTLE HOUSE
26 EAST 46TH STREET
NEW YORK

March 2, 1914.

The superiority of the Victor & Victor Records is so apparent that Mrs. Castle and I after a thorough trial of other sound reproducing instruments, have decided to use the Victor and Victor Records exclusively at Castle House.

Mrs. Castle and I find the Victrola practically indispensable, while the quality of music it supplies during class work is so satisfactory that our pupils are as enthusiastic regarding the Victrola as we are ourselves.

I also take great pleasure in announcing that I have given to the Victor Company the exclusive services of the Castle House orchestra for the making of dance records, and also that I will personally superintend the making of Victor Dance Records.

DUNLAP

This young singer's rich contralto and excellent method have made her one of the most useful of the talented company which the Victor has assembled, and in both solos and many concerted numbers her work has been admirable.

The series of little darky songs which Miss Dunlap has rendered are doubly attractive because of the fascinating Southern accent of this young daughter of South Carolina.

Miss Dunlap makes records exclusively for the Victor.

EDUCATIONAL RECORDS

For the convenience of many not familiar with school grades and requirements, we will hereafter list alphabetically in the Record Catalogue all educational records, classified only as to Vocal, Instrumental, Readings and Stories, and records for Physical Education.

These records have been made to help in the uplift of the ideals and tastes of children everywhere, as well as furnishing the finest sort of entertainment and enjoyment for the little folks, the children and the young people. These songs, stories, readings, games, dances, and marches, etc., and others to follow, are just as suitable for the home circle as for the school room. Some of the short songs are grouped several on one record with small spaces between, enabling the teacher to present any one she may choose for teaching without the unpleasantness of guessing where it begins and getting a part of another song. The songs for the little children must be very short, very simple and, for the comprehension of the little child in the home as well as school, must be presented in separate, complete little tone pictures and not run together in a babel of thoughts and melodies in different keys, rhythms, etc., so confusing the child. New records of note-songs are being made with spaces, so that each song may be played separately, or the entire record may be played continuously without lifting the needle. These individual songs may be played over and over as many times as required.

This list contains numbers for the Home, general School use, Kindergarten, Primary, Intermediate and Grammar Grades, the High School and College, also a generous selection of instrumental numbers from the Record Catalogue, for use in all grades. All these numbers and many others selected for school work will be found classified as to grades in the new edition of "Graded List for Home and School." An excellent grouping of records for illustrating lessons in Reading, Literature, History, Geography, Art, Mythology, etc., is given in the new book "A New Correlation." "The Victrola in Rural Schools" is a new booklet which gives suggestive lists of records, together with comprehensive notes describing records, artists and composers, and will be found of great value to the rural school-teacher. A complete list of folk dance records, with short descriptions of each, is given in the booklet, "The Victrola in Physical Education, Recreation and Play." "Victor Records Suitable for the Teaching of English Literature" is another booklet which covers the subject indicated by the title. A very carefully selected list of more than 375 of the choicest records for Music History and Appreciation, each one analyzed and its story told, is given in the book "WHAT WE HEAR IN MUSIC." Twelve Hundred Opera selections, hundreds of which are used in Educational work, will be found listed in Scenes and Acts under the titles of 110 different Operas in the "VICTROLA BOOK OF THE OPERA." "Pan and His Pipes and Other Stories" is a collection of ten stories told in a delightful manner.

SPECIAL RECORDS FOR SCHOOL AND HOME—Vocal

For gradation for school work see "Graded List for Home and School."

"VICTROLA BOOK OF THE OPERA"

The "Victrola Book of the Opera," a handsomely illustrated book of 553 pages, gives a clear though condensed story of more than 120 operas, listing the Victor records of each one as they occur in scene and act. This volume is invaluable in any study of opera, and, together with the "What We Hear in Music," which treats the subject from an historical standpoint, furnishes the best possible material for such study. (At all Victor Dealers, $1.00.)

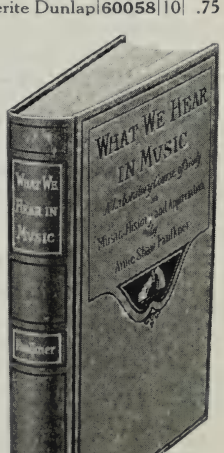
WHAT WE HEAR IN MUSIC (New Revised Edition)

We take pleasure in announcing the success of our new book, "What We Hear in Music," by Anne Shaw Faulkner—a four years' course of studies for high schools, normal schools, colleges, universities and home study—illustrated at every point by Victor Records.

It consists of 120 lessons subdivided into four courses of 30 lessons each, as follows:

1. The Principles of Music.
2. The History of Music.
3. The Orchestra: The Development of Instrumental Music.
4. The Opera and Oratorio.

This work gives a complete, systematized plan of study with the real music, a thing never before possible in the history of music education. To the average pupil, music history has ever been a dull, dead mass of meaningless names and dates, but it becomes most fascinating when you have the music whose history you wish to know.



442 pages, 6¼ x 9½
fully illustrated

STORIES AND READINGS

Story-telling has long been a vital part of the Kindergarten and Library, and now has taken on new life as an indispensable adjunct of the playground activities. We therefore present the first of a series of the treasures of childhood, told in a childlike way. The Victor is very fortunate in having secured Miss Sara Cone Bryant, America's leading authority on the art of story-telling. Miss Bryant has told a number of her own stories in a natural and charming manner; her records will be models for teachers and mothers.

Miss Sally Hamlin, a talented Brooklyn child, has recited a number of Field and Riley poems in excellent style. A number of stories and readings will soon be added to her record list.

Miss Georgene Faulkner, the "Story Lady," has a wide acquaintance through her Chautauqua appearances, and from her delightful "corner" in the Chicago Tribune and the Ladies Home Journal.

FARRELL

The career of Miss Farrell is an interesting one, showing what pluck and determination will do for a young girl who is ambitious. When she decided on a theatrical career she determined to learn the business thoroughly, and began at the bottom—by having her feet educated! After a course at Ned Wayburn's Dancing School she secured some stage experience with "Rogers Brothers in Ireland," followed by a brief season on the vaudeville stage with the "Four College Girls." This showed her the need of voice culture and she spent six months in hard work with a vocal teacher, after which she offered her services to Oscar Hammerstein and was engaged! However, twenty-eight operas in one season seemed pretty hard work, and the young lady then tried comic opera. Engagements with "Miss Princess," "American Maid" and with Lillian Russell gave her a reputation which resulted in a vaudeville engagement on the Big Time. When Lew Fields saw Miss Farrell's performance in Chicago he told her she must be in his next musical production. In "Step This Way" she has made the hit of her career, and her singing and dancing are one of the features of the production.

FAUST (Fowst) by Gounod (Sung in French unless otherwise indicated)

Opera in five acts; libretto by Barbier and Carré, founded upon Goethe's tragedy; music by Gounod. First produced in Paris, 1859; London, 1863; New York, 1863.

Faust, a German philosopher, after a life of meditation, becomes disgusted with the smallness of human knowledge and his own inability to unravel the mysteries of Nature. He summons to his aid the Spirit of Evil, who appears to him under the form of Mephistopheles. Through the supernatural power of the latter, Faust is restored to youth and endowed with personal beauty and luxurious garb. Mephistopheles, in a vision, reveals to him the village maid Margaret, with whom the student falls in love. Margaret, noted for her loveliness, has been left by her soldier brother, Valentine, under the care of Dame Martha, a worthy but not very vigilant personage. The maiden at first rejects the stranger's advances, but Faust, aided by the influence of Mephistopheles, urges his suit, and Margaret's resistance is at length overcome. Valentine, on returning from the wars, learns what has occurred; he challenges his sister's betrayer, but, through the intervention of Mephistopheles, he is killed in the duel. Margaret, horror-stricken at the calamity of which she is the cause, gives way to despair. Her reason becomes affected, and in a frenzy she kills her infant. She is thrown into prison, and Faust, aided by Mephistopheles, obtains access to the cell in which she is confined. They both eagerly urge her to fly, but Margaret, in whom holier feelings have obtained the ascendant, spurns their proffered aid, and expires. Mephistopheles is triumphant at the apparent success of his schemes to destroy a human soul, but a chorus of heavenly voices is heard proclaiming that there is pardon for the repentant sinner, and the Evil One, foiled and overcome, crouches in terror as the spirit of Margaret is borne to heaven by ministering angels.

FISK UNIVERSITY JUBILEE QUARTET

The Jubilee Songs collected and introduced to the world by Fisk University, and which might be called Negro Folk Songs, are quaint and interesting numbers. Some touch the heart with their pathos; and some although intensely religious, sometimes excite to laughter by their quaint conceptions of Biblical facts. The original company of Jubilee Singers traveled seven years in the U. S. and Europe. After the disbanding of this company, the work was kept up by a quartet which has been kept in the field for a part of each season.

The Victor has secured the record services of the genuine Fisk Quartet, and now presents a number of their unique songs. The correct and authentic renditions given by the Quartet are most interesting in view of the indifferent way these numbers have sometimes been done in the past.

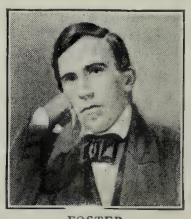
FOSTER, STEPHEN COLLINS



FOSTER

Born 1826, near Pittsburgh. Began writing when a student in Athens, Pa., Academy, and published first song, Open Thy Lattice, in 1842. Moved to New York in 1860, where he wrote many of his immortal songs. Composed 175 songs; best known ones those listed below. His songs, called folk songs of America, are known in every land, and sung in many languages. Were probably not derived from negro tunes, as has been stated, but negro dialect was doubtless used because of the vogue of negro minstrels in the '40s and '50s. Was a Bohemian in tastes and quite talented; painted some, loved good music, spoke German and French. Died in New York, 1864. The Victor has recorded the immortal songs of Foster in great variety and these records are highly popular.

RECORDS OF FOSTER SONGS—See "My Old Kentucky Home," "Old Black Joe" and "Old Folks at Home."

GARDNER, SAMUEL, Violinist

This young artist was born in Yeliz (Elizabethgrad), Russia, but was brought to America by his parents while he was still an infant. The family settled in New England, and all through even his early boyhood the violin appeared to be the only thing in which he was keenly interested. A "toy" violin was bought for him one Christmas, and at the age of six years he began work on a real instrument. He studied first with Wintermitz and Lœffler in Boston, and lastly with Franz Kneisel in New York, finally making his début in a New York recital in 1913. He also appeared later with the New York Symphony, playing the Tschaikowsky Concerto. He has also toured with the Kneisel Quartette, at which time he occupied the second violinist's chair. Later he became a member of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, and he is also known as a composer of songs and violin compositions.

GLENN, WILFRED, Bass

GLENN

Mr. Glenn is a native of California, and was born on one of the great ranches in the San Joaquin Valley. He began his studies in San Francisco, but when the phenomenal quality of his voice was realized he was induced by his friends to go to New York for further study. He made rapid progress under a number of noted teachers and now has a remarkable range of some two and a half octaves, from C below the bass clef to F sharp. Mr. Glenn is soloist of the Cathedral of St. John, the Harlem Reformed Church in New York, and the Lotus Glee Club, and appears with many other organizations during the season.

The Victor, realizing that here was one of the finest basso profundo voices in America, promptly secured his exclusive record services for a number of years.

GOLDEN, BILLY, Comedian

No negro specialty records have ever been so popular as those by Billy Golden. No one could ever approach him in this kind of work—in fact the hearer forgets all about Golden and hears only a jolly old darky with an infectious laugh. Five of Golden's most famous specialties, including the favorite "Turkey in de Straw," are listed here, and thirty two clever and entertaining specialties made in connection with three well-known comedians —John Hughes, Golden's present partner, James Marlowe and Billy Heins.

SIEGFRIED'S DEATH—ACT III VICTROLA BOOK OF THE OPERA

GÖTTERDÄMMERUNG (Goet'-ter-daem'-mer-oongk) The Dusk of the Gods (1876) (Wagner)

Music drama in three acts and a prelude. Words and music by Richard Wagner. Wagner began the composition of the music at Lucerne in 1870, and it was completed November 21, 1874. First produced Bayreuth, August 17, 1876, with Materna and Unger. First American production at New York, January 25, 1888, with Lehmann, Seidl-Krauss, Traubman, Niemann and Fischer. Many notable American productions have been made at the Metropolitan, the latest being February, 1914, with Kurt, Ober and Berger.

The Dusk of the Gods is the last part of the tetralogy. In the prelude we once more see Brünnhilde on the rock, where she had lain during her magic sleep, and where Siegfried had found her and taken her as his bride. The hero, after a brief period of domestic happiness in a cave near by, decides to leave his bride for awhile and go in search of adventures, giving her the Nibelung's Ring as a pledge of faith. This ring he had obtained when he slew the dragon Fafner, and as the opera progresses he is doomed to suffer the consequences of the fatal curse, invoked on every possessor of the Ring by Alberich, from whom it was forcibly taken by Wotan.

(For complete illustrated description see "Victrola Book of the Opera")

GOUNOD

Greatest French composer. Born Paris, 1818. Father, artist, died when Gounod was 5. Taught first by mother. Entered Conservatory, won Prix de Rome, 1837. Became organist in San Luigi church and contemplated becoming priest. In 1850, his Mass having made success in England, was asked to write a work for the Paris Académie. Opera Sapho, produced 1851, not a success. Other compositions not important till 1859, when his masterpiece Faust appeared. Wrote many other operas, only Romeo being successful. Last years devoted to sacred

GREGORIAN CHANTS

The efforts of Pius X to reform sacred music in the Catholic Church and revive the use of the Gregorian plain-song, so expressive of the grandeur and simplicity of pure religious emotion, have been the cause of much discussion during the past few years. The teaching and proper execution of Gregorian music require something more than the mere printed score. Oral tradition is also needed, for it alone can teach the right musical accentuation.

The Gregorian Congress, therefore, at the instance of Baron Kanzler, decided to avail itself of one of the latest applications of modern science, and to have records taken of the Gregorian Mass for use on the Victor. These records were sent to many Catholic seminaries, colleges, convents and churches of the world, and the Victor is doing, on a large scale, that which the two teachers, Romanus and Peter, did on a small scale in the eighth century.

NOTE—It cannot be denied that these Gregorian chant records are somewhat monotonous, except to those specially interested. The average record customer will prefer the concerted numbers listed under "Sistine Choir," which are remarkably interesting reproductions of a famous body of singers in some noble religious compositions.

RECORDS OF THE GREGORIAN HIGH MASS

Recorded in St. Peter's Church on the Centenary of St. Gregorius Magnus. These records were executed under the direction of Mons. Rella, Leader of the Gregorian Chant in the Sistine Chapel.

GRIEG, EDVARD HAGERUP (1843–1907) (Greeg)

GRIEG

Born Bergen, Norway, 1843. At 6 began musical education under his mother. At the age of 15 was sent to Leipsic Conservatory. Returned to Norway 1863, and began writing the original and spontaneous music which was to make him famous. In 1867 founded a musical society in Christiania, which he directed for thirteen years. Visited Italy 1870, became intimate friend of Liszt, then in Rome. Made many visits to Germany. In 1888 went to London, conducted own compositions and played piano with much success. Grieg really founded a new school of Scandinavian music. His short piano pieces are charming works of their class and his numerous songs full of poetic feeling. The Peer Gynt Suite, written for Ibsen's dramatic poem, "Peer Gynt," is perhaps the best known of all his compositions. Grieg died September 4, 1907.

GRÜNFELD, ALFRED, Pianist (Greun'-feld)

This famous European pianist is beloved by the Vienna public and by audiences in other cities where he has appeared. His remarkable capabilities as a pianist are familiar to those who have heard his Victor records.

Herr Grünfeld has played for the Victor his famous Brassin Transcription of the Walküre Fire Music, in which the leave-taking of Wotan and the breaking out of the flames of Logi are so wonderfully pictured; and a delightful Strauss waltz, brilliantly given. These numbers are played with that delicate touch and entire disregard of technical difficulties which mark the work of this artist.

HAJOS, MIZZI, Soprano

Here comes "Mitzi!" This chic and charming little prima donna, beloved by all who see her, has given the Victor two hits from her new operetta, Pom Pom, in which she has made the biggest success of her career.

Mizzi Hajos (but no one ever calls her anything but "Mitzi"!) was discovered by that intrepid explorer, Henry M. Savage, when he went to Vienna to arrange for the production of the Viennese success, Sari, now well-known to America. Mizzi was the star of a Vienna opera company, and being recognized at once by the impresario as a comedienne of the first order, was engaged to present the title rôle of Sari in the United States.

Miss Hajos' new production gives her ample opportunity to display her peculiar talents, she being part of the time a most fascinating boy, a "pickpocket pupil," and afterward a petite and beautiful woman. Her songs are all delightful, but "Evelyn" and "In the Dark" being the best, she has recorded them first for the Victor.

This charming Dresden china singer and comedienne will, of course, make records exclusively for the Victor.

HANDEL, GEORG FRIEDRICH (1685-1759)

HANDEL

Born Halle, 1685. Father a barber, afterward valet to Prince Saxe. The boy was intended for lawyer but secretly studied harpsichord. At 7 went to visit at Court where Prince heard him playing organ, and offered to educate him. In 1696 went to Berlin where precocity astonished all. Father died 1697. Handel entered Halle University and played organ at $50 year salary. In 1703 went to Hamburg, and in 1705 wrote two operas. Visited Italy in 1706 and brought out two Italian operas, Roderigo and Agrippina. Went England in 1710, produced Rinaldo, first English opera. Revisited England in 1718, became chapel master to Duke of Chandos and composed first oratorios Esther, Acis and Salatea. Director Royal Academy of Music, 1720 to 1729, producing many operas. Became British subject 1726. Operatic troubles ruined health, causing paralysis 1737. Partially recovered and in 1741 abandoned opera and turned wholly to oratorio, writing in quick succession Saul, Israel, L'Allegro, and in 1742 his immortal Messiah, greatest of oratorios, followed by Sampson, Judas, Joshua and many others. In 1752 became practically blind, but continued to direct his works until 1759, when he died. Buried in Westminster Abbey, where monument has been erected. Was the greatest master of oratorio. Other writings numerous, including 40 operas, none of which are now performed.

HARLAN, BYRON G., Tenor

This popular tenor and comedian is one of the most versatile of the company of entertainers which the Victor has gathered together, and really seems at home in almost any kind of work he essays. Mr. Harlan not only sings popular ballads in a remarkably pleasant tenor voice, but is also one of the cleverest and most amusing of comedians, whether his impersonation be that of a typical Yankee, a darky wench or an end man in a minstrel show.

For the inimitable duets which this tenor sings with Mr. Collins and other singers see "Collins and Harlan," "Porter" and "Duets, Vocal."

HARRISON, BEATRICE, Violoncellist

HARRISON

Beatrice Harrison was born in Roorke, in the Northwestern provinces of India, and is the second daughter of Col. J. H. C. Harrison, late of the Royal Engineers. The Harrisons brought their children to England when Beatrice was an infant. Her musical talents attracted notice almost as soon as she could lisp the alphabet, and to the surprise of everyone, the child fancied the violoncello, and was permitted to make that her chosen instrument.

She was placed with Hugo Becker, in Berlin, and later entered the Berlin Hochschüle for Music, where she won the Felix Mendelssohn prize, this being the first time that this prize had been won by a 'cellist, or by a student of youthful years, Miss Harrison being just seventeen when this prize was awarded her.

Concerts were given throughout the German Empire and everywhere Miss Harrison was received with enthusiasm. The 'cellist came to America and has made a very great success, appearing with the Boston Symphony Orchestra, the Philharmonic Society, the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, besides giving a number of recitals.

Miss Harrison uses a Guarnerius 'cello of the Baron Canup collection of Vienna.

HARRISON, CHARLES, Tenor—See also "Duets, Vocal"

Mr. Harrison is one of the most gifted and popular singers in the Victor's list of tenors. He has a beautiful voice and his enunciation is remarkably distinct. This artist, who was a pupil of Leo Kofler, is now soloist at a prominent Fifth Avenue church in New York and is much in demand for concerts and oratorio performances.

HAWAIIAN RECORDS

The Hawaiians are passionately fond of music, and their poetry (called mele) is highly figurative, abounding in lists of names and in allusions to their mythology, to places, to local winds and rains, to seas, ocean and flowers.

The Victor recently announced a fine new list of favorite Hawaiian numbers, rendered by the now famous Hawaiian Quintette, who made such a success in the "Bird of Paradise" Company; the gifted Toots Paka Troupe, the Irene West Royal Hawaiians and three pairs of duetists, Louise and Ferera; Wright and Dietrich, and Lua and Kaili, all well known in vaudeville.

These quaint and fascinating records have been tremendously successful.

HAYDEN QUARTET (Hay'-den) (Bieling, Macdonough, Dudley, Hooley)

This popular singing organization, well known to buyers of Victor records, was the first male quartet to make satisfactory talking machine records—their success being so great here that they were finally obliged to visit England, where they made a large number of records for the European companies. On their return the Victor secured the record services of the organization and the quartet has since been a prominent feature of the Victor catalogue.

Many songs and ballads have been made popular throughout the country through the Victor records made by the Hayden singers, while their plantation songs and sacred numbers have set a new standard in the recording of male voices.

HAYDN, FRANZ JOSEF (High'-dn) Compositions by

HAYDN

Born Rohrau, Austria, 1732. At five years of age was sent to school at Hainburg, where for two years he was taught rudiments of music, playing on the violin. 1740 taken to Vienna by Reutter as chorister at St. Stephen's, where he learned singing, violin, clavier and composed a great deal. Later supplanted as singer by brother Michael. Became first capellmeister to Prince Esterhazy. Composed thirty symphonies, forty quartets and became known and admired all over Europe. 1791 visited London and received degree from Oxford. 1792 returned to Vienna, where he gave lessons to Beethoven. Died Vienna, 1809.

HELENA, EDITH, Soprano

HELENA

Miss Edith Helena, that popular soprano with the marvelous range of voice, after singing several years in Europe, decided that after all there was no place like home, and recently accepted an engagement with the Aborn English Grand Opera Company. During the season of that company her impersonations of Thaïs, Leonora, Arline and Lucia were much appreciated, and she afterward filled special engagements with the Century Opera Co. in New York.

Grand opera airs issued in the popular double-faced form by such an artist as Edith Helena have proven a most attractive feature of the Victor catalogue.

HÉRODIADE (Ay-rohd-yadd')

Opera in five acts. Words by Milliet and Grémont, based on Flaubert's novelette, Herodias. Music by Jules Massenet. First produced in Brussels, 1881; Paris, 1884; revived in 1903 with Calvé and Renaud; London, 1904, under title Salome; New Orleans, 1892. Produced by Oscar Hammerstein at Manhattan Opera House, N. Y., 1909, with Cavalieri, Gerville-Réache, Duchêne, Dalmores and Renaud. Revived February 1914 by Philadelphia-Chicago Opera Co.

The opera contains much of the best music Massenet has written, and the plot, while based on the Scriptural story, does not follow the Bible or tradition very closely, differing quite largely from Salome.

(See "Victrola Book of the Opera" for complete illustrated description)

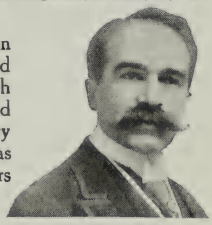
HERSCHMANN, ARTHUR, Baritone



HERSCHMANN

The career of Arthur Herschmann as a concert singer began with his brilliant recital début in London, which was soon followed by noted engagements in other European cities, and as soloist with many of the foremost musical organizations. Prior to that, extended vocal study in New York, London and Paris, added to his mastery of seven languages, had given him a thorough foundation, which was further enhanced by later studies in interpretation with such composers as Widor, Pierné Hüe, René and Hildach.

HILL, MURRY K., Comedian (Humorous Monologues)

Murry K. Hill is a vaudeville favorite, and always keeps his hearers in roars of laughter by his droll delivery of a very witty store of jokes, parodies and nonsense in general. There is individuality to spare in each of these recordings by Mr. Hill. A generous measure of the artist's own cheerful and optimistic personality has found its way into the heart of the records, which results in the auditor receiving an impression of intimacy with the performer such as it is impossible to resist.

HILLIARD, ROBERT, American Actor

The Victor may be pardoned some evidence of pride, both in the engagement of Mr. Hilliard and in the really fine reproductions which have been made of his voice.

In his extracts from "A Fool There Was" Mr. Hilliard recites a part of "The Vampire," and between the lines he gives several scenes from the great play which is based on Kipling's poem. These highly dramatic extracts will be keenly appreciated by all those who have seen Mr. Hilliard's portrayal of the unfortunate husband, and it will bring to those who are only familiar with the poem a fuller understanding of Kipling's weird tale.

In striking contrast Mr. Hilliard has recited a portion of another of his great successes, the charming one-act play, "The Littlest Girl," acted and dramatized by him from the late Richard Harding Davis' story, "Her First Appearance."

HIMMELREICH, FERDINAND, Pianist

Mr. Himmelreich is a well-known Philadelphia pianist, and a most unusual player in many respects, one of his accomplishments being his great skill in improvisation. His technique is quite brilliant, difficult double-finger passages in thirds and sixths being played with ease. Mr. Himmelreich's brilliant and clean-cut transcriptions of favorite light classics have greatly pleased Victor customers.

HINKLE, FLORENCE, Soprano

HINKLE

A voice of pure lyric soprano which she uses with much skill and musicianly insight was bestowed upon Florence Hinkle by nature, and with it she combines temperament, intelligence and personality. Her upper tones are produced apparently without effort, for the quality of tone is unimpaired, and there is no lack of control nor shading.

Miss Hinkle has appeared with eminent organizations on famous occasions throughout the Eastern states. The Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra, the New York Symphony Orchestra, the Mendelssohn Choir of Toronto, the Handel and Haydn Society of Boston, the New York Oratorio Society, and many other famous organizations have availed themselves of Miss Hinkle's services, and in the Spring of 1916 she took a leading part in the performance of the Mahler Symphony, which was given in Philadelphia and New York by the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Stokowski. In concert and oratorio Miss Hinkle has won the hearts of audiences the country over, and it is with great pleasure that we offer the following list of Victor records by this exceptional artist.

HITCHCOCK, RAYMOND, Comedian

HITCHCOCK

It was with much pleasure that the Victor secured the services of this famous singing comedian, who has won so many admirers on the American stage. Born in Auburn, N. Y., and educated in his native city, Mr. Hitchcock has made his name synonymous with all that is best and breeziest in musical comedy.

There is probably no such thing as a career of uninterrupted success, but Mr. Hitchcock's career is apparently the exception, which somehow manages to break every established rule, and certainly for many years he has been playing stellar rôles with conspicuous success. Since 1904, when he appeared on Broadway in Henry W. Savage's "The Yankee Consul," Raymond Hitchcock's most pretentious successes have been "The Student King," "The Yankee Tourist," "The Man Who Owns Broadway," "The Red Widow" and "Betty."

HOPPER, DE WOLF, Comedian

HOPPER

Mr. Hopper's record of his famous and immortal baseball classic is the most perfect reproduction of the comedian's eccentric delivery which could be imagined. Shut your eyes and you can imagine the whole scene—five thousand of Mudville's fans yelling for their favorite—the redoubtable and mighty Casey standing proudly at the bat—the pitcher gripping the ball—then a moment of hushed expectancy—and then . . . and then the tragedy begins!

Let us draw the veil—suffice to say that you can actually feel the breeze on your face when the great Casey fans the air as he strikes out! Mr. Hopper's record of his celebrated baseball recitation has made one of the biggest hits in Victor history.

HUGUENOTS (Hew'-gen-ahts) French title, Les Huguenots (Layz Yoogn'-noh) Italian title, Gli Ugonotti (Glee Oo-goh-not'-tih).

Opera in five acts; text by Scribe and Deschamps; music by Meyerbeer. Produced Paris, 1836; Florence, 1841 under title of Gli Anglicani; London in German, 1842, and in Italian 1848. First American performance in New Orleans, 1848.

This opera is considered the composer's masterpiece, and is indeed a wonderfully imposing work, with its splendid scenes, beautiful arias and concerted numbers, and its thrilling dramatic situations.

(Sung in Italian except as noted) (See "Victrola Book of the Opera" for complete illustrated description)

HUGUET, GIUSEPPINA, Soprano (Oo-geh')

HUGUET

Mme. Huguet is one of the most versatile of sopranos, her repertoire being a very large one, consisting of rôles in more than one hundred grand operas, besides many Zarzuelas (Spanish one-act operas) and operettas in which she has appeared with great success in her native Spain and in Italy. It was while singing in a Spanish operetta in Madrid that she was heard by a famous critic, who advised her to go to Italy for the study of serious operas. After two years in Milan she appeared in grand opera, scoring a triumph, and her name is now a familiar one to opera-goers in Europe, as well as to Victor customers in America, who have had the privilege of hearing her beautiful voice in many solos and concerted numbers.

NOTE.—Only Mme. Huguet's solo numbers are listed here. The duets, trios and other concerted numbers in which she appears will be found under the following operas: "Barber"—"Carmen" "Don Pasquale"—"Faust"—"Lohengrin"—"Lucia di Lammermoor"—"Masked Ball"—"Pagliacci"—"Rigoletto"—"Traviata."

HYMNS—Standard and Revival

The extensive list of sacred music which the Victor has issued during the past few years has perhaps attracted more attention than any other single feature. This splendid catalogue of standard and gospel hymns, anthems and oratorio numbers is certain to have a powerful influence for good, not only in the homes of the serious-minded owners of Victors, but as a means of improving the quality of the music in small churches, where a competent choir is out of the question. The Victor's sacred records are capable of filling admirably the place of a choir, and this form of service is much to be preferred to the average small choir, which sometimes inspires feelings the reverse of devout!

Victors are being utilized more and more in small communities in place of a precentor, and no better method of leading congregational singing could be imagined, while in the family circle a collection of hymns and other sacred music is indispensable for Sunday use.

NOTE—This list contains hymns only. For other sacred numbers, such as "Holy City," "Palms," "Face to Face" and songs of that class, also Anthems and Masses for church use, see Sacred Songs. For Oratorio numbers see titles of Oratorios. For Negro Revival Hymns see Fisk Jubilee Quartet. For Masonic and Modern Woodmen Hymns see "Masonic Records" and "Modern Woodmen."

IMPERIAL QUARTET, of Chicago

This fine male voice organization, which has been a prominent feature of the concert stage in the Middle West, has agreed to make a series of records for the Victor, and the first selections under this agreement were recently issued. This Quartet has developed the art of four-part singing to a high degree of excellence, the individual members being unusually well equipped, vocally and temperamentally, each for his particular part, and years of association in the work has resulted in an almost perfect ensemble. The Imperials have made a permanent place for themselves in the concert field of which they may be justly proud, and they now prove themselves to be excellent record makers as well.

The Imperials make records exclusively for the Victor.

IRWIN, MAY, Comedienne

IRWIN

This popular comedienne is so closely associated with good humor and droll fun that the mere mention of her name is usually the signal for mirth. She invariably keeps her audience in a laughable mood with quaint witticisms and the inimitable way in which she sings her clever songs.

The several records which this favorite entertainer has made for the Victor are delivered in the delightfully humorous manner which has made Miss Irwin famous as a fun-maker.

JACOBSON, SASCHA, Violinist

JACOBSON

This young player, who is a pupil of Franz Kneisel, may almost be called a "prodigy," as he is barely twenty-two years of age, and he is certainly one of the most promising players who has been heard in a very long time. He is of Russian birth, but came to America with his parents in 1906 and was placed under the guidance of Franz Kneisel.

The Victor Company, realizing that young Jacobson may yet rank among the greatest players of the time, has secured him for a series of records, four of which are now presented. The numbers selected include popular compositions by Handel, Schumann and Renard.

JANIS, ELSIE, Comedienne

Elsie Janis is one of the most charming and gifted women on the American stage. The young comedienne's command of dialects is a most unusual gift—no matter what she undertakes it is sure to be a finished piece of character delineation. Miss Janis was one of the stars of the "Lady of the Slipper" production, and the combination of Montgomery-Stone-Janis was certainly the strongest all-star feature in the musical comedy field. After a splendidly successful season in London she returned to America and joined the "Century Girl" forces during the season of 1916-17.

JANPOLSKI, ALBERT, Baritone

Albert Gregorowich Janpolski, the Russian baritone, is well-known on the concert stage in America, his resonant voice and artistic singing being familiar to concert-goers.

Such is the interest that has lately been aroused in Russian music that Mr. Janpolski has been asked to sing for the Victor some of the well-known Russian folk songs which he has been using in his concerts. Some of these typical folk-song melodies have been used by modern composers as themes.

JARVIS, HAROLD, Tenor

It is with pleasure that the Victor offers a number of solos by this favorite tenor. In the cities of Canada and the Middle States Mr. Jarvis is a great favorite, and with his Victor records has made new admirers.

Mr. Jarvis has given a sympathetic rendering of an English ballad and a beautiful old hymn; while a favorite old sea song is delivered in a spirited manner.

JOLSON, AL, Comedian

JOLSON

Although Al Jolson was well known as a black-faced comedian before he joined the Winter Garden Company, the opportunities afforded him at that house made New York realize that here was one of the best comedians ever heard on Broadway.

One of Mr. Jolson's greatest gifts is his really wonderful enunciation—no matter how quietly he speaks, every syllable is heard in the farthest corner of the theatre. This is one reason why the Victor representative, after hearing him sing "Rum Tum Tiddle" and "That Haunting Melody," promptly asked the comedian if he would like to make some Victor records. He consented, and his first engagement resulted in several records which are irresistibly amusing.

JONES, ADA, Comedienne

JONES

No series of records in the entire Victor Catalogue has given more innocent pleasure to the public than the clever solos in various dialects by Miss Jones, the quaint German, Irish and other dialect specialties of Jones and Spencer, and the popular songs of the day given as duets by Miss Jones and Mr. Murray.

Whether Miss Jones' impersonation be that of a darky wench, a little German maiden, a "fresh" saleslady, a cowboy girl, a country damsel, Mrs. Flanagan or an Irish colleen, a Bowery tough girl, a newsboy or a grandmother, it is invariably a perfect one of its kind.

The recent death of the popular and genial comedian, Mr. Spencer, is regretted by a host of friends and admirers. Mr. Spencer was a highly-gifted entertainer, having all dialects at his command, and his original sketches have been enjoyed by countless hearers in the last seventeen years.

KELLOGG, CHARLES, the "Nature Singer"

This gifted naturalist has been talking to delighted audiences all over the country about the wild life—in story, pictures and bird songs. But his pre-eminent gift, that has been his from birth, places him unique among men—the ability to sing like a bird. He does not imitate the birds by lip whistling or otherwise, but actually sings their songs from his throat.

Mr. Kellogg also adapts his bird singing to some of the most beautiful classic compositions, played by the orchestra. Two fine examples of this bird singing are given here, and two records of what might be called "bird conversations." The singer gives an interesting chat about various birds, illustrating their songs and showing how they talk to each other.

KINDLER, HANS, Violoncellist

KINDLER

This young 'cellist, who has attained great popularity during his three years in America, has been engaged to make records exclusively for the Victor.

Hans Kindler was born in Rotterdam, Holland, in 1892, and was educated in the high school and university of that city. When he was nine years old he began to play the 'cello, and later attended the Rotterdam Conservatory, where he studied under Mossel, Gerardy and Casals. He was for two years solo 'cellist, at the Charlottenburg Opera, Berlin, and taught the 'cello at the Scharwenka Conservatory. Mr. Kindler has appeared with the principal orchestras in Berlin, Amsterdam, Birmingham and Hanover, under such famous conductors as Mengelberg, Kunwald, Schönberg, Landon Ronald, etc. He has played in joint recitals with Julia Culp, Xaver Scharwenka and Ferruccio Busoni, who, last summer, dedicated to him a transcription of a Chromatic Fantasy by Bach. He has also had the honor of playing for the Queen of Holland and for the Prince and Princess of Wied in Berlin. In 1914 Mr. Kindler was engaged for the Philadelphia Orchestra, and is now, at the age of twenty-five, the solo 'cellist of that organization.

KLINE, OLIVE, Soprano

KLINE

Olive Kline is one of the most promising sopranos in the concert field. She has a voice of exceptional freshness and of youthful quality, and sings in a manner to justify brilliant expectations for her future as an oratorio and concert artist.

Her list of engagements is already a very long one, and includes the Worcester Festival; Apollo Club, Brooklyn; Norfolk, Conn., Festival; Richmond Festival; McDowell Festival, etc.

This young singer's work in solos and concerted records has given pleasure to a very large circle of hearers, and the Victor has been much congratulated on her exclusive engagement.

KRYL'S BOHEMIAN BAND

Bohumir Kryl, Director

The records which Kryl's Bohemian Band has made for the Victor serve admirably to exhibit the splendid playing of this fine organization.

The numbers selected for Mr. Kryl's engagement comprise two famous concert marches, brilliantly played; Sak's charming Dance of the Wood Nymphs; the favorite Rigoletto Quartet, the well-known and inspiring Attila Trio, and a splendid solo by Mr. Kryl, supplemented by his band.

LA FORGE, FRANK, Pianist

HALL'S STUDIO

This brilliant young artist, whose sympathetic accompaniments and solos were such features of the Sembrich and Gadski concert tours, has made for the Victor a series of pianoforte solos, the first of which are now offered.

These numbers exhibit well this young pianist's command of technique and beautiful tone. The compositions are very popular light classics, and the fine reproductions the Victor has made have attracted much attention.

LAUDER, HARRY, Comedian (Now an absolutely exclusive Victor artist)

LAUDER

The success of this popular Scottish comedian in America has been phenomenal, and he is declared to be one of the greatest entertainers now before the public. To hear him sing his amusing songs and specialties, however, it is not necessary to visit the few cities where he appears, for the Victor now offers records of his best numbers. These records were made by Mr. Lauder at the Victor's Camden Laboratory, and are so natural that the hearer will be simply astonished, every word and whisper being absolutely distinct.

It is hard to define just what it is in Lauder's work that makes him so popular. But the secret probably is that he is simply natural, and bubbles over with wit and melody because he can't help it!

The new agreement made by the Victor with Mr. Lauder is one of the most important ever made, Lauder being the highest salaried entertainer in the world. This new arrangement calls for the comedian's exclusive services for a term of years.

LOHENGRIN (Loh'-en-grin) (Weimar, 1850) (Richard Wagner)

Opera in three acts; words and music by Wagner. First produced Weimar, Germany, 1850, under direction of Liszt. London production, 1875; Paris, 1887. First American performance at the Stadt Theatre in New York, April 3, 1871. First American production in Italian, 1874, with Nilsson, Cary, Campanini and Del Puente; in German, 1885, with Brant, Krauss, Fischer—this being Anton Seidl's American début as a conductor.

Most of us are familiar with the story of the Knight Lohengrin, who comes in his boat, drawn by a swan, to defend Elsa from the charge (preferred by Telramund and Ortrud, who covet Elsa's estates) of having murdered her young brother, Godfrey. Telramund is vanquished and disgraced by Lohengrin, who wins Elsa as his bride. One condition he exacts from her—that she shall never ask who he is or whence he came. By the influence of Ortrud, however, she rashly questions him, and in fulfillment of his vow, but in deep grief, he is compelled to leave her and departs in his boat drawn by a dove. The ethereal Grail harmonies, the lovely Swan Motive, the noble Prayer of the King and the Bridal Chorus, make this one of the most melodious of all the master's operas.

LUCIA DI LAMMERMOOR (Loo-chee'-ah) (In Italian except as noted)

Opera in three acts; text by Salvator Cammerano; music by Donizetti. First production Naples, 1835; London, 1838; Paris, 1839; N. Y., 1843. The action takes place in Scotland; part in Ravenswood Castle, part in the ruined tower of Wolfscrag.

The plot of Lucia is founded on Sir Walter Scott's novel, The Bride of Lammermoor. Lord Henry Ashton, Lucy's brother, knowing nothing of her attachment to his enemy, Edgar of Ravenswood, has arranged a marriage between Lucy and the wealthy Lord Arthur, in order to retrieve his fallen fortunes. Learning that Lucy is in love with Edgar, he intercepts her lover's letters and executes a forged paper, which convinces Lucy that Edgar is false to her. Convinced of her lover's perfidy, and urged by the necessities of her brother, she unwillingly consents to wed Sir Arthur. The guests are assembled for the ceremony, and Lucy has just signed the contract, when Edgar appears and denounces Lucy for her fickleness. Edgar is driven from the castle, and the shock being too much for the gentle mind of Lucy, she becomes insane, kills her husband and dies. Edgar, overcome by these tragic happenings, visits the churchyard of Ravenswood and stabs himself.

MACDONALD

Miss MacDonald, as the star of those dainty operettas "Spring Maid" and "Sweethearts," made the biggest success of her career, and her impersonations of the Princess Bosena and Sylvia were two most charming ones.

The two greatest hits of the "Spring Maid" were "Day Dreams" and "Two Little Love Bees," and it is these numbers which Miss MacDonald has sung for the Victor, besides three of the most popular "Sweethearts" numbers. Her clear and sweet voice is perfectly recorded, and these reproductions will delight those who will not have an opportunity to hear her in person; while the fortunate ones who have seen these operas will find in the records a delightful souvenir of a pleasant evening.

MACDONOUGH, HARRY, Tenor

COPY'T CHANNELL

MACDONOUGH

Mr. Macdonough is one of the most popular singers on the Victor staff, and his list of Victor records contains a wide range of selections, both standard and popular, consisting of solos (ballads, sacred songs, hymns, and concert songs) and many duets and quartets with various other Victor singers.

This tenor's correct method of singing and the clearness of his diction are most refreshing at a time when indifferent vocalization and careless enunciation are so much in evidence. Mr. Macdonough makes records exclusively for the Victor.

MACFARLANE, GEORGE, Baritone

MACFARLANE

Mr. MacFarlane needs no introduction to Victor audiences, as his splendid baritone and his admirable work in the Gilbert and Sullivan operas during the past few years have set a new standard in the presentation of those operettas, and made his name known to theatre-goers throughout America.

The numbers offered for the Victor début of this singer include the effective song which Mr. MacFarlane gave with such marked success during the run of "Miss Caprice" (Lieber Augustin); the sentimental ballad, "Dreamy Eyes," and a recent Olcott song; an effective number by Caro Roma, and several new Irish ballads. The baritone's resonant voice and excellent delivery are much in evidence in these attractive selections.

MANON (Mah-non) (Massenet) Sung in French unless otherwise noted

LANDE — SETTING OF ACT I — VICTROLA BOOK OF THE OPERA

Opera in four acts; words by Meilhac and Gille, after Abbé Prévost's novel. First production, Paris, 1884; London, 1885. First U. S. production 1885, with Hauk, Giannini and Del Puente. Some notable revivals—1895, with Sanderson and de Reszke; 1899, with Saville, Van Dyk and Plançon; and the recent Metropolitan production, with Caruso and Farrar.

Manon is a country girl, gay, pretty and thoughtless, who meets a handsome young cavalier, des Grieux, while on her way to a convent to complete her education. He falls in love with her and she with him as far as her nature will allow, and when he tells her of the gaieties and pleasures of Paris she needs little persuasion to induce her to elope with him to the capital. Soon tiring of love in a cottage, however, the young girl encourages the attentions of a rich nobleman, de Brétigny, and when des Grieux is taken away forcibly by his father, she seizes the opportunity and leaves with her new lover. In Act III she learns that des Grieux, despondent because of her faithlessness, has resolved to enter a monastery. Her fickle affections turn again to him, and she visits him at the Seminary of St. Sulpice. He at first repulses her, saying his love is dead, but he is unable to resist her, and they depart together. The next act occurs in a gambling house, where des Grieux is endeavoring to win money to support Manon in the luxury she demands. Guillot, a roué, in revenge for a trick played on him in Act I, causes their arrest, des Grieux for cheating and Manon as a dissolute woman. The last scene occurs on the road to Havre, where des Grieux and Lescaut, Manon's brother, plan to rescue Manon as she is being taken to the ship, en route for the prison colony in Louisiana. The soldiers appear, but it is a dying Manon they escort, and the unfortunate girl, after asking forgiveness of des Grieux, dies in his arms.

MANON LESCAUT (Man-on' Les-koh') (Puccini) Sung in Italian

Opera in four acts; music by Giacomo Puccini; the libretto, founded on Abbé Prévost's novel, being mainly the work of the composer. First presented at Turin, 1893; Covent Garden, 1894; first American production, 1898, in English by the Hinrich's Opera Company. First performance in Italian occurred at the Metropolitan Opera House in 1907, under the general direction of Puccini himself, the cast including Caruso and Farrar.

The Abbé Prévost romance has been treated operatically by several composers, the first being Halévy, who wrote a ballet on the subject in 1830. Other settings followed—by Balfe, 1836; Auber in 1856 and Massenet in 1884.

The first act shows the courtyard of an inn at Amiens. Manon's brother, Lescaut, a dissolute soldier, is escorting his pretty little sister to the convent where she is to complete her education. While Lescaut is carousing with some chance companions, Manon meets a handsome gallant, des Grieux, who chances to be dining at the inn, dressed as a student. The prospect of school not appealing very strongly to the young girl, she readily agrees to elope with des Grieux, thereby spoiling the plans of the old roué, Geronte, who had planned to abduct the pretty school girl. Manon soon tires of des Grieux and his poverty, and leaves him for the wealthy Geronte; but even this luxury fails to bring her happiness, and when des Grieux appears again she runs away with him. Geronte is furious and denounces Manon to the police as an abandoned woman. She is condemned to be deported to the French possessions in Louisiana. Des Grieux and Lescaut try to rescue her, but the attempt fails, and in desperation the former begs the Commandant to permit him to accompany her to America. In the final scene the lovers are shown in a desert near New Orleans. (The Abbé Prévost's knowledge of American geography was evidently limited!) Des Grieux leaves Manon to search for water, and returns just in time to see her die in his arms, after a most affecting scene.

MARSH, LUCY ISABELLE, Soprano

The career of Lucy Marsh is another demonstration of what may be accomplished by an American girl under an American teacher. No one who listens to her faultless singing can but feel gratification that both pupil and teacher are native born. She was a pupil of the late John Walter Hall, of New York.

Miss Marsh's voice is a lyric soprano of exceptional beauty, and its exquisite purity, smoothness and flexibility are delightful to hear.

Miss Marsh's flawless technique, the absolute purity of the soprano tones, and her perfect intonation always give the keenest delight to the appreciative listener.

The Victor has secured the exclusive services of this artist, and now presents a number of selections by her.

MARTHA (Vienna, 1847) (Flotow) (Sung in Italian unless otherwise noted) See "Victrola Book of the Opera" for complete illustrated description

Opera in four acts; libretto by St. George and Friedrich; music by Friedrich von Flotow. The opera is an elaboration of "Lady Henrietta, or the Servant of Greenwich," a ballet-pantomine, with text by St. George and music by Flotow, Burgmuller and Deldevez, which was suggested by an actual incident, and presented in Paris in 1844. Martha was first produced at the Court Opera, Vienna, 1847; London, 1858; Paris, 1858; Milan, 1859. First American production 1852, in German. Revived at Metropolitan in 1916 with Caruso, Hempel, Ober and de Luca.

Flotow's melodious opera has always been a most popular one, with its spirited Fair Scene, its beautful duets and quartets, and famous third act finale, and the beloved "Last Rose of Summer." The composer was of noble birth, a son of Baron von Flotow of Mecklenberg, and was born in 1812. His father destined him for a diplomat, but the boy loved music and went to Paris to study. His first attempt at opera was Pierre et Catharine, followed by Stradella and others.

MASSENET, JULES EMILE FREDERIC (1842-1912)
(Mahss'-'n-neh)

MASSENET

Jules Massenet, whose death occurred in 1912, was one of the best known of modern French composers. He was born in Monteaux, near St. Étienne, in 1842, and numbered among his teachers Ambroise Thomas, composer of Mignon. At the age of twenty-one he carried off the Grand Prix de Rome with his cantata David Rizzio. He composed prolifically for the lyric stage, the orchestra, the voice and the piano. His latest work, Thérèse, was recently produced at Monte Carlo. One of his most popular operas is Manon; others are Hérodiade, Werther, Le Cid, and La Navarraise.

For records of Massenet's compositions see his operas, "Cid, Le," "Cléopâtre," "Hérodiade," "Jongleur," "Manon," "Roi de Lahore," "Thais" and "Werther"; also "Angelus," "Chant de Guerre Cosaque," "Élégie," "Ouvre tes yeux" and "Sonnet Matinal"

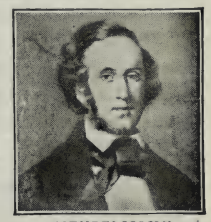
MENDELSSOHN, FELIX (1809-1847) Compositions by



MENDELSSOHN

Born Hamburg, 1809. Son of banker. Bartholdy, mother's name, assumed afterwards because of inheritance conditions. At 8 played piano well. At 15 had already written four operas! In 1829 went to London, made great success as organist and pianist. In 1835 settled at Leipsic, directed Gewandhaus concerts. Oratorio, St. Paul, performed Dusseldorf, 1837. Married Fr. Jeanrenaud, daughter of clergyman. In 1843 founded Leipsic Conservatory, of vast influence. Elijah, greatest work, produced London, 1846. Died Leipsic, 1847.

MESSIAH (Dublin, 1742) (Handel)

"The Messiah" had its origin at one of the darkest moments of the composer's life. At a time when his operatic enterprises had come to nought, and with spirits depressed and fortune gone, he began the great series of oratorios by which his genius lives to-day. "The Messiah" was first given in Dublin with a mere handful of performers—a chorus hardly more numerous than many a village church can get together for a harvest festival, serving to make known a work afterwards to be performed by thousands in massed choirs at a modern Handel festival.

MIGNON (Meen-yon') (Paris, 1866) (Ambroise Thomas)

Opera in three acts; text by Barbier and Carre, based upon Goethe's Wilhelm Meister; music by Ambroise Thomas. First production, Paris, 1866; London, 1870; N. Y., 1872.

The first act opens in the yard of a German inn. A group of actors, including the beautiful Filina, are on their way to the Prince's castle, where they are to give a performance. A strolling band of gypsies arrive, and Mignon, who is with them, is ordered to dance for the entertainment of the guests. The girl is weary, and on her refusal to dance, Giarno, the leader, threatens her. Lothario tries to protect the young girl, and Giarno turns upon the old man.

Wilhelm, a wandering student, appears and rescues both Mignon and the harper, and to save the girl from further persecution engages her as his page. Wilhelm is invited by Filina to join the troupe in their visit to the castle. He consents, and the flirtation which follows arouses the jealousy of Mignon, who, touched by Wilhelm's kindness, has fallen in love with him. In despair she is about to throw herself into the lake when she hears the notes of Lothario's harp. She asks his protection, and rashly tells him she wishes the castle would burn to the ground. The demented old man, thinking only to please her, goes into the castle. Filina and the actors appear, and Filina sends Mignon to the castle for some flowers she has left there. Suddenly flames burst from the windows, and Wilhelm rushes to the burning building and carries out the unconscious Mignon. Wilhelm is soon cured of his infatuation for Filina and discovers Mignon's devoted attachment for him.

The third act takes place in the palace of Lothario, who has instinctively returned to his ancestral home, bringing with him Mignon. They are accompanied by Wilhelm, who now realizes that he loves his youthful ward. The young girl is soon discovered to be the long lost child of Lothario, who suddenly recovers his reason. Father and daughter are reunited, while a blessing is bestowed on the young people by the happy Lothario.

MILLER, CHRISTINE, Contralto

MILLER

Christine Miller is one of the most satisfactory artists now appearing in concert in America—her lovely voice, appealing style of singing, and gracious personality having endeared her to many thousands of concert-goers throughout the country.

To give a list of this singer's engagements during the past few years would require several pages of this catalogue, so we will not enumerate them but will merely state that Miss Miller has appeared with many of these organizations four and five times, a true sign of an artist's popularity with audiences.

As all singers who are worth while come into the Victor fold sooner or later, Miss Miller, following this rule, has permitted the recording of her voice by the Laboratory which can do her full justice, and the Victor records she has made will enable her admirers and all music-lovers to hear faithful reproductions of one of the most beautiful of contralto voices.

MILLER, REED, Tenor

MILLER

It is with much pleasure that the Victor announces the engagement of Mr. Reed Miller, the well-known concert tenor, whose beautiful voice, admirable diction and correct method have earned for him a large following of musical people. Some of Mr. Miller's recent engagements show in what favor he is held by concert-goers. Besides his regular engagement as solo tenor of the Brick Presbyterian Church of New York City, he has lately sung at the Spartanburg and Greensboro Festivals; Musical Art Society, Pittsburgh; with Damrosch and the New York Symphony; at the Worcester Festival, etc. The numbers selected for his Victor list by Mr. Miller are most attractive ones, and consist of a number of standard and sacred songs, besides several duets with Mr. Werrenrath.

MINSTREL RECORDS—By Victor Minstrel Company

NOTE.—Lively and entertaining "tabloids" of minstrelsy, full of snappy repartee and tuneful singing. Don't get these minstrel records expecting to hear sweet and soothing music—it isn't that kind! But the records are good entertainment for a jolly party who like vigorous singing and perfectly obvious jokes, the point of which can be grasped by the average person without the aid of a map! Rousing bits of comedy and melody by a talented bunch of singers and comedians.

MONTGOMERY and STONE, Comedians

COPY'T MOFFETT DAVE AND FRED

Like Damon and Pythias were David Craig Montgomery and Frederick A. Stone, ever since the birth of the partnership at Kansas City eighteen years ago, when the two clever Western youths agreed to appear together as a song-and-dance team.

One of the reasons why the work of these clever comedians was always so enjoyable was the pleasure which they took in it themselves, and this is fully apparent in the clever skits which they made for the Victor. The recent death of Montgomery lends a melancholy interest for the records which the comedians made for the Victor at the height of their success.

MOZART, WOLFGANG (1756–1791) (Moh'-tsart)

MOZART

Born 1756, Salzburg. Son of musician and teacher. When 4 could play piano, at 6 wrote a concerto. Learned violin and traveled as a prodigy. At 11 wrote an opera, never given. At 12 concertmeister of Salzburg church, and wrote several masses. When 13 went Italy, where the young genius astonished by his musical knowledge. Was knighted by Pope. Produced and conducted his opera Mitridate, 1770. Returned Germany, and in 1782 married Constance Weber. Period of poverty followed, ended by production in 1786 of Marriage of Figaro. This success followed by greatest work, Don Giovanni, in 1787. Other operas were Cosi and Titus, not successful. In pite of failing health from overwork wrote Magic Flute, produced 1791, and died some months later. Besides operas wrote much sacred and chamber music, many orchestral works, etc.

MURPHY, LAMBERT, Tenor

MURPHY

Lambert Murphy is an American, and was born in the city of Springfield, Mass. As a boy he sang in church choirs, and later, while at Harvard University, took much interest in musical matters. During his senior year at Harvard he commenced his concert career, continuing it for two seasons after his graduation in 1908, and filling many important engagements, including concerts of the Boston Festival Orchestra (three successive seasons), and the Handel and Haydn Society. He was soloist at St. Bartholomew's Church, New York, but resigned his position there when he went to the Metropolitan in 1911, in order to devote his time entirely to operatic work. Mr. Murphy is naturally endowed with a tenor of unusually pure quality, which, during his brief professional career, has developed in richness, warmth and color.

MURRAY, BILLY, Comedian

For duets with other singers see "Jones and Murray," "Morris "and "Porter," also "Duets, Vocal." For quartets in which Murray sings see "American Quartet"

MURRAY

Billy Murray is one of the most successful of all American singers of humorous songs, and probably entertains, through his Victor records, a larger audience than any other singer who has ever lived. His Irish songs, with just a touch of quaint and fascinating brogue; the rapid-fire type of comic song with no breathing places (Billy never seems to take breath!); the topical song, which presents the follies of the time in humorous fashion; popular sentimental songs; dialect specialties—no matter what the line of work he undertakes it is sure to be cleverly done. His enunciation is simply wonderful; there is never any doubt as to a single syllable when Murray sings it!

NEAPOLITAN TRIO—Violin, Harp, Flute

Nothing, perhaps, that the Victor has done in years has so pleased the public as the making of the fine series of violin, flute and harp trios by the Neapolitan Trio, which have been pronounced perfect examples of pure music. The new organization which the Victor has assembled for these instrumental trios has made a number of sweet-toned and altogether delightful reproductions, and the records should be secured by every music-lover.

O

NOTE.—In listing the many selections beginning with the word O or Oh, this rule has been observed: In all foreign titles the word is written O, and in English titles Oh, as is customary. For example, if you want "O sole mio," or "Oh, Dry Those Tears" do not look for "Oh sole mio"—or "O Dry Those Tears."

OCARINA RECORDS—BY MOSÉ TAPIERO

The despised ocarina, sometimes flippantly called the "musical sweet potato," has suddenly risen to the rank of a musical instrument, at least in the hands of a gifted Italian performer, for Signor Tapiero certainly does some most remarkable things with this little wind instrument. It seems astonishing that such effects can be produced from so simple an affair as a "hollow sweet potato with holes in it," as some one has described the instrument. These records are very, very loud—use a half-tone needle unless you are on the deck of your private yacht!

OFFENBACH, JACQUES (Of'-fen-bach)

OFFENBACH

Born Offenbach-on-Main, June 21, 1819. Son of Cantor of Jewish synagogue, Cologne. Went to Paris in youth. In 1833 studied 'cello at Conservatoire; and played in orchestra of Opéra Comique. Wrote some successful songs and became conductor at Theatre Francaise. Not much learning, but witty. Compositions number ninety, mostly light operas written in twenty-five years. Best known operas Grand Duchesse, La Belle Helene, Madame Favart, all formerly popular here. Only work now in vogue in America is Tales of Hoffman, revived by Hammerstein in 1907, now in Philadelphia-Chicago repertoire, and in English by Aborn Opera Company. Offenbach visited America in 1875. Died in Paris, 1880.

O'HARA

Mr. O'Hara is a young American composer who has produced a number of excellent compositions, and is also himself a singer. One of his compositions is "Your Eyes Have Told Me," of which a record has been made by Caruso.

A highly interesting work in which Mr. O'Hara has been engaged is the conservation of the music of our American Indians, to which enterprise he was appointed by Secretary of the Interior Lane. He spent some time among the Navajos in Arizona, who are the richest in treasures of Indian music, encouraging them to sing, and taking down their melodies note by note on paper.

The first four records by Mr. O'Hara are listed below.

ORFEO ED EURIDICE (Or-feh'-oh ayd Ay-oo-ree-dee'-cheh) (Orpheus and Eurydice) (Vienna, Oct. 5, 1762) (Gluck)

Book by Ramieri De Calzabigi; music by Christoph Willibald von Gluck. First production in Vienna, October 5, 1762, Gluck conducting. First Paris production, 1774, when the rôle of Orpheus was transposed for high tenor. First London production at Covent Garden, June 26, 1770. Other revivals were during the Winter Garden season of 1863; in 1885 (in German), by the Metropolitan Opera under Walter Damrosch; the English production in 1886 by the National Opera Company; the Abbey revival in Italian in 1892; and the Metropolitan production of 1910, with Homer, Gadski and Gluck.

The opera has had only one adequate American production previous to this Metropolitan revival, and that was during the American Opera Company season of 1886—the Abbey revival of 1892 meeting with but indifferent success.

This opera, which has been called "Gluck's incomparable masterpiece," and of which the great Fétis wrote, "it is one of the most beautiful productions of genius," may be properly termed a purely classical music drama. The music is exquisite in its delicacy and grace, while the story is an interesting and affecting one. Orpheus may be called the grandfather of grand opera, it being the oldest work of its kind to hold its place on the stage, the first representation occurring one hundred and fifty years ago.

The story concerns the Greek poet Orpheus, who grieves deeply over the death of his wife Euridice, and finally declares he will enter the realms of Pluto and search for her among the spirits of the departed. The goddess Love appears and promises to aid him, on condition that when he has found Euridice he will return to earth without once looking at her.
(See "Victrola Book of the Opera" for complete illustrated description.)

ORGAN RECORDS

Organ music is one of the finest forms of musical expression, but except in the large cities music-lovers have few opportunities to enjoy it. Many efforts have been made to obtain satisfactory reproductions of a pipe organ, but these experiments have met with but little success until the recent series of experiments by the Victor resulted in some excellent reproductions.

It is now more than two hundred years since the first pipe organ was installed in a Boston church. It was a very crude affair, called by someone a "box of whistles," and much opposition was aroused, the organ being considered a device of the devil! It is a long step from the little Brattle Square Church organ to the complex modern instrument, with its hundreds of pipes of all dimensions and its pneumatic and electric actions, so sensitive that a breath of air will almost suffice to depress a key.

The Estey Pipe Organ was used in these experiments through the kindness of the makers. Both selections were rendered on the same instrument, the "Funeral March" being played by Richard K. Biggs, organist of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Brooklyn, in the usual manner, using the organ keys; and the "Hallelujah Chorus" rendered by Mr. McAll, who uses the Estey automatic device.

PAGLIACCI, I (Pahl-yat'-chee) The Players (In Italian unless otherwise noted)

Dramatic opera in two acts; libretto and music both by Ruggiero Leoncavallo. First production, Milan, 1892; London, 1893; first American production, 1894, with Kronold, Montegriffo and Campanari. The scene is laid in Calabria, between 1865 and 1870.

During the orchestral introduction Tonio, in clown costume, appears and explains that the subject of the play is taken from real life; reminds the audience that actors are but men, with passions like their own, and that the author has endeavored to express the real feelings and sentiments of the characters he will introduce. He then orders up the curtain. The first act shows the entrance to an Italian village. Canio, and his troupe of strolling players, or pagliacci, having paraded through the village, now announce a performance for that evening at seven, and Canio goes with Peppe into the tavern. Tonio, the clown, remains behind, ostensibly to care for the donkey, but in reality to make love to Nedda, Canio's wife. She repulses him, striking him with her whip, and he swears to be revenged. Silvio, a rich young villager, in love with Nedda, now joins her and begs her to fly with him. She refuses, but admits that she loves him, her confession being overheard by Tonio, who hurries in search of his master. Canio returns too late to catch Silvio, but mad with jealousy, he demands the lover's name, and when Nedda refuses, tries to kill her, but is restrained by the others. Nedda goes to dress, and Canio is in despair at the thought of being obliged to play while his heart is breaking.

Act II. The audience is now assembled and the play begins. This proves to be the usual farce in which the clown makes love to Columbine during the absence of her husband, Punchinello. Strangely enough, this conventional farce is very like the situation in the real lives of the players, and when Punchinello (Canio) arrives and surprises the lovers, as the play demands, he loses his head as he hears Columbine repeat in the farce the very words Tonio had heard her say to the real lover earlier in the day. Mad with rage, he again demands her lover's name. Nedda tries to save the situation by continuing the play, and the audience is delighted by such realistic acting, until the intensity of Canio's passion begins to terrify them. The other players endeavor to silence him, but in vain. Finally, stung by his taunts, Nedda defies him and is stabbed, Canio hoping that in her death agony she will reveal the name of her lover. She falls, calling upon Silvio, who rushes from the crowd only to receive in turn the dagger of the outraged husband. As Canio is disarmed by the peasants he cries, as if in a daze, "The comedy is ended."

PASTERNACK, JOSEF A.—Musical Director

Still a young man, the Musical Director of the Victor Talking Machine Company is a musician of wide experience and broad sympathies. Born in Poland in a family rich in musical traditions, Pasternack began the study of music as a child of four, finishing his period of instruction at the Warsaw Conservatory. Coming to the United States soon after, he became a member of the orchestra at the Metropolitan Opera House, which position he held with distinction for eleven years. Then on the recommendation of Toscanini he was appointed conductor. After three years' experience in that capacity, he left for Germany and won new laurels in a number of European cities. A year later he was recalled to this country to conduct the "Century Opera." His most recent engagement has been as conductor of the Boston Symphony summer concerts of 1916, and for some time past he has occupied with conspicuous success the post of Musical Director for the Victor Talking Machine Company.

PEERLESS QUARTET

This popular singing organization has made a number of fine records for the Victor catalogue, and the manner in which these selections have been rendered has made the Peerless a welcome feature of the entertainment staff. The late Frank C. Stanley was the organizer and manager of the Peerless for many years, and many of the records listed below were made by the Quartet during the life of this popular basso. After his death Mr. Meyers became the basso of the organization.

PICKELS, MASTER WM., of Trinity Church, Pittsburgh

The voice of the average boy soprano, for many reasons, is unusually difficult to record, and although the Victor has made many trials of boys' voices, they were not deemed worthy to bear a Victor label. In this young Pittsburgh soprano, however, we have a most unusual singer, whose voice lends itself admirably to reproduction. The purity and freshness of his voice and its remarkable flexibility mark him at once as undoubtedly one of the best boy sopranos ever heard in America.

Four well-known and popular airs have been chosen by Master Pickels for his Victor début.

PIETRO (PIETRO DEIRO), Accordionist

To say that the Victor's Pietro records have made a "hit" is putting it but mildly, and that much-abused word "furore" might even be used. That no such accordion playing has ever been reproduced on records is the universal opinion of customers who have heard the fine numbers already issued. The first accordion was manufactured in Vienna about 1829, and soon became very popular throughout Europe. It was a very simple affair, however, compared to Pietro's instrument, which has an elaborate keyboard with hundreds of keys.

The overtures especially have caused a sensation, and they give one an idea of the wonderful instrument used by Pietro—which he calls a "piano-accordion." It might be called also a full military band and an orchestra, judging by the effects produced. Pursuing its usual policy of always giving Victor customers the best, Pietro, being the greatest accordionist in the world, has been engaged to make Victor records exclusively.

PILZER, MAXIMILIAN, Violinist

Maximilian Pilzer was born in New York City not so many years ago, and when still a very young boy went to Europe where he completed his studies with Gustav Hollaender and Joseph Joachim. With a foreign reputation he returned to the United States, appearing with some of the leading orchestras, acting as concertmaster of the Russian Symphony Orchestra and the People's Symphony Orchestra. At the present day Mr. Pilzer is soloist and concertmaster of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra. The list of records offered by the Victor exhibits in a marked degree the fine playing of this young artist.

POLICE BAND OF MEXICO CITY

Our neighboring country across the Rio Grande is noted for the great number and high quality of its band organizations, and every city and town has its military band, which plays regularly in the plazas or parks for the enjoyment of the people. The greatest of these bands is the Police Band or Banda de Policia of the City of Mexico, which, under the leadership of Señor Presa, has become one of the most famous military bands in the world.

The Victor now offers several records of this organization, which display well the precision and fine tone for which it is celebrated. Señor Presa conducted the band in person during this engagement.

POLITICAL ADDRESSES—See also "Bryan" and "Taft"

During the Presidential campaign of 1912 the Republican, Democratic and Progressive candidates decided to present their views to the people of the United States through that greatest of all public mediums, the Victor, which brought directly into the home the actual voices of the aspirants for Presidential honors.

For the first time in the history of the United States, the Victor made it possible for the people in all parts of the country to hear the actual voices of three nominees in a discussion of the principles involved in the campaign. This debate, an intensely interesting one, filled thirteen records, most of which were combined in double-faced form, which insured the widest publicity for the discussion.

The Victor made no comment on the political situation, but merely offered the views of the candidates, so that each citizen was helped to a wise decision.

PORTER, STEVE—Comic Songs and Specialties

Mr. Porter is one of the pioneer makers of talking machine records, having been engaged in this work since 1897. He is a most versatile singer and comedian, and an experienced male quartet member. His work in the American Quartet is of the greatest value to that organization and his famous Irish and other dialect specialties have been much enjoyed by lovers of clean comedy. (For portrait see "American Quartet.")

PRYOR'S BAND, ARTHUR PRYOR, Conductor

Pryor's Band, now in the thirteenth year of its existence, has settled into its permanent place as one of the greatest bands in the world, under the leadership of the brilliant young conductor and composer, Arthur Pryor.

At the annual engagements of the band at Asbury Park, and Willow Grove in Philadelphia, it was estimated that this organization played to more than one million people. Mr. Pryor's Victor audience is a still larger one, and the superb Pryor-Victor records are enjoyed in every part of the world.

RATTAY, HOWARD, Violinist

Mr. Rattay, who is one of the most prominent violinists of Philadelphia, is a pupil of Joachim, having spent several years under the tuition of that distinguished master of the violin. Several years ago Mr. Rattay was persuaded to become the concertmeister of the Victor Orchestra, and his splendid work in that organization is familiar to Victor audiences, both in his solos and in the accompaniments for Victor singers. For Mr. Rattay's records see "Violin Records" and "Instrumental Duets"

REIMERS

Mr. Reimers who has for years played an important rôle in Berlin, both as a lieder singer and as soloist at important oratorio performances, and who has been acclaimed by the German press as one of the finest interpreters of Beethoven and Schubert, has made a very great success in America in recitals and other concerts.

Musical America recently said of Mr. Reimers' singing: "His voice has flexibility and sweetness of lyrical quality and his singing shows much artistic discretion, refinement of style and tastefulness in phrasing and nuance."

The series of records, both solos and some charming duets with Mme. Gluck, which this singer has made for the Victor, have been very successful.

REITZ

It has always been the impression of the average xylophone player that he alone among instrumental soloists was privileged to "drop" notes ad libitum—at least so audiences have come to believe! But Mr. Reitz has shown, in the series of records he has made for the Victor, that accuracy is just as possible in "wooden music" as with other instruments.

The Reitz-Victor xylophone records are the finest ever made anywhere, both in tone and accuracy of playing. Mr. Reitz has lately played a number of charming selections on the orchestra bells. For the Reitz records see "Bell Solos" and "Xylophone Solos."

RIGOLETTO (Rig-oh-let'-toh) (Sung in Italian unless otherwise noted)

Opera in three acts; text by Piave, adapted from Hugo's drama Le Roi s'Amuse; music by Verdi. First produced Venice, 1851; London, 1853; Paris, 1857; N. Y., 1857. The scene is laid in Mantua and vicinity in the sixteenth century.

Ri

The story tells of the gay and unprincipled Duke of Mantua, who is assisted in his crimes by his jester, Rigoletto, a hunchback. The father of one of the Duke's victims is mocked by Rigoletto, and launches upon him a father's awful curse, which stuns and sobers the jester, as he, too, has a daughter, Gilda, unknown to the court. On his way home Rigoletto meets a professional assassin, Sparafucile, who offers, for a price, to kill any enemy he may have. Rigoletto says he may need him later. The Duke, in the guise of a young student, has already met Gilda, not knowing who she is, and the young girl has fallen in love with him. When Rigoletto has left the house the Duke's courtiers abduct Gilda and take her to the Palace. The father's rage is terrible to witness, and he goes to the Palace, but too late to save his daughter. She pleads for the Duke's life, but Rigoletto swears to kill him, and arranges with the assassin, Sparafucile, to accomplish the deed. The Duke is lured to a lonely inn by Sparafucile's attractive sister, Maddalena, and is about to be murdered when Maddalena, who has taken a fancy to him, begs for his life. Sparafucile consents provided a substitute should happen along before midnight. Gilda, whom Rigoletto had brought hither (disguised as a page) in order that she might witness the fickleness of her lover, has been listening to the conversation, and now resolves to save the Duke's life at the cost of her own. She enters the hut, is stabbed by Sparafucile, who delivers the body to Rigoletto according to agreement. Rigoletto is about to cast the body into the river when he hears the Duke's voice in the distance. The wretched man opens the sack, sees his daughter and falls senseless on her body.

RILEY, JAMES WHITCOMB, Recitations

The death of James Whitcomb Riley, familiarly called "the Hoosier Poet," is mourned not only by the people of Indiana, who felt and believed that the beloved poet belonged to them, but by his countless thousands of admirers in all parts of the world. His poems are probably better known in the homes of all classes of people than those of any other writer—and all who had the privilege of hearing him read his poems can never forget the experience.

The announcement that this beloved writer, who through illness was no longer able to appear on the lecture platform, had made a number of records for the Victor, aroused widespread interest among his admirers. And this simple announcement contained a world of meaning, for even though "the Hoosier Poet" has now passed away, through the magic of the Victor he will come to your home and read his poems for you and your guests.

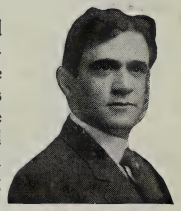
RODEHEAVER, HOMER, Baritone



RODEHEAVER

Every one of the hundreds of thousands attending the revival meetings of "Billy" Sunday, the former baseball star, who forsook the diamond for the saving of souls, is familiar with the genial, big-voiced baritone who at these services sang revival hymns so sweetly and clearly. Homer Rodeheaver is a Southerner. He began his career in a mountain log camp, and in later years learned the trombone and played in the 4th Tennessee Band, going with them to the Spanish-American War. After singing and playing his way through the Ohio Wesleyan University, he leaned toward the law, but was induced to enter the evangelical field.

The Victor has persuaded Mr. Rodeheaver to record a number of these hymns, so that persons in cities which Mr. Sunday cannot visit will be able to hear the impressive work of this popular singer-evangelist.

ROMAINE, MARGARET, Soprano

COPY'T MISHKIN

ROMAINE

Miss Romaine comes as a refreshing surprise to a public which had become somewhat resigned to the mediocre prima donnas which are often assigned to leading musical comedy rôles. This singer, who has been appearing in Europe for several years, and has had much grand opera experience, may be described as the best soprano heard in light opera in America for a very long time. It is interesting to note that she is a sister to Hazel Dawn, the original "Pink Lady." The numbers offered by this singer include the popular Chin Chin number, "Grey Dove"; the dainty Yum Yum Song; Metcalfe's sad but much beloved "Absent," and the brilliant "My Skylark Love."

ROSSINI, GIOACCHINO (Ros-see'-nee)

ROSSINI

One of the greatest of Italian opera composers. Born Pesaro, Italy, 1792. Mother opera singer and father musician. Studied piano from 7. At 15 went to Bologna Conservatory. When 16 wrote cantata, and in 1810 an opera. During 1812 produced five light operas, and in 1813 first grand opera, Tancredi, a success; then Italian in Algiers. In 1816 produced his finest of comic operas, Barber of Seville. In next eight years wrote twenty operas. Went to London, 1823, and produced his works with success. Went to Paris, managed Théatre Italién, producing his masterpiece, William Tell. In 1832 wrote famous Stabat Mater. Last years spent quietly and happily among devoted friends. Died in Paris, 1868.

SADLER, JOSIE, Comedienne

SADLER

This popular comedienne is exceptionally clever, her droll dialect and amusing songs being features of any production in which she appears, and her uncommon fund of humor brings to each of her rôles a touch peculiarly her own.

We have induced Miss Sadler to sing for the Victor one of her best numbers—a German specialty introducing "Hilda" and a policeman, in which Miss Sadler's unsurpassable "Dutch" dialect has ample scope.

SASSOLI, ADA, Harpist (Sass'-oh-lih)

This most romantic and picturesque of musical instruments is often considered to be useful only in the accompanying of songs, but should be pre-eminently a solo instrument.

To make a faithful reproduction of the tones of the harp has long been the ambition of the best recorders in America and Europe, but their labors were in vain until the Victor, after years of experimenting, announced the result of these experiments in a series of beautiful reproductions, by Miss Ada Sassoli, whose artistic playing is familiar to concert-goers. Miss Sassoli's exquisite tone, her mastery of phrasing and amazing technique are perfectly recorded.

SCHUBERT, FRANZ PETER (1797–1828), Compositions by

Born near Vienna, 1797. Son of peasant schoolmaster. Boy taught violin and voice by local choirmaster. At 16 wrote 1st Symphony. At 17 began writing songs with remarkable facility—between 17 and 18 wrote 144 songs, including masterpiece, Erlking.

Schubert led a somewhat Bohemian life, never married and was frequently out of funds. Was much underpaid, some of his best songs oringing only 20c. each! Works numerous, including 600 songs, 8 symphonies, several overtures, much piano and chamber music, operas, etc. Schubert was the greatest of all song composers, and really creator of art of song. Also most remarkable of youthful writers. Died 1828, leaving many MSS. valued by officials at $12.50 (!) but which afterward made the fortune of several publishers.

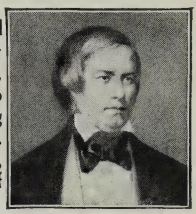
SCHUMANN, ROBERT (1810-1856), Compositions by



SCHUMANN

Born Zwickau, Saxony, 1810. Son of bookseller. Learned piano at 6. Began composition at 7. When 16 father died; boy went Heidelberg University. On graduation returned Leipsic, studied piano, but injured finger and devoted himself wholly to composition, first for piano, then, after his marriage, began writing the perfect songs for which he is now best known to general public. Toured Russia, 1844; moved Dresden, 1845. Called to Dusseldorf, 1850, as Director of Musical Society. In 1853 showed signs of insanity, attempted suicide, and was confined till death in 1856.

Total of Schumann compositions astonishing, and includes opera, Genoveva, several cantatas and many religious works, part songs, four symphonies, besides chamber music and much for organ and piano—and lastly, the wonderful series of songs, 130 of which were composed in a single year, 1840!

SINGING LESSONS—The Oscar Saenger Course

The Oscar Saenger Course in Vocal Training is a practical, efficient system for teaching people to sing. It is based on the simplest and most direct principle of all teaching, which for the first time is now applied to singing in a new and original way.

No matter where they may live, all those who wish to sing may now learn to do so under the direction of a master who is credited with having entered more pupils upon successful operatic, oratorio or concert careers than has any other teacher in the United States.

The course consists of ten double-faced Victor records, which provide twenty lessons in vocalization. There is a separate set for each of the following five voices: Soprano, Mezzo-Soprano, Tenor, Baritone and Bass. In the Mezzo-Soprano there are special instructions for the training of children's voices.

With each set of records for any of the above voices there is also provided a textbook of supplementary information for the student, which information is set forth so definitely and clearly, that the art of singing may be fully understood by those who have had no previous training.

All the necessary technique and all the necessary exercises for the development of perfect vocalization are provided, explained and worked out in the same definitely constructive way as they are in Oscar Saenger's own studio.

The one essential requirement in vocalization is that the student shall learn to produce perfect tones in the proper way. This the Oscar Saenger course accomplishes by the simplest and most direct method.

For each set of lessons perfect examples of tone production have been secured through Oscar Saenger's personal selection of artists best qualified to serve as exemplars.

These tones, as separate tones, phrases or scales, are "sung" by the records to piano accompaniment. The accompaniment then continues, but instead of the exemplar (the record) the student then sings, to that accompaniment, the same tones in the same way that he or she has just heard them produced by the record. The result is that through conscientious practice with the Oscar Saenger records, correct tone emission is brought about almost automatically.

The chief obstacle with which we have had to contend is the difficulty of securing proper instruction. In the past it has cost more money and more time away from home than most of us have been able to spare. Moreover, if satisfactory results are to be obtained, it is essential that from the beginning such instruction should be imparted by one who, by training and experience, is qualified to teach.

Such instructors are not to be found readily—hence the inestimable value of the Oscar Saenger Course in Vocal Training, for Oscar Saenger is a recognized authority on the teaching of vocal music who enjoys an international reputation earned by reason of the number of successful singers who received their training in his studio.

The Oscar Saenger Course in Vocal Training for any of the voices mentioned below, may be procured from any Victor dealer at $25.00—the cost of a one-hour lesson at the Saenger Studio in New York.

Each set is furnished in a special container as follows:

SISTINE CHOIR RECORDS—of Music in use before the "Motu Proprio"

This style of music was recently in vogue not only in Rome, but throughout the world, and it might be said that there were no church solemnities without sacred music of masters such as Capocci, Battaglia, Aldega and others. When Pope Pius X issued his "Motu Proprio" on sacred music, music of this kind was interdicted in all church functions, and may now be heard only in concert-rooms or colleges.

The Victor was fortunate enough to secure a number of records by the Sistine Choir before the Pope's order went into effect, and now offers Americans an opportunity of hearing this most famous of religious singing bodies. Among these records are several solos by Prof. Moreschi, the famous male soprano, now more than sixty years of age. (For Gregorian music see Gregorian Records.)

SOUSA'S BAND—JOHN PHILIP SOUSA, Conductor

NOTE—The Sousa's Band records will be found under "Band Records" and "Dance Records."

Sousa's Band is acknowledged to be one of the finest concert bands in the world, and has delighted millions of hearers, not only in America but throughout the countries visited by the band during its five triumphal tours of Europe. Many fine records by this famous band are in the Victor lists, including a superb series of the Sousa marches, the most successful of all musical compositions, more than six million copies having been sold, netting their composer the greatest royalty ever paid an American composer. They are popular in every country on the globe, and are played by twenty thousand bands in the U. S. alone. Sousa's Band plays only for the Victor.

TAFT, WILLIAM H., Late President of the United States

Some of these addresses were made just before Mr. Taft's election in 1908 and the remainder during the campaign of 1912. Every word spoken is wholly clear and distinct; and those who have heard Mr. Taft speak will be impressed with the absolute faithfulness of the reproductions.

TANNHÄUSER (Tahn'-hoy-zer)

Words and music by Richard Wagner. First presented Dresden, 1845; Paris, 1861; London, 1876; New York, 1859.

Tannhäuser, with its poetry, and romance; its characters, who are real human beings and not mythological gods, goddesses and heroes, appeals strongly to the average opera-goer. The story tells of conflict between two kinds of love: pure love as distinguished from mere sensuous passion; and relates how the higher love triumphed in the end.

Tannhäuser, a knight and minstrel, in an evil moment, succumbs to the wiles of Venus and dwells for a year in the Venusberg. Tiring of these monotonous delights, he leaves the goddess and returns to his home, where he is warmly received and told that the fair Elizabeth, niece of the Landgrave, still mourns for him. He is urged to compete in the Tournament of Song not far distant, the prize being the hand of Elizabeth. The theme of the contest is The Nature of Love, and when Tannhäuser's turn arrives the evil influence of the Venusberg is apparent when he delivers a wild and profane eulogy of passion. Outraged by this insult, the minstrels draw their swords to slay him, but Tannhäuser is protected by Elizabeth, who pleads for his life. Coming to his senses, too late, he repents, and when a company of Pilgrims pass on their way to Rome, he joins them to seek pardon for his sin. In the last act we see Elizabeth, weary and worn, supported by the noble Wolfram, who also loves her, watching for the Pilgrims to return, but Tannhäuser is not among them. Elizabeth is overcome with disappointment and feebly returns to her home.

Ta

Tannhäuser now appears, in a wretched plight, on his way to re-enter the Hill of Venus. He tells Wolfram that he appealed to the Pope for pardon, but was told that his redemption was as impossible as that the Pope's staff should put forth leaves. Wolfram's remonstrances are in vain, and Tannhäuser is about to invoke the goddess, when a chant is heard and the Pilgrims appear, announcing that the Pope's staff had blossomed as a sign that the sinner was forgiven. Tannhäuser kneels in prayer as the mourners pass with the body of Elizabeth, who, overcome by her bitter disappointment, had suddenly passed away.

TOLLEFSEN TRIO—Violin, 'Cello, Pianoforte

This famous ensemble organization is composed of Mme. Tollefsen, pianist (who will be remembered as Augusta Schnabel), Carl Henry Tollefsen, violinist, and Paul Kéfer of the New York Symphony Orchestra, 'cellist. The first New York appearance of this organization was at Mendelssohn Hall in 1909, and since that time they have continually added to their laurels.

Individually these artists are musicians by temperament and training, all of which is evident in their excellent Victor records, which because of their color, balance and interpretation have been a source of satisfaction to all those who derive pleasure from highly artistic combinations of "strings." The playing of this trio shows a remarkable sympathy between the members, and the balance of instruments is admiralby maintained throughout.

TRAVIATA, LA (Trah-veeah'-tah) Sung in Italian unless otherwise noted.

Opera in three acts; libretto by Piave, founded on Dumas' Lady of the Camelias; music by Verdi. First presented Venice, 1853; London, 1856; New York, 1856.

Traviata, is one of the most beautiful works of its class, and is full of lovely melodies; while the story of the unfortunate Violetta has caused many tears to be shed by sympathetic listeners. The plot, being quite familiar, will be but briefly sketched here. Violetta, a courtesan of Paris, is holding a brilliant revel in her home. Among the guests is a young man from Provence, Alfred, who is in love with Violetta, and after much persuasion, the spoiled beauty agrees to leave her gay life and retire with him to an humble apartment near Paris. After a few brief months of happiness the lovers are discovered by Alfred's father, who pleads with Violetta to release his son from his promises. She yields for his sake, and resumes her former life in Paris. Alfred, not knowing the real cause of her desertion, seeks her out and publicly insults her. Too late he discovers the sacrifice Violetta has made, and when he returns, full of remorse, he finds her dying.

FROM VICTROLA BOOK OF THE OPERA

ISOLDE GIVING THE SIGNAL—ACT II. (COLOGNE FESTIVAL PRODUCTION)

Opera in three acts; words and music by Richard Wagner, the plot being derived from an old Celtic legend which was popular during the Middle Ages. His direct source was the unfinished poem by Gottfried of Strasburg, who flourished in the thirteenth century. Tristan is one of the most popular of legendary heroes and has been treated of by numerous writers, among them Tennyson and Swinburne.

This great drama of love and hatred, with its wonderful music, is now quite generally admitted to be the finest of the master's operas. Written at the time of Wagner's own love affair (with Mathilde Wesendonck), it is supposed that he sought to emphasize the fact that love cannot always be bound by conventions.

TROVATORE (Troh-vah-tohr'-eh) Sung in Italian unless otherwise noted.

Opera in four acts; words by Cammanaro, the story being suggested by a Spanish drama of the same name; music by Verdi. First produced at Rome, 1853; Paris, 1854; London, 1855; New York, 1855. The scene is laid in Biscay and Arragon in the fifteenth century.

Many years previous to the opening of the story the mother of Azucena, an old gypsy, had been burned as a witch by the father of the present Count di Luna, and Azucena, to revenge her mother's death, stole the young brother of the Count and brought him up as her son under the name of Manrico. He becomes a Troubadour and gains the love of Leonora, who is also beloved by the Count.

In Act I the rival suitors, in an effort to see Leonora, meet and a duel takes place, but Manrico generously spares the Count's life. Act II opens in the gypsy camp, where Manrico, under the care of Azucena, is recovering from a recent wound. He learns that Leonora, thinking him dead, is about to take the veil, and that the Count intends to abduct her. He hastens to her and after an encounter in the Convent, Leonora is rescued. In the third act the lovers are finally about to be united, but Manrico suddenly learns that Azucena is in the power of the Count and condemned to be burned, and in his attempt to release her he is also captured by di Luna. In the last act Leonora, to save Manrico, offers to wed the Count, but takes poison as soon as the order of release is signed. Discovering this, the Count orders Manrico to instant execution, but just as the Troubadour dies the gypsy, Azucena, reveals to di Luna that he has killed his own brother.

TURNER, ALAN, Baritone

TURNER

Mr. Turner has become a great favorite with Victor customers through the fine series of standard songs and opera airs he has made for us. This baritone's range is a remarkable one, his upper notes being particularly pure and clear.

The selections which this singer has made—Irish ballads, English patriotic airs, sacred songs and opera songs in English—are all rendered with dignity and artistic finish.

Mr. Turner was a member of the Chicago Opera Company during its final season.

TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE SINGERS

We take pleasure in presenting these examples of Negro Folk-Songs by the Tuskegee Institute Singers—from the famous school of the late Dr. Booker T. Washington, Tuskegee, Ala.—who sing these inherited old "Spirituals," as did their grandfathers, in deep reverential spirit, with all the native, peculiar richness of tone-coloring and harmonies that make these songs of real use in an educational and historical sense.

U. S. MARINE BAND, of Washington, D. C.

The history of the United States Marine Band is a most interesting one and dates from 1801. Before that time the country had no band in its navy, but then the spirit of pride, which would not passively sanction Uncle Sam's being outdone in the matter of naval equipment by any European or other power, began to manifest itself. It was not until 1838, however, that this little band was detailed to the United States Manne Corps for duty at the Marine Barracks in Washington. The band was then conducted by a fife major, and so continued until 1854, when a bill was passed providing for one leader and thirty classed musicians. This number was increased in 1899, when a bill was passed by Congress providing for a leader with the rank of first lieutenant, and increasing the members of the band to sixty. The Marine Band has been an indispensable factor in the music life of Washington for more than a half century, and is familiarly known as the "President's Own." The band is under the direction of Lieut. Wm. H. Santelmann, a famous bandmaster and composer.

VAN AND SCHENCK

The piano to many people is a serious instrument, to be approached only in the proper spirit of reverence. To Van and Schenck a piano is a pal who enters gladly into their fun making.

Van and Schenck, though both are still quite young, have been "vaudeville headliners" for a considerable time, and during the past season they were much in demand in New York, where they appeared with "The Century Girl," and also at the Cocoanut Grove. A number of their most successful contributions are listed below, including a popular Irish song written by Van and Schenck themselves, and the catchy "Yaddie Kaddie."

VAN BRUNT, WALTER, Tenor

Mr. Van Brunt is one of the most popular of the ballad tenors who make records for the Victor. His sweet tenor, remarkable enunciation and taking style are much in evidence in the series of reproductions listed below. As will be seen, Mr. Van Brunt not only sings ballads well, but essays a comedy selection now and then, which is always cleverly rendered—as a hearing of this singer's "Railroad Rag" will show.

VANCE, CLARICE, Comedienne

One of the greatest favorites the vaudeville stage ever knew is Clarice Vance. Unassuming, quiet, dignified and clever; possessed of a droll humor and a sly method of expression that are simply irresistible, she has always been in a class by herself with her clear-cut delivery of popular "coon" songs. The records which Miss Vance has made for us are absolute reproductions of her voice and droll mannerisms.

VAN EWEYK, ARTHUR, Lieder Singer

VAN EWEYK

This Dutch-American baritone, whose annual visits to America were among the events of each season, has made a number of favorite German lieder for the Victor, and the first ten of these are presented. Mr. Van Eweyk, well known in Europe as one of the foremost oratorio and lieder singers, has been engaged in concert work for fifteen years, appearing each season in Berlin and other musical centres of Europe.

This singer's beautiful voice, admirable diction and fine delivery are amply shown in the numbers he has made for the Victor. In the making of these records Mr. Van Eweyk was assisted by that sterling pianist, Mr. Charles Albert Baker, of New York, who has provided some unusually sympathetic and finished accompaniments.

VERDI, FORTUNIO GIUSEPPE FRANCESCO (Vair'-dee)

VERDI

Born 1813, near Roncole, Italy. Parents, though poor inn-keepers, gave him spinet lessons from parish organist. At 10 succeeded his teacher at church organ. Boy became so popular that village sent him to Milan for further study, where director of Conservatory refused scholarship because of lack of talent! (Many years after, this same institution was renamed Cons. di Giuseppi Verdi in Verdi's honor.) Then studied with Lavigna, returning to Roncole to marry Sirta Barezzi. Settled permanently in Milan 1836. First op., Bonifacio, produced 1839, followed by Giorno di Regno, a failure. Others following in quick succession were: Nabucco, 1842; Lombardi, 1843; Ernani, 1844; Rigoletto, 1851; Trovatore and Traviata, 1853; Masked Ball, 1857; Forza del Destino, 1862; Don Carlos, 1867; Aida, 1875; Requiem, 1874; Otello, 1887. After silence of 7 years, Verdi astonished the world by producing his Falstaff, a wonderful production for a man of 80. The composer died in 1901.

VESSELLA'S ITALIAN BAND (Ves-sel'-lah)

A Victor announcement of unusual interest was the engagement of this dashing director and his famous Italian Band of soloists, whose annual season in Atlantic City is one of the events of that popular Mecca for pleasure seekers. As a conductor, Signor Vessella is vigorous and picturesque, without being unduly fantastic; and his control over his band is a remarkable one—such precision and such shading being quite unusual even in this day of fine military band organizations.

VICTOR OPERA COMPANY

The series of Victor operatic medleys is the most popular, the most costly and the most widely distributed feature ever introduced by the Victor. These medleys have, of course, been extensively imitated, but the fine singing organization which the Victor controls exclusively and the Victor process of recording make the records absolutely beyond competition.

More than seventy operettas and grand operas have been treated in this novel fashion, and the skill used in combining the most attractive bits of these musical works is most remarkable.

VIENNA QUARTET, THE

(Two violins, piano, 'cello)

The Vienna Quartet records have been warmly greeted by lovers of good music. The playing of the Quartet is a fine example of the spirit and finish that can be put into popular music and the lighter classics when properly played.

Many notable composers and critics have heard and admired the work of this organization, and have expressed their pleasure in no uncertain manner. The constant association of the players during many years has given them a perfection of ensemble which is most delightful.

WAGNER, RICHARD (Vahg'-ner) (For records of Wagner compositions see "Album Leaf," "Flying Dutchman," "Dream of Wagner," "Engel," "Götterdämmerung," "Im Treibhaus," "Lohengrin," "Meistersinger," "Parsifal," "Rheingold," "Rienzi Overture," "Schmerzen," "Siegfried," "Stehe still," "Tannhäuser," "Traüme," "Tristan und Isolde," "Träume" and "Walküre.")

WAGNER

Born Leipsic, 1813. Son of Law Court clerk, afterward Chief of Police. When 6 father died—mother married Geyer, actor, moved Dresden, where Richard took piano lessons, and heard Weber's Freischutz, which made deep impression. First attempts at composition string quartets. In 1832 wrote overture (performed at Gewandhaus), in 1833 a symphony. First opera begun, "The Wedding," 1832, destroyed unfinished. In 1834 director of Magdeburg Opera. In 1836 married Mina Planer, actress. (Separated 1862 and married divorced wife of Von Bülow.) In 1837 conductor at Riga, Russia, where he began Rienzi. Theatre failed, and leaving many debts sailed for London in small vessel. During stormy voyage conceived idea of Tristan and Flying Dutchman. Not successful London, went Paris, spent several years in obscurity, writing dance music, etc. In 1842, through influence Meyerbeer, Rienzi was produced in Dresden, and with such success that Flying Dutchman soon followed. These operas greeted with mingled abuse and praise, and launched the most celebrated and protracted controversy in musical history. Appointed chapel master Dresden Opera 1843. Tannhäuser produced 1845. In 1849 involved in revolution and fled to Switzerland. Remained 3 years idle, then began Niebelungen Ring. Returned Germany 1861. Tristan abandoned in Vienna as "unsingable" after 57 rehearsals, but afterward produced. Financial troubles relieved by King Ludwig of Bavaria. Bayreuth Opera House opened 1876, and pronounced the ideal theatre. Last opera, Parsifal, produced Bayreuth 1882. Wagner went Venice, Italy, for health and died there 1883.

Wagner's wonderful music dramas revolutionized modern opera music, and their vogue is continually extending.

WEBER, CARL MARIA (Vay'-ber)

WEBER

Born Eutin, Germany, 1786. Family very musical. Weber taught by mother, opera singer, and father, fine musician. At 10, pupil of Heuschkel and choir boy at Salsburg. Moved Munich, published first composition, set of fugues, then a mass, and at 12 wrote an opera never produced. At 13 his opera Waldmadchen was sung. After further study appointed conductor Breslau Theatre. At 18 Musik-Intendant to Duke of Wurtemberg. After period of fast living was imprisoned and banished for selling court appointment. Went Darmstadt, produced two operas, then after concert tour engaged to reorganize Prague opera. Married Caroline Brandt, actress. Freischütz, greatest opera, produced 1821 with immense success. In 1825, although warned against English climate, he went to London to produce his operas and died there 1826. In spite of early wildness, was afterward model husband and father. Weber considered father of German opera, and was creator of the Romantic school, of which his Freischütz, 1821, Euryanthe, 1823, and Oberon, 1826, are good examples.

WELLS, JOHN BARNES, Tenor

WELLS

Mr. Wells, who is a native of Pennsylvania, first became known as a singer while at Syracuse University, where he took a prominent part in the musical life of the college. On his graduation he was secured by the Brick Presbyterian Church of East Orange, always noted for its fine choir. New York soon discovered Mr. Wells, and he was promptly captured by the Madison Avenue M. E. Church, when his concert career may be said to have begun.

The audiences who hear this young singer are always in complete sympathy with him, not only because of his lovely voice and the charm of his singing, but because of the clearness of his enunciation, which enables every word to be heard, and these unusual qualities are fully apparent in the numbers he has sung for the Victor.

WERRENRATH, REINALD, Baritone

WERRENRATH

"Werrenrath sang Danny Deever and Fuzzy-Wuzzy in a way to put military gooseflesh on the limpest human vertebrae," wrote one enthusiastic critic when this young artist was singing on tour with Geraldine Farrar. There are thrills in the voice of this young American baritone, but it is smooth and sympathetic, too, and his manner of using it furnishes a perpetual charm to the ear and mind of the connoisseur.

"Good baritones," says a famous critic, "may not be quite as rare as good tenors, but when one turns up gifted with as many admirable qualities as the young American, Reinald Werrenrath, there surely ought to be much cause for congratulation." That opinion is evidently shared by the public generally, for Mr. Werrenrath is much sought after and a very extensive Victor repertoire has been demanded.

He is the son of George Werrenrath, who was himself famous as a singer. Of Danish ancestry, Reinald Werrenrath was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., and graduated from the New York University. His rare musical intelligence had all the advantages of early environment, and to-day Mr. Werrenrath is one of our best and most satisfying concert artists.

WHEELER, ELIZABETH, Soprano

A soprano who can give a song the proper expression and yet pronounce the words distinctly is a rare discovery. In Mrs. Wheeler the Victor presents a soprano whose diction is really remarkable; and this fact is quite evident in the records she has made.

After hearing Mrs. Wheeler's first records, the Victor Company at once secured her services for disc work; and she has sung a number of old favorites, besides several of the popular ballads and many duets, both sacred and secular, with Mr. Wheeler, the soprano and tenor blending in most attractive style.

WHITNEY BROS. QUARTET

This fine organization, which is composed of four brothers, is quite well known to patrons of the various Lyceum courses, and the brothers have thousands of admirers, especially throughout the Middle West.

WHITNEY BROTHERS QUARTET

It is rare to find in one family four gifted sons; and rarer still to find four with voices so placed that they can assume the several parts in a male quartet. The Whitney Brothers sing both classical and popular songs in a most artistic manner, and in their concerts give an entire evening's programme without other assistance.

Sketches by Mr. Wildhack to illustrate his own records.

WILDHACK, ROBERT J.

Do you snore? Of course not; but if so, is your snore a blonde or a brunette? Or if it is neither of these, perhaps it is type 3B, the "conversational, or troubled conscience" variety. This weighty question can only be finally solved by consultation with Mr. Wildhack, who has it "all figured out" here. The same thoroughness of research has also been given to "Sneezes," so that you may now, says Mr. Wildhack, "learn to recognize a friend by his sneeze." "Snores" and "Sneezes" are not "talking records" in the ordinary sense, but are illustrated entertainments, veritable humorous sound classics, dealing with some of the funniest sounds in nature, and have no competition in the entire talking machine field. The humor of the sounds is obvious enough to delight any child, and the humor of the description is subtle enough to satisfy the most sophisticated listener.

WILLS, NAT M., Comedian

WILLS AS A TRAMP

No entertainer on the American stage to-day is more popular with the public than Nat Wills. His familiar impersonation of a tramp is unique and always amusing, without a touch of offensiveness or vulgarity. His stories and monologues are so witty and laugh-compelling that one suspects they are written, like his parodies, by himself—and he never fails to make the most of them.

Mr. Wills may be said to have a voice created for record-making, so powerful and resonant is his rich baritone; and the distinctness with which he gives every syllable of his talks and songs is of course known to everyone.

ABOTT, BESSIE, Soprano

ABOTT

Bessie Abott began her musical career a few years ago in light opera, and although in a measure successful, she was ambitious and determined to study for grand opera. After some years' work she made her début at the Paris Opéra in Romeo and Juliet with much success. Engagements in various European cities followed and in 1908 the soprano was secured by the Metropolitan in New York, where she remained several years. During her last season in America she sang in the brilliant revival of Robin Hood.

Miss Abott's voice is pure and sweet, the upper notes being exquisite in their beauty and clearness.

ALDA, FRANCES, Soprano (Ahl'-dah)

ALDA

Frances Alda was born in Christ Church, New Zealand, but has spent much of her life in Paris. She studied singing with Mme. Marchesi for ten months, and then made a début at the Opéra Comique in Paris in 1904. Four years later she came to New York, making her first appearance here as Gilda in Rigoletto, and during her engagement at the Metropolitan has sung a number of rôles with marked success. Thanks to the versatility of Mme. Alda's talent she has been able to relieve the Metropolitan of a serious embarrassment, which might have been occasioned by the absence of some of the soprano staff due to war conditions. So far as her operatic engagements will permit Mme. Alda has also appeared in concert on several highly successful tours.

AMATO, PASQUALE, Baritone (Ah-mah'-toh)

AMATO

Pasquale Amato was born in Naples and belongs to one of the best families of that city. Destined by his parents for a civil engineer, he had studied singing merely as an amateur, but his friends were so enthusiastic over his splendid vocal qualities that he was strongly urged to enter the Naples Conservatory. After three years there, he made his début at the Bellini Theatre in 1900, as Germont. He early gained a reputation which reached the South American impresarios and was soon engaged for Buenos Aires, where he met Toscanini. It was at the latter's suggestion that he went to Milan and sang for Mr. Gatti-Casazza, who was then the director-general of the Scala Opera, by whom he was immediately engaged.

Eight years ago he was secured for the Metropolitan Opera House, and has been a member of that company ever since.

ANCONA, MARIO, Baritone (Ahn-koh'-nah)

ANCONA

This baritone was engaged for a recent season of the Chicago Opera, and renewed the successes made several years ago. Opera-goers remembered him well as a good baritone and a fine actor, who delighted patrons of the Manhattan Opera with his faultless singing and splendid acting. Perfect phrasing of difficult passages, a remarkably even and rich quality of voice, superb acting—these were the qualities which won him his great success.

During the baritone's stay the Victor recorded some of his most famous numbers.

ARRAL, BLANCHE, Soprano (Ar-rahl')

ARRAL

This gifted soprano was born in Liege, where, at the age of ten, she won the first prize in her class for singing and piano. After three years at the Conservatoire in Paris, she made her début at the Opéra Comique in Mignon, at the astonishing age of fifteen! After three years of success in Paris, the young soprano made a tour of Europe, followed by a journey around the world.

Mme. Arral has given the Victor two very interesting records, including her favorite number, the intricate "Bird Waltz," by Varney, in which she imitates the twitter of birds.

BACHAUS, WILHELM, Pianist (Back'-us)

BACHAUS

This famous pianist was born in Leipsic in 1884, and entered the Conservatoire at the age of ten, studying under Reckendorf and afterwards with d'Albert. His first public appearance, in 1900, was an overwhelming success, and his rendering of the works of Beethoven, Chopin and Liszt were pronounced marvelous for a youth of sixteen. Bachaus' American tours have been a very great success.

Herr Bachaus has chosen for his Victor list works of wide popularity by Chopin, Handel, Grieg, Liszt, Weber and Rachmaninoff.

BATTISTINI, MATTIA, Baritone

BATTISTINI

Battistini is one of the few great artists whom American impresarios have not succeeded in luring away from Europe. It is said that his dread of the ocean voyage alone has caused him to refuse brilliant offers from New York. In Russia, where he has sung regularly for more than twenty years, in Spain and in his native Italy, he is highly regarded because of the sheer beauty of his voice, his exquisite, warm, true Italian style, and the dramatic force of his acting. Although he is not a young man, he seems still in his prime, his upper notes being taken with the apparent ease of a tenor.

It is with pleasure that we are able to offer six splendid solos by this singer, besides a selection from Ernani made with the assistance of artists and chorus of La Scala, Milan, and also a duet from Thais.

BEDDOE, DANIEL, Tenor

BEDDOE

Mr. Beddoe, who is a native of Abaraman in Wales, came to this country in 1887, and settled in Pittsburgh. It was not until 1903 that his voice attracted the attention of Walter Damrosch at a concert given by the New York Symphony Orchestra, when several local vocalists were chosen to sing the famous quintette from Die Meistersinger. Conspicuous among these was Mr. Beddoe, who also made a most favorable impression by his singing of the Preislied. The result was that Mr. Damrosch engaged him for the Berlioz celebration in New York two months later, and in the following spring he sang the Parsifal music on the six weeks' tour of the Orchestra.

Other engagements which followed were with the New York Oratorio Society in Strauss' Taillefer, Dvořák's Stabat Mater and Judas Maccabeus; with the Apollo Club of St. Louis; Minneapolis Philharmonic Society in Elijah, numerous musical festivals, etc.

Mr. Beddoe's voice is of wide compass, at once robust and lyric in quality and absolutely even throughout its range. He uses it with rare taste, and his performance of operatic arias is as noteworthy as his oratorio singing, while in ballads also he is an equally satisfactory artist.

BONINSEGNA, CELESTINA, Soprano

BONINSEGNA

The appearance of Celestina Boninsegna was one of the events of a recent opera season at the Metropolitan. Mme. Boninsegna fully deserved all the praise which had preceded her from Milan, where she had been a member of the Scala forces.

Her voice is an agreeable and well-controlled soprano with an unusually rich and strong lower register. Mme. Boninsegna went from the Metropolitan to the Boston Opera, where she repeated her New York successes. The Victor Company takes pleasure in announcing three fine arias by this gifted artist.

BORI, LUCREZIA, Soprano (Boh'-ree)

BORI

The exclusive engagement by the Victor of Lucrezia Bori is only another evidence of the Victor's policy of securing the best artists in the world.

Mme. Bori's real name is Lucrezia Borgia (or Borja in Spanish), but she prefers to be known as Bori. This young soprano is a native of Valencia, Spain, although she has some Italian blood in her veins. She received her musical education in Milan, and made her début there several years ago as Micaela.

A successful Italian season was followed by a season in South America, and after the soprano had returned to Europe she was engaged for America. She is one of the youngest singers ever heard in opera in this country, and her youth and beauty, together with her lovely voice and dramatic ability, make her a unique artist indeed. Her Latin warmth and frankness tell only the more because they have gained the poise of the cultivation and the artistry that know no land.

BRASLAU, SOPHIE, Contralto (Brass'-low) (ow as in how)

BRASLAU

Sophie Braslau is one of the latest American singers to be engaged by the Metropolitan Opera Company. This young singer was born in New York, and is the only child of Dr. Abel Braslau, a distinguished Russian physician. By the time she was seventeen she spoke four languages, and since then has added Russian to her accomplishments. Naturally, she also sings in these tongues, and it is her special delight to sing all arias and songs in the languages of their composers.

The range of Miss Braslau's programs is remarkable. She sings the classic lieder with a rarely sympathetic intelligence as well as the beautiful old songs of France and the lovely old airs of Italy; she sings the modern songs of France, and the best songs by American and English composers. In opera she has studied every school, and is quite as much at home in Wagner as in the fascinating style of Bizet. Miss Braslau makes records exclusively for the Victor.

BUTT, CLARA, Contralto

BUTT

The announcement of records by this great English artist was welcome news to those who heard the contralto's artistic work on her first tour of America. Her success in her native land and on the Continent has been very great. Scarcely a festival of importance is considered complete without Mme. Butt's services, while her recitals in English cities invariably attract large throngs.

Mme. Butt, whose tours of this country were most successful, has chosen four fine numbers for her first records. Liddle's setting of this famous evening hymn will always be associated with its performance by Mme. Butt, who renders it with dramatic power and much vocal beauty, while Hullah's setting of Charles Kingsley's pathetically beautiful poem is eminently suited to the artist's lovely voice, and her rendition of this grimly realistic story of the lives of the humble fisher folk is a most thrilling one.

The singer was born in Southwick, England, 1873. A local teacher took the girl in hand, but trained her as a soprano. It was not until the young singer came under the tuition of W. W. Rootham that her talent was really discovered. This teacher at once "posed her as a contralto" and trained her for the Royal College of Music, which she entered after winning the three-hundred-guinea scholarship at her first examination.

Mme. Butt's noble contralto is peculiarly effective in the beautiful airs, and her diction, always good, is remarkably so in these examples.

CALVÉ, EMMA, Soprano (Kahl-vay')

CALVÉ

Emma Calvé, half French, half Spanish, is descended from a prosperous and cultured family. She was born in 1864, at Madrid. The premature death of her father was followed by reverses, and the young girl knew that she must face a world in a more serious rôle than that of a society belle, so it was not long before the dark-eyed beauty found herself studying with Rosina Laborde, and afterward with Marchesi and Puget. As a pupil the young girl endeared herself from the first to her teachers, and made rapid progress. Although her début was made at Nice, her first important appearance was at the Théâtre de la Monnaie, in Brussels, in 1882, as Marguerite in Faust. Her Paris début occurred in 1885 at the Opéra Comique, in Chevalier de Jean, but her first real triumphs came in Italy, where she made several tours, and when she reappeared in Paris as Carmen and Santuzza the Parisians made her their idol. She appeared in London in 1892, and Americans first heard her at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York, where she made her début in 1894, and her fame spread rapidly. Her beautiful voice, her remarkable gifts as an actress, her beauty and magnetic personality, united in presenting a picture at once alluring and fascinating. The singer's further triumphs in America are familiar to all, and although she spends most of her time in Europe, her admirers may find consolation in her Victor records.

Mme. Calvé's exquisitely trained voice, always remarkable for its beautiful timbre and emotional quality, was at its best when her Victor records were made. This great artist has recorded exclusively for the Victor the list of records catalogued here.

CAMPANARI, GIUSEPPE, Baritone

CAMPANARI

Giuseppe Campanari, one of the most famous baritones of the modern operatic stage, was born in Venice, and in early life played the 'cello at La Scala. Young Campanari was ambitious, however, and endeavored to improve his naturally good voice at every opportunity. In 1884 he was engaged by the Boston Symphony Orchestra, and after arriving in America took up vocal studies in earnest, making his first appearance as a singer in 1890, at a concert under the direction of Walter Damrosch. A season with Hinrich's Philadelphia Opera Company brought him to the attention of Mr. Abbey, and he was promptly engaged for the Metropolitan, where he remained for many years. The record of the favorite Toreador Song he has made for the Victor exhibits well his splendid voice, intelligent phrasing and good enunciation.

CARUSO, ENRICO, Tenor (Kah-roo'-zoh)

CARUSO

Caruso's success is the greatest ever attained by an artist in this country. His American engagements have been a continuous ovation, the great audiences being held spellbound by the exquisite refinement, beauty and power of his voice.

Caruso is a native of Naples and was born in 1873. When he was a mere boy he sang in the churches of Naples, and the beauty of his voice arrested the attention of all who heard it.

He was eighteen years old when he met a distinguished baritone singer, who, after hearing his voice, decided that he would give Caruso substantial assistance. He therefore took him to Maestro Vergine, who was captivated by the beauty and purity of his voice, and began to give him vocal instructions.

Caruso made his début in 1894 in Naples, in a now forgotten opera, L'amico Francesco, afterward singing in various Italian cities and in Cairo. A South American engagement followed, and on his return, after a season in Milan, it was clear that here was one of the most promising young tenors ever heard in Italy. Caruso had made a success in various countries of Europe before coming to America in 1903, but it was his performance of the Duke at the Metropolitan on November 23d of that year which convinced opera-goers that the greatest of all tenors had arrived.

This great artist has made records exclusively for the Victor since 1903, and as the present contract with the tenor does not expire until 1933, the public is assured perfect reproductions of his voice for many years to come.

CLEMENT, EDMOND, Tenor (Klay-mong'—ng partly sounded)

This favorite French artist, who has for many years been the leading tenor at the Paris Opera Comique, was born in Paris. He was destined for a civil engineer, and graduated from the Polytechnic; but his love for music compelled him to enter the Conservatoire, where he was one of the most brilliant pupils of his class. He was soon placed on the staff of the Opera Comique, where he remained continuously until brought over by the Metropolitan in 1909; and during his stay in America duplicated his French success.

In the records which M. Clement has made for the Victor his beautifully schooled voice, graceful style and perfect diction are shown to perfection.

CONSTANTINO, FLORENCIO, Tenor

CONSTANTINO

Florencio Constantino went to New Orleans with the San Carlo Company several years ago almost unheralded, and has since achieved a very great success. Following the San Carlo tour came the engagement of the tenor by Oscar Hammerstein; and the following season Constantino went to the Boston opera. This artist has a very fine voice, which he uses with consummate skill; the beauty of his mezzo-voce singing, well displayed in his Victor records, is especially noticeable. After a brilliant season in South America, Mr. Constantino returned to Boston, where he repeated the successes already made there.

CULP, JULIA, Contralto

CULP

The successful termination of negotiations for the record services of Julia Culp, the distinguished contralto whose success in America has been almost unprecedented, added another famous name to the list of Victor artists.

Mme. Culp was born in Holland and received her first musical training in the Amsterdam Conservatory, afterward going to Berlin, where she studied with Mme. Gerster. She made her first public appearance in Germany at a concert in Magdeburg in 1903, and soon afterward she sang at a concert in Berlin, when her success was assured. To-day she has only to announce a concert and the house is sold out weeks ahead, while Austria-Hungary, Russia, England, France, Belgium, Holland, Spain, Italy and Scandinavia have all acclaimed her as a peerless artist. The editor has heard Mme. Culp many times, but feels that her singing can best be described by famous critics.

"The exquisite art of Mme. Culp, her power of coloring her voice, of spinning out a pianissimo to the barest thread of silver, of sending out a fortissimo with splendid dramatic power, of giving expression to the most delicate of sentiments, was beautifully exhibited in her songs by Schubert, Strauss and Brahms." "Mme. Culp is a Dutch woman, but most English-speaking singers might well go to school to her.

"She is indeed unmatched as a singer of songs in our musical generation. Her mezzo-soprano voice is of remarkable range and resonance, richness and warmth, evenness and pliability. She uses it with both the largest and the minutest mastery of song and with resources and control of breath that are so unusual as to to be almost a mark of distinction."

Mme. Culp makes records exclusively for the Victor.

D

DALMORES, CHARLES, Tenor (Dahl-moh-ress')

Mr. Dalmores has made a splendid success in America, and has proven one of the best French tenors heard in New York in many years.

This young artist was born at Nancy, France, in 1872, and made his début at Rouen in 1899—with such success that he was engaged for the Brussels Opera, and his Brussels triumphs were repeated at Covent Garden, where he sang with Calvé in Carmen, and with Melba in Faust. He was brought to the U. S. in 1906 by Oscar Hammerstein, and his successes at the Manhattan in Don José, Hoffmann and other rôles are well remembered.

De

DE GOGORZA, EMILIO, Baritone (deh Goh-gor'-thah ur Goh-gort'-zah)

DE GOGORZA

Emilio de Gogorza is one of the best known baritones in America. His well-trained voice and artistic interpretations are quite familiar to concert-goers, and he sings a remarkable variety of music with admirable skill and unimpeachable good taste.

Mr. de Gogorza's list of Victor records is a very large one, more than fifty selections in Spanish, French, Italian and English having been contributed by him to the Victor catalogue. This list includes popular numbers in English ballads and Zarzuela arias in Spanish, and several fine operatic numbers in Italian and French, besides the famous Toreador Song, recorded with the assistance of the New York Grand Opera Chorus.

Mr. de Gogorza sings exclusively for the Victor.

DE LUCA, GIUSEPPE, Baritone

DE LUCA

A Roman by birth, Giuseppe de Luca is one of the latest acquisitions of the Metropolitan Opera Company, and no artist has more successfully proven his right to a place of distinction than this young Italian baritone.

At the age of thirteen his talent for singing was brought to the attention of Bartolini, the famous baritone and teacher. The boy then showed indications of musical feeling in marked degree, and his voice at that time was of the distinctly baritone quality. Fearing a possible change in the voice, it was not until some two years later that de Luca entered the Conservatory of Santa Cecilia in Rome, where he studied for five years before making his début in Faust.

He spent eight winter seasons in the famous La Scala and has appeared with most significant success in all the considerable capitals of Europe.

Mr. de Luca's American début was made as Figaro in the Barber of Seville at the Metropolitan Opera House, November 25, 1915, when he won instant favor with press and public alike. His voice is a high baritone that soars easily with no visible effort. It has warmth and flexibility in marked degree, and with his recognized mastery of bel canto de Luca has also the technique and the sympathetic insight of the actor.

The Victor, after hearing this fine artist, promptly secured his exclusive record services, and he has made several solos which are fine examples of his artistic achievements, and has taken part in two epoch-making concerted numbers, the new Sextette from Lucia and the new Quartet from Rigoletto.

DE LUSSAN, ZELIE, Soprano

DE LUSSAN

Zelie de Lussan was born in Brooklyn, and made her début in opera with the Boston Ideal Opera Company. During her three years with that company she achieved success as Carmen, Adina and Arline. In 1889 she went to London to fill an engagement at Covent Garden, and with such success that she has since remained in England, paying occasional visits to her native country for engagements at the Metropolitan.

The singer has given the Victor a charming rendition of a favorite Spanish ballad.

DE PACHMANN

M. de Pachmann has been frequently heard in America, but his last tour was the most successful of all, his remarkable playing of the Chopin works being greeted with the greatest enthusiasm.

The reproductions which the Victor has made of this artist's playing show in a marvelously faithful manner his beautiful tone and exquisite delicacy of touch. These include seven exquisite Chopin compositions; Mendelssohn and Schumann numbers; and that celebrated encore piece, the Rigoletto transcription.

This veteran pianist has now virtually retired from the concert field, and it is fortunate that the Victor records were made when he was at the height of his success.

DESTINN, EMMY, Soprano (Dess'-tin)

DESTINN

The success of this famous soprano at the Metropolitan has been very great, the opinions of the critics of London and Berlin having been echoed by the New York musical public, which realized at the very beginning of Mme. Destinn's American engagement that here was an operatic actress of rare skill, with a voice of great beauty.

Emmy Destinn was born at Prague, Bohemia, in 1878. She at first studied the violin, intending to become a virtuoso on that instrument, but after some years her voice was discovered to be so promising that the violin was put aside and vocal lessons begun. The real name of the singer was Kittel, but for stage purposes she assumed the last name of her teacher, Mme. Loewe-Destinn. The young singer made her début in 1897, at Dresden, but did not attract much attention at that time. She afterward resumed her studies and reappeared in Berlin as Santuzza in 1898 with great success. Although but nineteen, her beautiful voice and rare dramatic genius soon won the Berlin public, and she has been a member of the Royal Opera since that time, paying occasional visits to other German cities and to London for the opera season.

The Victor offers a number of fine reproductions of the voice of this famous singer.

EAMES, EMMA, Soprano (Aymz)

EAMES

Emma Eames was born in Shanghai, China, of American parents, her father being a lawyer of the International Courts. The family soon returned to their American home in Bath, Maine, where the young Emma began the study of music—at first with her mother but finally going to Paris, where she spent several years with Mme. Marchesi in arduous study of voice culture, dramatic action and the French language.

Though the road to opera is full of intrigues, Mme. Eames made her way to the front by sheer talent and hard study. A pure fresh voice, flexible and expressive, remarkably good intonation, an attractive personality, and an unbounded enthusiasm for her work were the qualities which contributed to her rapid advancement. She has, during her career, created a number of important rôles, and has sustained the best operatic traditions in many others in what may be classed as the standard repertoire.

ELMAN, MISCHA, Violinist

ELMAN

This young Russian violinist was for years the sensation of Europe, and at an early age attained artistic heights that would seem impossible to one so young. Elman, however, was a positive genius, not to be classed as a mere prodigy, and London and Berlin critics were absolutely amazed at this young virtuoso's maturity and independence of conception, his superb command of violin and bow and his marvelous delivery. Elman's American tours have demonstrated that these critics were right when they declared that for sheer genius this amazing youth had never been equaled.

The war has compelled Mr. Elman to remain in America, and he has given the Victor a number of new solos, as well as several records in conjunction with Mme. Alda and Mr. Caruso, reproduced by the Victor with absolute perfection. These new records form a striking addition to the Victor's splendid list of solos with obbligati by famous violinists. Mr. Elman is under exclusive contract.

FARRAR, GERALDINE, Soprano (Fah'-rah)

FARRAR

Although Geraldine Farrar brought to America a European reputation as an established favorite in Paris and Berlin, she has won a triumph here entirely on her merits as a singer and actress.

Miss Farrar was born in Melrose, Mass., in 1882, and at the age of twelve began her musical studies with Mrs. Long, of Boston, afterward coming to New York to study with Emma Thursby, at the same time learning dramatic action from Capoul. In 1899 she went to Paris, but became dissatisfied with her progress and decided to go to Berlin—a fortunate decision, as in a very short time she sang for Dr. Muck, of the Royal Opera, and was engaged for three years, making her début in October, 1901, as Marguerite in Faust. Miss Farrar now began to study harder than ever, at first with Spaziani, afterward with Lili Lehmann.

Though Miss Farrar's operatic career is a comparatively brief one, she has sung a very large number of rôles, including Marguerite, Butterfly, Carmen, Manon, Mignon, Elizabeth, Tosca, Juliet, Zerlina, Cherubino, Gilda, Mimi, Violetta, Nedda and many others. This young singer has chosen for her Victor list numbers which display in a striking manner the loveliness of her voice.

Miss Farrar has entered into an arrangement to sing exclusively for the Victor.

FORNIA, RITA, Soprano (For'-nee-ah)

This brilliant young soprano is a native of California. When a young girl she heard Patti sing and decided on a musical career. Her father objected, but finally consented to let her go to Germany, where she made her début in La Juive at Hamburg, afterwards singing in Barbiere and Magic Flute. Mr. Savage then secured her for his company, where she was heard by Mr. Conried and engaged for the Metropolitan.

The young singer has been a most useful member of that organization, singing a varied assortment of rôles with great success.

GADSKI

GADSKI, JOHANNA, Soprano (Gahds'-kee)

Johanna Gadski was born at Anclam, Prussia, in 1871, and received her musical education at Stettin, making her début at quite an early age, at Kroll's Theatre, Berlin, as Undine in Lortzing's opera of that name. Her success was immediate and has grown greater with each succeeding year. From 1889 to 1893 she sang during the summers at Kroll's and filled winter engagements in Mayence, Stettin, Bremen and Berlin. From 1895 to 1898 she appeared in America under Walter Damrosch's direction, and was subsequently engaged by Grau and, in the season of 1903-04, by Conried. She has sung frequently at Covent Garden, London, and has made extensive tours of America. Her repertoire embraces some sixty dramatic and "youthful-dramatic" rôles in German, French and Italian. She is as much at ease as Aida as in the goddess-like Brünnhilde. Mme. Gadski's contract is exclusive.

GALLI-CURCI, AMELITA, Soprano (Gal-lee Koor-chee)

GALLI-CURCI

Fresh from a conquest of South America, where she sang with Caruso and with Ruffo, Galli-Curci came to this country for the first time, making her début with the Chicago Opera Company, last November. The Victor Company, quick to recognize exceptional talent, made an exclusive engagement for a long term of years with this young artist, knowing that her many successes in Europe must inevitably be equaled or surpassed in America. Galli-Curci, who in private life is the Marchioness Amelita Galli-Curci, is an Italian by birth, but by experience she is very much a cosmopolitan. Her voice is one which haunts the memory. It is extremely flexible. In quality, it has the velvety softness and purity of the flute tone, and that quality is maintained throughout the entire register at all degrees of dynamic force. Her magnificent powers of bel canto are lavishly displayed in her Victor records.

GARRISON, MABEL, Soprano

GARRISON

One of the most important Victor exclusive engagements is that of this gifted soprano of the Metropolitan Opera forces. Miss Garrison is a native of Baltimore, and received her early musical training in the Peabody Institute. Like many another singer, she first attracted attention while a member of a church choir, but her remarkable musicianship and the exquisite brilliancy and color of her voice soon brought her success on the concert platform, and subsequently with the Metropolitan forces. The past season has been the most successful of Miss Garrison's career.

Her voice is of flutelike purity, and her singing exhibits the skill and finesse of the finished artist, which Miss Garrison assuredly is. The records she has made display the youthful freshness of her voice, and her coloratura work is little short of marvelous.

GERVILLE-RÉACHE, JEANNE, Contralto (Zher'-veel Ray-ahsh')

GERVILLE REACHE

The recent death of Mme. Gerville-Réache is mourned not only by her husband, Dr. Rambaud, and two lovely children, but by a host of music-lovers who have enjoyed her art.

This accomplished French contralto, who made such a success in America, was a native of the Basque country in southwest France. Her mother was Spanish, while her father was French, being long a Colonial Governor of Guadaloupe. Even when a child her voice was phenomenal for its unusual quality; and when Mme. Calvé heard it she advised that it be trained for an operatic career. To the great Criticos of Paris is due the credit for the development of this wonderful voice, remarkable for its wide range and exquisite quality—attributes which are strikingly shown in the beautiful records which Mme. Gerville-Réache made for the Victor.

GILIBERT, CHAS., Baritone (Zheel'-ih-bear)

GILIBERT

The death of this famous baritone of the Metropolitan Opera Company lends a melancholy interest to the records he has made.

Although the worth of this artist was well known to New Yorkers, he had won new triumphs during his last seasons at the Manhattan and Metropolitan, his work being highly praised. M. Gilibert, a short time before his death, gave the Victor two delightful French songs, delivering them with the artistic finish and good enunciation for which he was noted.

GILLY

M. Gilly was born in Algeria. Prior to coming to America he was leading baritone at the National Opera in Paris. In America he has been active in various rôles of the French and Italian repertoire and is one of the few French artists who are equally good in German and Italian rôles, and a feature of the Destinn-Gilly recitals has been the singing of a number of duets and groups of songs sung by Destinn in her native Bohemian tongue.

GLUCK, ALMA, Soprano (Glook)

GLUCK

One of the greatest additions to the Victor's list of famous sopranos is Alma Gluck, to whom nature has been most kind, as she is dainty, petite, beautiful to look upon, with a lovely, even, sympathetic voice.

Although born in Bucharest, Roumania, Mme. Gluck is essentially American, as she came to this country at the age of six, and most of her musical education was received here. The public knew very little of this young singer until one morning, several years ago, when, after making her first appearance as Sophie in Werther at the New Theatre, she awoke to find herself famous. After several seasons at the Metropolitan the young singer entered the concert field, in which she has made a phenomenal success.

Mme. Gluck has agreed to make records exclusively for the Victor until December, 1925.

GORITZ, OTTO, Baritone (Goh'-ritz)

Otto Goritz is one of the most satisfactory singers in the Metropolitan Company, his versatility being quite remarkable. Since his engagement several years ago he has played an astonishing number of important rôles, and with unvarying excellence, whether it be serious rôles or humorous ones—Burgomaster in Czar and Zimmermann, or the father in Hansel and Gretel.

His voice is of unusual richness and power and his acting always superb.

HAMLIN, GEORGE, Tenor

HAMLIN

To George Hamlin belongs the unique distinction of having gained a leading position in each of the three branches of the singer's art. He first won a nation-wide celebrity as an oratorio tenor of the first rank, and has appeared for many seasons with all the leading choral organizations of America and many abroad. Over one hundred oratorios and cantatas are included in his repertoire.

Mr. Hamlin stands to-day as one of the leading concert and Lieder singers; an attainment which calls for much artistic worth and vocal ability in high degree.

In the season of 1911-1912 Mr. Hamlin was engaged to sing the leading tenor part in Herbert's opera, Natoma, with the Chicago-Philadelphia Grand Opera Company. The genuine success in his first rôle led to Mr. Hamlin's re-engagement with the company for the following two seasons. In 1914 Mr. Hamlin went to Europe to fill engagements in Germany and Austria, but has now returned to America.

HEMPEL, FRIEDA, Soprano

HEMPEL

One of the most interesting record engagements by the Victor was that of Frieda Hempel, the young coloratura soprano of the Royal Opera House, Berlin.

This young singer is a native of Leipsic, and as a child showed such musical talent that she was sent to the Leipsic Conservatory, where her unusual voice and great ambition caused her to make rapid progress. In 1906 she sang at Bayreuth as one of the Rhine maidens and in 1907 made a few appearances in London, but her formal début was in the autumn of 1907 at the Roya' Opera House in Berlin.

Mme. Hempel's success was immediate, Berlin operagoers being delighted at the novelty of a colorature singer who possessed not only a lovely voice but youth and beauty as well. The public applauded her and the reviewers praised her. She rapidly became the chief coloratura singer of the opera; her reputation spread through Germany, Belgium and Holland; and she was in constant demand for concerts, where the purity of her voice and her command of the art of song were even more telling than in the opera house. She was ambitious and industrious and she steadily widened her repertory until it included the coloratura parts in the old Italian operas and in Mozart's lighter pieces.

The Victor promptly made an exclusive agreement and followed Mme. Hempel's American appearance with several fine records of her voice—including the great air from Huegunots, in which opera she has recently been heard at the Metropolitan. (For duets, etc., in which Hempel sings, see "Amato" and "Caruso.")

HERBERT, VICTOR

HERBERT

This famous director was born in Dublin in 1859, and at the age of seven, was sent to Stuttgart as a student of the 'cello. After some years' study and a tour of Europe, he accepted the position of solo 'cellist at the Metropolitan Opera in 1886. The Metropolitan Orchestra soon became too small for so talented a musician, and after having been bandmaster of the Twenty-Second Regiment Band, and Conductor of the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, Mr. Herbert organized in 1904 the Victor Herbert Orchestra, which has had a most successful career. All this time Mr. Herbert continued to compose operas, writing more than twenty-five, including his first grand opera, Natoma, produced at the Metropolitan February 28, 1911, and his latest production, Madeleine, brought out in January, 1914.

Mr. Herbert's great fame as a composer of operas has somewhat obscured the fact that he is a gifted 'cello virtuoso, and when but a young man held the position of first 'cellist in the Stuttgart Court Orchestra. Mr. Herbert has consented to play several of his solos for the Victor exclusively, the selections presented comprising a favorite song by Mr. Herbert's grandfather, Samuel Lover, the great Irish poet; one of Mr. Herbert's own compositions, and a Van Goens number.

HOLLMAN

Josef Hollman, who is one of the most celebrated virtuosos of Europe, has made six fine records for the Victor, which exhibit to perfection his artistic playing and noble tone. These selections are the impressive Ave Maria of Schubert; the well-known Träumerei of Schumann; Saint-Saëns' exquisite number, The Swan; and two of the 'cellist's own compositions.

Mr. Hollman also played the 'cello obbligati for several of Mme. Eames' solos.

HOMER, LOUISE, Contralto

HOMER

This popular American contralto comes from Pittsburgh, where she was Louise Delworth Beatty, daughter of a well-known clergyman. She is now the wife of Sidney Homer, a composer of many fine songs.

Louise Homer obtained the foundation of her musical education in America, under Alice Groff and W. L. Whitney. Her great talent was seen by Dr. Chadwick and Arthur Foote, who advised her to study for the stage. Taking this advice she went abroad, and two years of Paris atmosphere and training accomplished wonders. She made her début as Leonora in Favorita, in 1898. An engagement at Covent Garden, London, followed, and in 1899 she was secured by the Theatre de la Monnaie, Brussels. Her success was immediate and she remained for eight months, singing at nearly one hundred performances, while the Belgian public flocked to hear the American contralto. The next year she returned to Covent Garden, where she appeared for the first time in Rigoletto, and sang at the first State Concert in Buckingham Palace. As a result of her triumphs in London she was engaged for the Metropolitan Mme. Homer makes Victor Records exclusively.

JADLOWKER, HERMANN, Tenor (Yad-loaf'-ker)

JADLOWKER

This splendid tenor was born at Riga, in 1877, and made his début at Cologne. Successes in many European cities were followed by a triumphant appearance at the Metropolitan Opera House, New York, and a subsequent engagement at the Berlin Royal Opera House. England gave him a warm welcome recently at the Beecham Opera Season. His rich tenor voice reproduces superbly and the numbers which he has made for the Victor have been most successful.

JOURNET

Journet was born at Nice, France. He studied under Seghettini and made his début at Bezieres, Belgium, in 1891, where M. Calabresi, manager of the Brussels La Monnaie, heard him and promptly engaged him for three years. In 1897 he made his first appearance in London and has since been a prime favorite there.

Journet is possessed of a magnificent voice, full and resonant, and has a fine stage presence. He is perfectly at home in the French, German and Italian repertory, speaking the languages as a native.

This sterling artist is well known to opera-goers in America, as he was a member of the Metropolitan Opera Company for many years. In 1908 M. Journet was engaged by the Paris Opéra, and has since been one of the important members of that great company, returning to America only at intervals to fill special engagements at the Victor Laboratory exclusively.

JUCH, EMMA, Soprano (Yuke)

JUCH

This famous soprano, although born in Vienna, is a native American, her father, Justin Juch, having been naturalized some years before. When the little girl was two years old the family returned to New York. At an early age she began studying with Mme. Murio-Celli, and made her début in concert some years later in Chickering Hall.

In 1881 she was engaged for the Mapleson Opera Company in London, and made her début at Her Majesty's Grand Italian Opera, June, 1881, where she remained three years. She was the first artist engaged when the American Opera Company was formed, singing six rôles and one hundred and sixty-four times. On the closing of this company Mme. Juch toured the United States and Mexico with her own company, supported by Louise Natali, Franz Vetta, Lizzie McNichol, Wm. Mertens, Payne Clarke, E. C. Hedmondt, Sofia Romani, and S. H. Dudley.

KREISLER, FRITZ, Violinist (Krice'-ler)

KREISLER

Kreisler was born in Vienna in 1875, and although brought up in an atmosphere of refinement, he confesses that at one period of his boyhood his great ambition was to be a tram conductor! Those who know what a great artist he has become will shudder at the thought of what might have been lost to the world if this boyish wish had been realized.

At the age of ten young Fritz won the first prize at the Vienna Conservatory; and in his twelfth year astonished the professors at the Conservatoire in Paris by winning the Prix de Rome, an unprecedented occurrence. As a boy prodigy, he toured America with Rosenthal, returning to Austria to serve his time in the army. Although during these four years he abandoned violin practice entirely, on his reappearance in 1899 his bow was as true and his technique as flawless as ever.

The Victor Company may be justly proud of the compliment which the great violinist has paid to it in selecting Victor records as a medium for the perpetuation of his art. Mr. Kreisler's contract is exclusive.

KUBELIK, JAN, Violinist (Koo'-beh-leek)

KUBELIK

This great artist was born in Michle, near Prague, on July 5, 1880. His father, an amateur violinist, began to teach him the violin when but five years old, and the boy made his first public appearance at the age of eight. When he was twelve he entered the Prague Conservatory, where he remained for six years. His wonderful success since that time is familiar to all.

The records which he has made for the Victor exhibit well his firm, pure and beautiful tone, his admirable technique and the amazing ease and freedom of his playing.

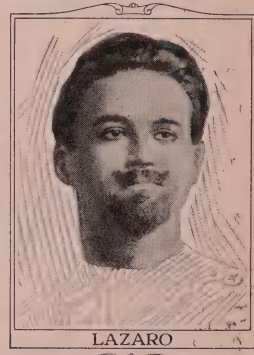
LAZARO, HIPPOLITO, Tenor



LAZARO

This promising young tenor, who is a native of Spain, has made a great success in Europe and South America. However, it was not necessary to wait for his actual appearance here, as the Victor had already made some records of his voice. In the recording of this singer the Victor has followed its usual policy of endeavoring to exhibit the beauty of the voice rather than its extreme power, and the records are therefore doubly attractive ones. Two favorite opera airs have been chosen for Lazaro's first records.

MARTIN, RICCARDO, Tenor

This young artist was born in Kentucky, and quite early in life seemed to have considerable talent as a composer. His parents sent him abroad for study, and after spending several years in Italy and Germany, he opened a studio in N.Y., devoting himself to composition and teaching.

It was during this period that young Martin discovered that he had a voice worth cultivating, and went to Paris, where he studied with Sbriglia and Jean de Reszke. His début in opera took place in Nantes, France, in 1904, when he sang Faust. Later, he appeared with the San Carlo Company, which toured the U. S. in 1906, and was then engaged for the Metropolitan.

MARTINELLI, GIOVANNI, Tenor

This young artist has made a notable success at the Metropolitan, and has been pronounced one of the best Italian tenors ever heard in America. He was born in Montagnana. His father, a cabinet-maker, was not able to give his son a musical education, but he managed to learn the clarinet and finally joined the regimental band, where the director discovered the young player's remarkable voice. He was sent to Professor Mandolini, and soon made his début at the Dal Verme as Ernani. Here he was heard by Puccini and Toscanini, who engaged him for Girl of the Golden West at Rome. A Covent Garden engagement followed, and as America eventually gets the best singers, Martinelli soon came to the Metropolitan; and the Victor, which also invariably acquires the best artists, promptly secured his exclusive services.

MATZENAUER, MARGARETE, Contralto (Mahtz'-en-auer)

Mme. Matzenauer was one of the sensations of a recent Metropolitan season, and her impersonations, especially in the Wagnerian rôles, called forth universal praise from critics and public alike. She made her American début as Amneris in Aida, soon afterward achieving other successes. She has impressed lovers of Italian opera as well as German with her splendid voice, her musical intelligence and her dramatic power. This singer, who calls herself a "dramatic mezzo-soprano," made her début in Oberon at Strassburg, where she remained three years, singing many rôles, and was then engaged for the Berlin opera, of which organization she is still a member, being released for part of each season for her American engagements.

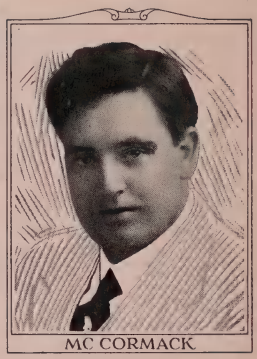
McCORMACK, JOHN, Tenor



MC CORMACK

A few years ago McCormack was entirely unknown to the musical world. He was born in Athlone, and grew up and went through college without discovering that he had a voice of more than usual merit. But one day he was induced to compete at the Dublin Musical Festival competition and astonished himself and friends by carrying off the first prize.

The tenor then gave several concerts, and with the proceeds went to Italy to study. After a number of appearances in Italian cities, he returned to London in 1907 and was engaged for Covent Garden, making his London début as Turiddu on October 15th. His succeeding triumphs at Covent Garden and in America are familiar to all, and he is now the most popular concert singer of all time.

Feeling that only the Victor was able to faithfully reproduce his voice, Mr. McCormack has entered into an exclusive agreement expiring February, 1938.

MELBA

No prima donna of the present day has ever been so beloved in three continents as has this Australian artist.

It was on December 5, 1893, in New York, that Melba was revealed to the American public. Who that was present will ever forget the marvelous voice that burst on their charmed ears at that time? Such power and brilliancy, such captivating ease of execution, such warmth and loveliness were simply astonishing. Music-lovers took the singer to their hearts that night, and to-day she is more firmly intrenched in their affection than ever.

Melba was born at Burnley, near Melbourne, Australia. Her father was a Scotch contractor who had been in Australia some years. He was proud of his daughter's musical talent, but objected to her following it as a profession, and it was not until her marriage to Captain Charles Armstrong that she finally decided on a musical career. The singer went to Europe in 1886, and began to study under Mme. Marchesi, making such rapid progress that her début was made in Brussels in 1887 under the name of Melba (derived, of course, from her native city), and her success was immediate. London first heard her in 1888, Paris in 1889, St. Petersburg in 1891, Milan in 1892, and New York, as mentioned above, in 1893.

Melba is to-day singing with the same delightful freshness, purity and power that have enthralled her audiences in the past. It is a matter for congratulation that the Melba records have been secured when the great singer was at her best, so that posterity will hear her in the full tide of her powers.

Like all the greatest singers of the world, the diva makes records exclusively for the Victor.

MICHAILOWA, MARIE, Soprano (Misch-ih'-oh-lah)

MICHAILOWA

This gifted Russian soprano is one of the most popular singers on the Victor List, and a short sketch of her career will doubtless be interesting.

Marie Alexandrowna Michailowa was born in Little Russia, in the south of the Empire, and made her first appearance in Charkow when quite a young girl. She then went to St. Petersburg for further study, where her unusually beautiful voice quickly attracted the attention of the critics. At the close of her Conservatory studies, she was engaged at the Imperial Opera House (Theatre Imperial de St. Petersbourg), soon becoming the chief prima donna, a position which she held more than fifteen years. Her voice is an unusually beautiful and sympathetic one and of a velvety softness.

NIELSEN, ALICE, Soprano

NIELSEN

Miss Nielsen, though eminently successful several years ago in light opera, was very ambitious and became dissatisfied with her work, feeling that she could make no further progress. She therefore began patiently to study for grand opera. Her bravery in sacrificing at its height one of the greatest careers in light opera this world has ever known (and this at an age when glory and adulation appeal most strongly to a young girl) and entering the struggle for supremacy in Grand Opera, may account for her remarkable rise into prominence within the past few years. What she has accomplished is now a matter of history, and the beautiful records she has made for the Victor speak eloquently of the wonderful progress she has made.

OBER

The engagement by the Metropolitan of this accomplished artist from the Berlin Opera has been a most notable one, as her triumphs have been complete. The New York Times in speaking of Mme. Ober said:

"A more brilliant piece of work has not been enjoyed here for a long time. The fire, vivacity and youthful ardor, the mischievous comic spirit of her acting, the adroitness with which she carries off the somewhat difficult task of a young woman representing a young man disguised as a young woman, are wholly delightful."

Mme. Ober's first engagement was at Stettin, where her work attracted the attention of the manager of the Berlin Opera, and after six months in Stettin she was engaged for Berlin. For six years she remained at the Royal Opera, playing a great number of rôles with success, and her Metropolitan engagement was the first outside of Berlin.

PADEREWSKI, IGNACE JAN, Pianist (Pad-er-ef'-skee)

PADEREWSKI

The Victor Company begs to announce that Ignace Jan Paderewski, the most gifted and remarkable pianist the world has ever known, has signed a new agreement to make records exclusively for the Victor during a long term of years, and the first five of the records produced under this agreement are now offered.

These numbers which are among the great favorites of Mr. Paderewski's concert repertoire have been selected by this famous artist for his latest representation in the Victor Catalogue. They have been made within the past few months and represent a noteworthy achievement in the recording of piano music. The piano has been one of the most difficult instruments to record satisfactorily, a peculiarity due to the special character of the tones produced. Notes played on the piano retain their full volume for a moment only, and the gradual diminution of the tone could not be satisfactorily maintained in the record. It is in this respect that a most satisfactory advance has been made by the Victor. Two of Paderewski's own compositions and three Chopin numbers are here listed, and we are pleased to know that the technique and artistry of a master have been worthily reproduced.

PATTI, ADELINA, Soprano

PATTI

Adelina Patti spent so much of her youth in this country that she is frequently spoken of as an American. As a matter of fact, she was born in Madrid, Spain, February 19, 1843. Her father, anxious to try his fortunes in the new world, came here when Adelina was ten years old, and became manager of the Italian Opera House in Chambers Street, New York. At the age of sixteen Patti made her operatic début in New York, on November 24, 1859, in Lucia and achieved a tremendous success. Patti's further career was a wonderful one, and the mere recital of her triumphs would fill a volume. No other singer was ever so long before the public and none was ever so successful in preserving an unimpaired voice.

Mme Patti has sung for the Victor some of the beloved old songs with which she has delighted millions of her hearers in past years.

PLANÇON, POL, Bass (Plan-sohn') (nasal)

PLANÇON

This accomplished and popular singer was born in the Ardennes, where his boyhood was spent. His father did not sympathize with his professional ambitions, intending him for a merchant. Incurring the displeasure of his family, he entered the Ecole Duprez through the influence of Ritter. Duprez, who was then the greatest living teacher of diction, taught young Plançon in the most thorough manner, and no artist of the present generation sang with more artistic finish, and with more careful attention to enunciation, phrasing and expression. His American début took place at the Metropolitan Opera House, New York, during the season 1893-94.

The death in August, 1914, of this great artist was greatly regretted by a host of music-lovers throughout the world. It is fortunate that his Victor records will still enable the present and future generations to hear this great voice in all its beauty and power.

POWELL, MAUD, Violinist

"When Maud Powell plays, one thinks, not of bowing and fingering, of staccato or legato, of harmonies or double-stops, of trills—though they be, as hers are, Melba-like in their perfection; one thinks only of the music. Like a great actor, she makes one forget the player in the art."—Henry T. Finck.

All Americans have reason to be proud of the achievements of their distinguished countrywoman, Maud Powell. From East to West audiences flock to hear her, and are delighted by her flawless playing; while her charming and gracious personality wholly fascinates those who are fortunate enough to meet her.

This artist was born in Peru, Illinois, and began taking violin lessons when she was eight years old. Her first teacher was William Lewis, of Chicago, who, doubtless because of her evident earnestness, took great interest in her. She describes him as an "unfettered" player, without much refinement of technique, but extremely "rugged." Within artistic limits Miss Powell puts a splendid energy into her own playing, and there seems little doubt that some of this energy can be attributed to her early lessons with this "unfettered" player.

Miss Powell studied with Lewis four years, and then went abroad, a girl of twelve, to study first with Schradieck in Leipsic, and then with Dancla in Paris. Afterward Joachim heard her play in London and offered to take her into his classes in Berlin without obliging her to go through any further preliminary studies. She returned to New York in 1884 and made her début with the New York Philharmonic in the Bruch G minor Concerto, and since that time she has created a new standard of violin playing. She makes records for the Victor exclusively.

REISS, ALBERT, Tenor (Rice)

REISS

This gifted tenor and comedian is one of the most useful members of the Metropolitan Opera Company, and during the past few years has been seen in a large number of important rôles. Some of his most famous impersonations are that of Mime, a wonderful character study—sardonic, malignant and fawningly malicious; David, an appealing and sweet-voiced apprentice; and The Witch in Hansel and Gretel, in which part he tries his best to conceal his fine tenor voice, giving a most humorous performance.

Whatever part Mr. Reiss essays, it is always an artistic portrayal, and he has set a standard at the Metropolitan in tenor comedy rôles which it will be difficult to approach.

RENAUD, MAURICE, Baritone (Ray-noh')

RENAUD

Maurice Renaud is one of the greatest baritones Europe has ever produced. Born at Bordeaux in 1862, he was sent to the Paris Conservatoire at the age of nineteen, and made his début two years later at Brussels in Reyer's opera, Sigurd. After seven years at Brussels, he went to the Opéra Comique, and in the next year was engaged for the Opéra, where he has made one of the greatest successes in the history of that famous temple.

Renaud has made many visits to Italy, and has appeared in Monte Carlo, St. Petersburg and London. He was the first to sing Hans Sachs, the Dutchman, Telramund and Wolfram in the French productions of the Wagner works. His repertoire includes such widely varied operas as Lakmé and L'Africaine, and comprises nearly fifty rôles.

RUFFO, TITTA, Baritone (Roof'-foh)

RUFFO

This famous Italian baritone, who for several years past has been one of the operatic sensations of Europe and South America, made his début in the United States at the Metropolitan Opera House, Philadelphia, on November 4, 1912, in Verdi's Rigoletto, and his sensational success in Hamlet, Pagliacci, Masked Ball and Rigoletto has caused an unusual demand for his records.

The story of Ruffo's career is a most romantic one. He is a Tuscan by birth, and at an early age entered the Conservatory of Santa Cecilia at Rome, but after two years of study was dismissed by the faculty and advised to seek another profession, the directors declaring that his vocal equipment was inadequate for operatic work! Fortunately for the operatic world, the young man was undismayed, and, still determined upon a musical career, he went to Milan and sought the advice of Signor Cassini, a former artist who made a specialty of vocal training. The latter not only asserted his belief in Ruffo's powers but taught him free, as the young artist had nothing with which to pay his tuition. Subsequently he went to Rio Janeiro, where his first success was made. He then sang in other South American cities, soon returning to his native land for a triumph that will ever be memorable.

Ruffo's voice is a high baritone of amazing fluency and power, combined with a richness of tone and facility of execution that are most unusual. He is successful in both dramatic and lyric rôles, and astounds his audiences with the vigor of his portrayal of Hamlet and Tonio, while he charms them in the lighter music of Barber of Seville.

SAMMARCO

Mario Sammarco was born in Palermo, Sicily, December 13, 1873. His musical studies were pursued under Antonio Cantelli, and he made his operatic début in Milan, 1894, and was then engaged for Giordano's opera, Andrea Chenier, at La Scala.

His great success in this opera established his position, and he has since been in demand, singing in all the chief cities of Europe. He has sung many consecutive engagements at Covent Garden, where he is a great favorite. Coming to the Manhattan Opera House, New York City, for its first season, he remained during its existence as a home of Grand Opera, and was a favorite artist during the last season of the Chicago-Philadelphia Company.

SCHUMANN-HEINK, ERNESTINE, Contralto

SCHUMANN-HEINK

Ernestine Schumann-Heink is the most popular and beloved contralto who has ever visited America. Her superb voice and thoroughly artistic singing and acting, as well as her genial personality, have endeared her to audiences everywhere.

Mme. Schumann-Heink is the daughter of Herr Rossler, an Austrian army officer, who at the time of her birth was stationed in Lieben, Bohemia. At the age of ten little Ernestine was sent to the Convent of the Ursuline Nuns in Prague, where she sang in the choir, but entirely by ear. Her father was afterward transferred to Graz, where a teacher named Marietta von Le Clair, who had recognized the signs which told of a voice worth cultivating, kindly offered to give the budding genius her best efforts without pay. The girl's voice at that time was a deep contralto, with no high notes. The wise teacher kept her on nothing but exercises for two years before she gave her songs by Mendelssohn, Schubert and other composers. In 1878 she made her first appearance at the Dresden Opera House as Azucena in "Il Trovatore," and in the early '90s she achieved fame in Berlin. In 1896 she appeared at Bayreuth and in 1898 created a sensation in London. Her first appearance in New York was in 1898, and she was such a great success that American audiences refused to allow her to return to Germany. She has now taken up her residence here and has become an American.

Mme. Schumann-Heink's tonal equipment is as remarkable as ever in range, power, color and control. Aside from the striking tonal and emotional aspects of Mme. Schumann-Heink's art, its significance lies also in its musicianship.

The engagements which interest the largest number of persons are those which the great contralto fills in the Victor Laboratory. Large as her audiences always are, they would seem small indeed compared to the great public she sings to by means of the Victor. Mme. Schumann-Heink, desiring that her records should be as perfect as possible, and worthy of her reputation, has signed an exclusive agreement with the Victor.

SCOTTI, ANTONIO, Baritone

SCOTTI

One of the most valued and gifted artists of the Metropolitan Opera Company is Antonio Scotti, the well-known baritone. He was born in Naples, and even as a child showed a desire to become a singer. His friends strongly advised him to study music, and he was induced to consult Mme. Trifari-Paganini, who assured him he had an exceptionally good voice, and urged him to cultivate it. He at last yielded, though with little hope of ever becoming an artist. At the age of 23, after he had studied for four years, he made his début at the Teatro Reale, in Malta, as Amonasro in Aïda, singing later at that house in nine other rôles. Scotti's career was now open to him. He sang in turn in many of the great theatres of Italy and filled six seasons in South America. Engagements at the Teatro Reale, Madrid, and in St. Petersburg, Moscow, Warsaw and Odessa, established his reputation.

His London début was made as Don Giovanni, under the management of Mr. Grau, who at once engaged him for the Metropolitan. Since that time he has been a constant visitor to America, where he has won fame in many parts, notably as Don Giovanni, Scarpia and Tonio. Scotti's impressive Scarpia is one of his most famous impersonations, while as Falstaff he recently achieved an artistic triumph.

Signor Scotti is an artist whom it is equally a pleasure and an education to hear. His legato singing is a delight, his intonation and his diction admirable, and his style the best. His voice possesses a rarely sympathetic quality which takes a thorough grip on his hearers.

Signor Scotti, who sings exclusively for the Victor, has made a number of very fine solo records, besides singing in many duets and other concerted numbers with other artists.

SEMBRICH, MARCELLA, Soprano

SEMBRICH

Sembrich was the daughter of a poor musician of Lemberg, in Galicia, but afterwards adopted her mother's maiden name, which was Sembrich. Her father began to teach her to play the piano and violin when she was but four years old, and at twelve she was obliged to play the piano for dances in order to help support the family. Her musical gifts were noticed by a benevolent Pole named Lanowich, who sent her first to the Loepel Conservatory, then to Vienna, where Professor Epstein discovered the natural beauty of her voice, and advised her to take up voice culture.

Her début was made as Elvira, June 3, 1877, at Athens; and she was then engaged for the Dresden opera in 1878. In 1880 she sang Leonora at Covent Garden and her success being assured, engagements in Warsaw, St. Petersburg, Moscow and Madrid followed.

In 1883 she was engaged for the Metropolitan Opera House, making her American début October 24th, in Lucia, afterwards singing Elvira, Violetta and Ophelia. As soon as the public realized that here was the perfect singer at last, her triumphs were phenomenal—such perfection of style and beauty of tone, combined with that power of interpretation which is one of her greatest gifts, won the plaudits of audiences and critics alike.

Of her astonishing versatility a leading American critic has said, referring to one of her song recitals: "The sustained dignity of Gluck, the open-air vigor of Handel, the grace and wit of the Italian Pergolesi and the Frenchman Campra; a delightful surprise in the shape of a comic air from one of Bach's secular cantatas; Beethoven's 'Neue Liebe Neues Leben,' and songs by Schubert, Schumann, Loewe and Brahms; modern songs in French by Bizet, in Russian by Tschaikowsky, in German by Hugo Wolff, Strauss, Grieg and Bungert, and in English by the American Van der Stucken! An art that can compass all these things is an astonishment and a never-ceasing delight."

Although Madame Sembrich may never appear in opera again, her admirers of to-day and those of future generations may still hear her delivery of the great operatic airs, which are imperishably recorded by the Victor exclusively.

The retirement of this singer from the opera was a notable event, and in announcing her departure from the operatic stage she said: "I wish to make my adieux while the sun is still high in the heavens—that is all. For me there shall be no pity"; and while her admirers may regret this decision, they cannot fail to praise her excellent judgment.

Mme. Sembrich recently paid a short visit to America and gave a few recitals in aid of the widows and orphans of her beloved Poland, who have suffered so much from the ravages of war and her consummate art delighted her audiences just as of old.

SLEZAK

This artist is now pronounced to be one of the greatest of tenors, and such was his popularity abroad that only with the utmost difficulty was permission obtained from the management of the Royal Opera, Vienna, for him to fill a season in America.

Slezak has been called the second Tamagno, and with good reason, as he possesses not only a splendid voice, but is a really great actor as well. His recent appearances caused the critics to be exceedingly enthusiastic in his praise.

The Victor Company was the first to bring out records of this great tenor, having issued several selections before his first American appearance.

SPENCER

Miss Spencer was born in Boston, where she studied with the best teachers before going abroad. Several years of hard work and serious study in London and Paris followed, and at her début in New York the young singer made a profound impression; the critics unanimously praising her beautiful voice, fine diction and artistic phrasing.

After several seasons of oratorio and concert engagements, this artist began a series of New York concerts, and the character of her reception at these recitals made an annual concert a certainty. Miss Spencer's Victor records are very fine ones, being absolutely faithful reproductions of her lovely voice.

TAMAGNO, Francesco, Tenor (Tahm-mahn'-yoh)

TAMAGNO

On August 31, 1905, at the age of 54, this famous artist, the greatest tenor of his time, died at Varese, Italy.

Tamagno was the son of a rural inn-keeper near Turin, and to his active out-door life he doubtless owed his wonderful physique—that great chest and iron throat which produced the wonderful robusto tones that are still remembered.

Though this great singer has passed away, we can still hear that matchless voice, thanks to science, which has made it possible to record it imperishably. Delightful as it is for one's own diversion to bring back the true record and ring of a voice that is far away, how much stranger, how much more extraordinary it seems when we are able to recall from the world of shadows the sound of a voice that is still!

Records of this famous artist are issued only by the Victor Company, Tamagno having agreed not to sing for any other company during his lifetime.

TERRY, ELLEN ALICIA, Actress

TERRY

The Victor has recorded a series of Shakespearean selections by one of the most famous of living actresses, Ellen Terry. This artist was born in 1848 at Coventry, England, her parents being well-known actors. Her first appearance on the stage was made at the age of eight in "A Winter's Tale." After several years with various stock organizations, she joined Henry Irving's company, playing Katherine in "Taming of the Shrew," and thus began the long association with this great actor which terminated only at his death in 1905.

Miss Terry has recited for the Victor portions of the works in which she has made her greatest successes, and the series forms a most interesting souvenir of this noted actress.

TETRAZZINI, LUISA, Soprano (Tet-trah-tzee'-nee)

TETRAZZINI

Mme. Tetrazzini has made one of the greatest successes in operatic history in this country, and has met with a reception almost unparalleled. During her last operatic engagements, the great Manhattan and Metropolitan Opera Houses in New York were crowded every time the famous soprano appeared, and she has been greeted with a series of tremendous ovations. It is not the habit of blasé New York audiences to go wild over a singer, but the Tetrazzini performances were the scenes of some most remarkable outbursts of enthusiasm.

The management of the Tivoli Opera House in San Francisco first brought Tetrazzini to the attention of the English-speaking world. Other countries had already discovered in her work qualities of extreme excellence; but it remained for San Francisco to make her "world famous." Her triumphs in London, New York and elsewhere are too well known to require further mention.

Tetrazzini's first concert tour, embracing twenty of the largest cities, was a succession of ovations. It is a wonderful voice with which this great soprano is electrifying her audiences; remarkable in its purity and great range, while her colorature work is extremely brilliant.

It is perhaps enough to say here that this marvelous voice has been recorded in all its beauty and power on these thirty superb Victor records, and the list contains all the numbers with which Mme. Tetrazzini has made her greatest triumphs.

Especially noticeable in this list are the Proch air, one the diva's most famous numbers, her singing of it approaching the marvelous; the favorite Last Rose, the first record to be sung in English; the Swiss Echo Song, a famous old colorature air, the difficult variations being given with dazzling brilliancy and consummate ease; David's beautiful Charmant Oiseau, which shows to rare advantage the diva's purity of tones, especially in the duet with the flute; and favorite opera airs—from Masked Ball, Barber of Seville, Carmen, Dinorah, Rigoletto, etc.

Mme. Tetrazzini makes records exclusively for the Victor.

VIAFORA, GINA C., Soprano

Mme. Viafora, who in private life is the wife of the famous caricaturist, was a member of the Metropolitan Opera Company for several years, and was one of the most promising of the younger prima donne in that organization. Her voice is fresh and youthful, with much natural beauty and has ample range and power. The soprano has sung for the Victor the charming Musetta Waltz from Bohême besides taking part in the Bohême quartet with Caruso, Farrar and Scotti.

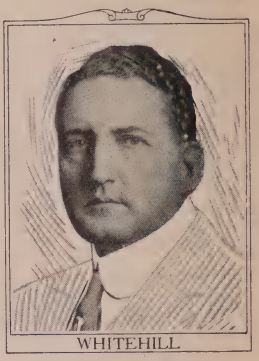
WHITEHILL, CLARENCE, Baritone



WHITEHILL

A recent announcement of much interest was the engagement by the Victor of the famous American bass-baritone, Clarence Whitehill, whose splendid work at the Metropolitan confirmed the good reports which had come to us from Europe.

Mr. Whitehill hails from the West, having been born in Marengo, Iowa. He took such a keen interest in music that at the age of 19 he went to Chicago to begin studying in earnest. He sang in several Chicago churches with some success, and four years later Mme. Melba advised him to go abroad for serious study. The young man took her advice, went to Paris and placed himself under Giraudet for dramatic action, and Sbriglia for French dramatic rôles. He proved an earnest student and hard worker, and had soon mastered more than thirty bass rôles.

His début was made at Brussels in 1900 as Friar Laurence in Romeo. He returned to Paris for a season at the Opéra Comique, and was then secured by Mr. Savage for the English opera season at the Metropolitan in 1901. Returning to Europe in the spring of that year, he began, on the advice of Mme. Wagner, to study German opera, and in 1902 appeared in the Ring at Lübeck, and as Wolfram at Bayreuth in 1904. The next five years were divided between the Cologne opera and the Covent Garden season, where he alternated with Van Rooy. Successful engagements at the Munich "Festspiel" and the Paris Grand Opéra added to his reputation, and in 1909 he was engaged by Mr. Dippel for the Metropolitan.

In an interview Whitehill says: "I am an American through and through. I had ancestors in the Revolutionary War. I wanted to get back home, and that is why I gave up the three-year contract which I had with the Vienna Opera. Now that I am back here, I am going to devote myself very largely to concert work, although I shall not abandon opera altogether."

The baritone has chosen a wide variety of selections for his Victor records, including several old-time ballads, which have been especial favorites with the older generation.

Mr. Whitehill makes records exclusively for the Victor.

WILLIAMS, EVAN, Tenor

The public is to be congratulated on the engagement by the Victor of this great American tenor, whose popularity is widespread throughout the country. His voice is now at its best, and its beautiful quality, as well as the exquisite phrasing of which he is such a master, are much in evidence in his records. Mr. Williams was born in Ohio, of Welsh parents. He is immensely popular in the United States, his reputation having extended into England by means of his fine Victor records, and he has made several successful tours of that country.

Mr. Williams' old friends, who are countlesss, have been delighted at the opportunity of hearing him on the Victor, and he has made many new admirers by his beautiful singing, which is perfectly reproduced. The tenor's list is composed mainly of English ballads and also includes several opera airs in English and a number of oratorio selections.

This artist sings exclusively for the Victor.

WITHERSPOON, HERBERT, Bass

WITHERSPOON

The Victor Company is now able to offer to its patrons a number of fine records by one of the most successful of American bassos, whose superb work with the Metropolitan Opera has deepened the impression already made by him in concert. Mr. Witherspoon is a singer of intelligence, with a voice and style of unusual beauty. He has an impressive stage presence, distinguished bearing and much personal magnetism. His voice is of ample range, exceptionally well schooled, noble in quality, and he is a master in the art of phrasing. Mr. Witherspoon makes records for the Victor only.

YAW, ELLEN BEACH, Soprano

YAW

Ellen Beach Yaw is an American singer, of whom her countrymen are justly proud, and her success in the United States and Europe is well known to all concert-goers. Her voice is young, fresh and brilliant, and its register quite remarkable.

The numbers which this gifted soprano has recorded for the Victor include the familiar Bell Song from Lakmé, which she sings with a brilliancy quite unusual and delightful, and Masse's charming Nightingale's Song, given with an ease of execution and a birdlike quality that rivals even the poetic nightingale. Her appearances at the Metropolitan Opera a few years ago are still pleasantly remembered.

ZEROLA, NICOLA, Tenor (Zer'-oh-lah)

ZEROLA

Nicola Zerola was born in Naples in 1876. After training his voice at the famous conservatory of his native city and under the best private masters, Zerola made his début as Canio in Leoncavallo's opera, Pagliacci, at Trieste. His success was instantaneous, and engagements quickly followed at the leading theatres of Italy, including the San Carlo of Naples; at Madrid; at Lisbon, where he sang the leading tenor rôles in The Jewess, and Ballo in Maschera. Then came tours to Mexico, Havana and Central America.

In the autumn of 1909 he appeared in New York in Il Trovatore with a company then giving opera at the Academy of Music, and made such a tremendous success that he was immediately engaged for the Manhattan Opera House, where he made a strong impression in the rôles of Canio and Otello.

With Mr. Hammerstein's retirement Zerola went to the Philadelphia-Chicago Company, where he repeated his success of the previous season.

The Victor has recorded seven of Zerola's finest numbers and the records are remarkable for their great volume.

ZIMBALIST, EFREM, Violinist

ZIMBALIST

The Victor has added another famous virtuoso to its list of celebrated players—the young Russian, Efrem Zimbalist, who has created such a stir on the continent, in Great Britain and America. Born at Rostoff on the Don in 1890, he began to study the violin at the age of eight, and at seventeen he completed his musical education under Leopold Auer. His début at St. Petersburg was sensational, and his subsequent tours through Germany, England and America have earned for him a place among the first violinists of the day.

Zimbalist's numbers are most attractive ones, comprising the beautiful Humoresque of Tor Aulin; MacDowell's lovely Long Ago; Spalding's graceful Alabama; numbers by Reger, Brahms and Cui; and two of Zimbalist's own compositions; besides a number of records made with his wife, Mme. Gluck, and the great Bach concerto, with Kreisler. He makes records for the Victor exclusively.

Pronouncing Table—Composers, Singers and Operas

The constant appearance of new names in the Victor lists will make this table quite useful. It is not intended to be a complete list, but includes only those names the pronunciation of which is not clear and those difficult to pronounce. The sign (′) denotes the syllable to be accented.

Some Remarks on Pronunciation of Foreign Names and Titles

In most pronouncing dictionaries pronunciations are indicated by symbols such as these: á, ê, ì, etc., and unless these signs are thoroughly memorized, the key list must be consulted for each word, which is most inconvenient. The Victor endeavors to do away with this list by means of syllables which indicate the approximate pronunciation at a glance, or by using familiar words—using ah for the sound of a as in barn; oh for o as in boat; and ay for a as in ate; and giving the short sound of e (hen) and i (hit) by eh and ih.

Some Sounds Difficult to Indicate

It must be understood, however, that it is quite impossible to give exactly the sound of some foreign letters (such as the French e, and n, or the German w).

For instance, the last syllable of Chopin, indicated pang—which is about as near as one can come in English characters,—is pronounced, as some one has said, by commencing to sound the ng', but stopping midway, and closing the back of the throat to throw the sound through the nose.

The French e (as in de) might be indicated deh, but is pronounced with the lips almost closed. Put your lips in position to pronounce oo, as in food, then try to say deh instead, and you will come very near it. The German w (as in Wagner) is neither a w nor a v, but just between them. Begin the word as though it was spelled Vahgner, but instead of pressing the teeth firmly against the lower lip, press them very lightly and then go through the motion of sounding the v.

The editor has indicated these pronunciations as nearly as possible, and they will be found correct enough for practical purposes. But do not pause at each syllable—pronounce the entire word rapidly without hesitation, putting a decided accent on the syllable marked with the sign "′".
